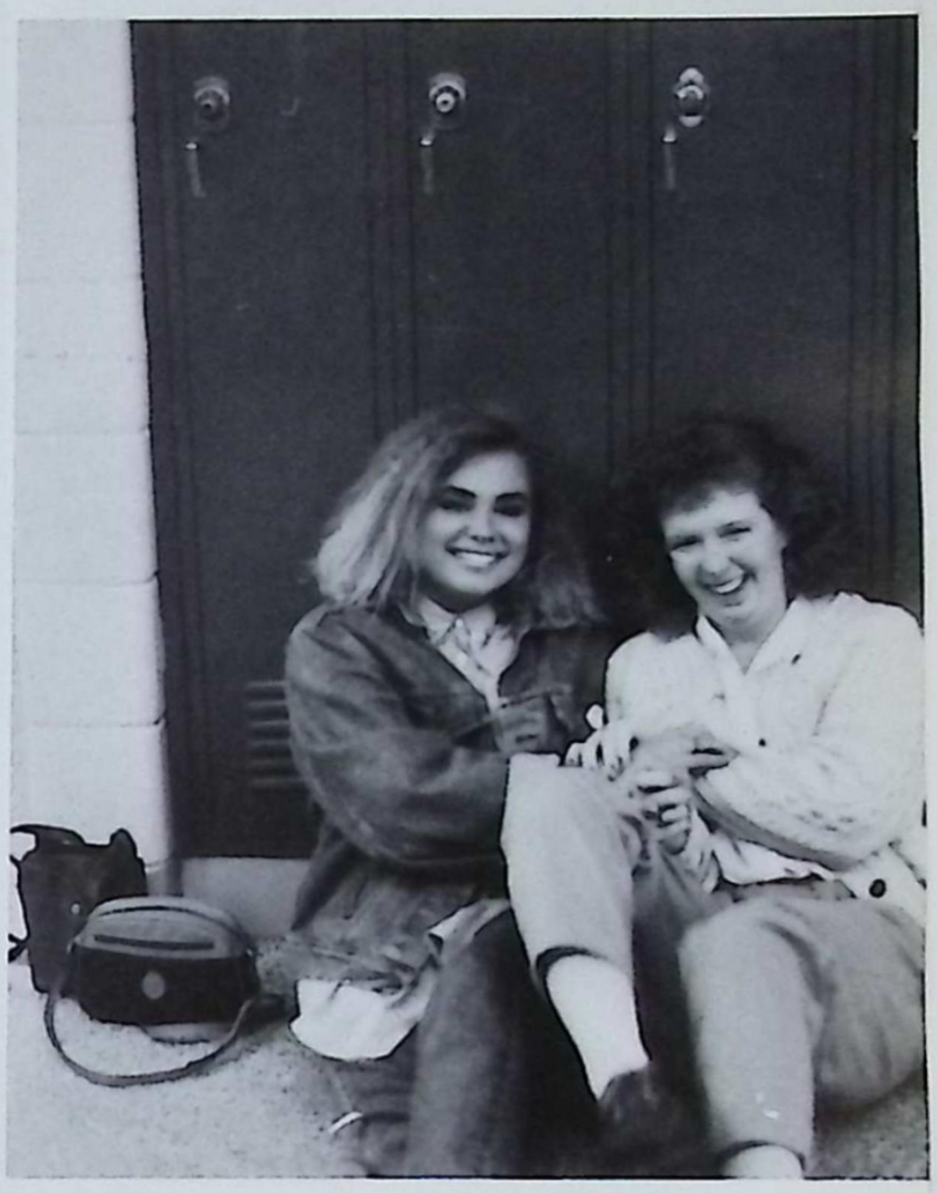
FRIENDS



You've finally made it!! The years of hard work have paid off, and it's time to move on in the world. The years behind us have meant much more to us than the obvious educational purposes. Memories and smiles, friends and activities. These little extras had a major role in the shaping of our lives and minds. A whole different and new world is just around the corner, waiting to be discovered. As sad as it may be to say "good-bye," and to share those last few smiles, and the last few tears, the memories of those who have played any sort of role in our lives, whether it be big or small, will remain with us for many years to come. Best of luck, Seniors, it's your turn now!!

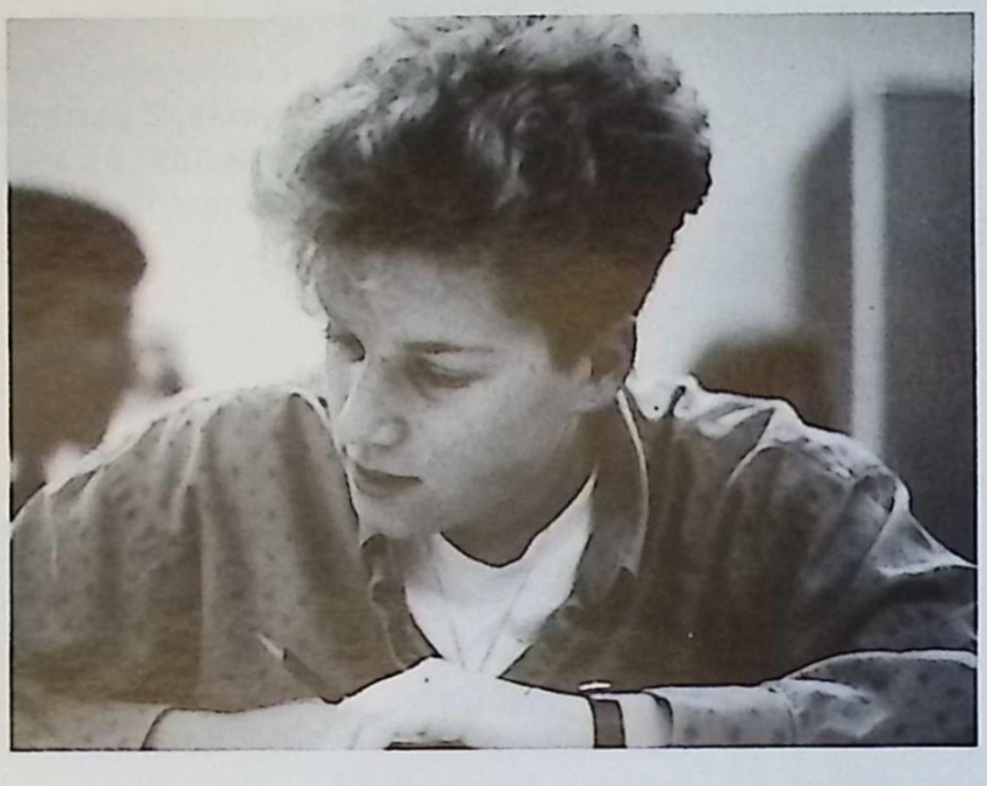
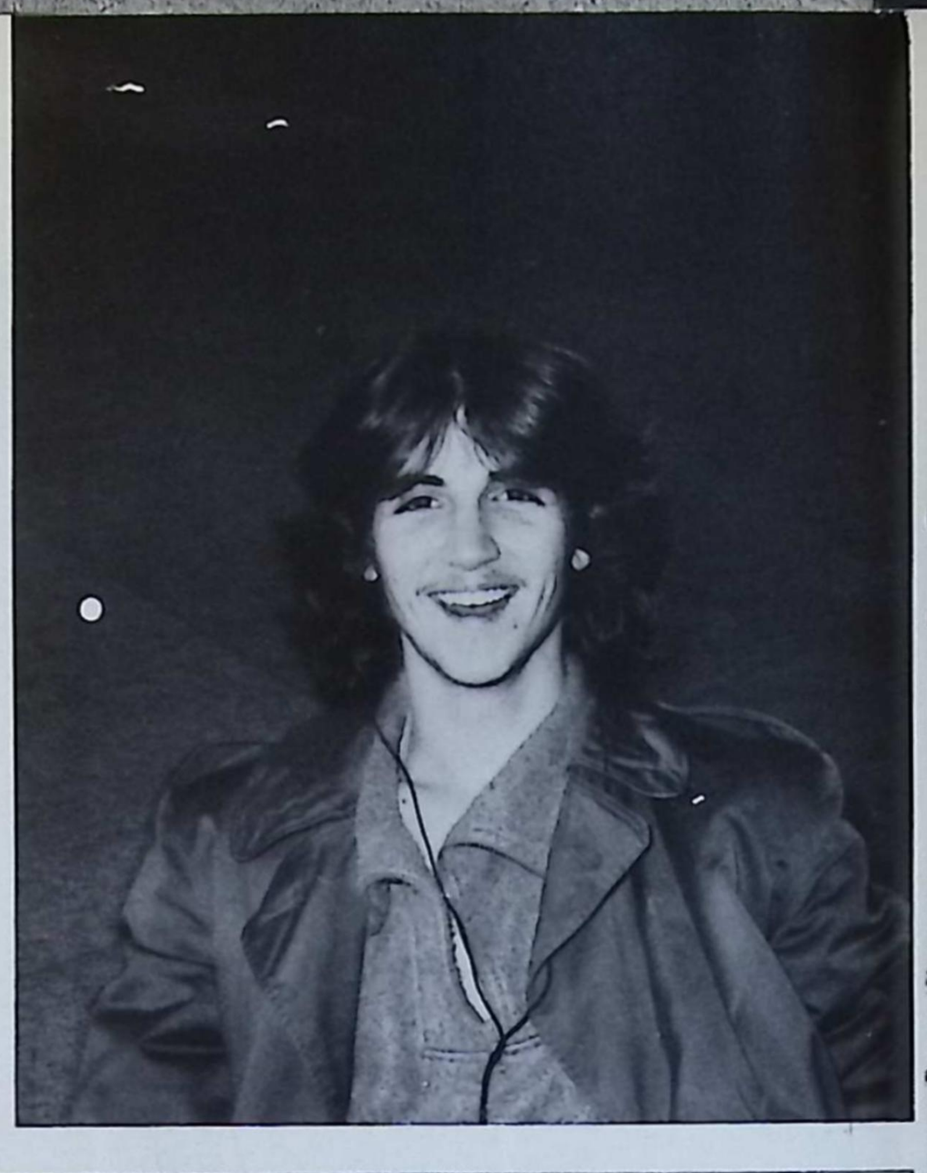
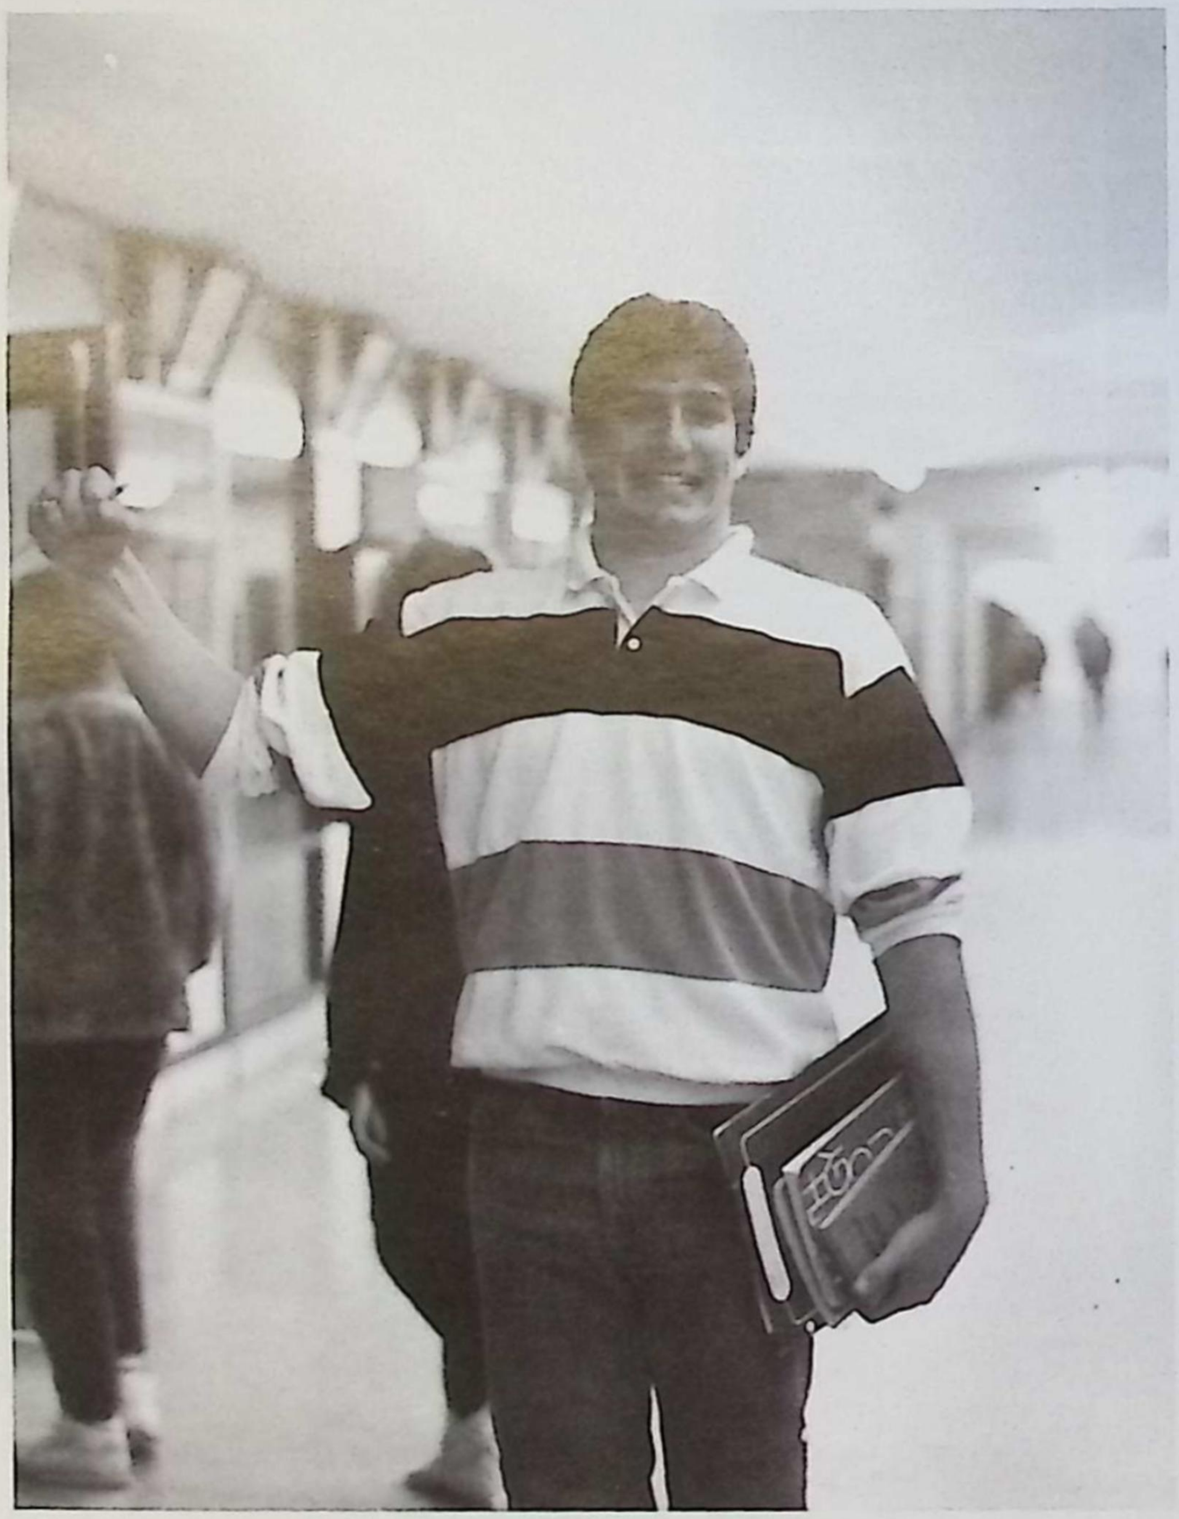
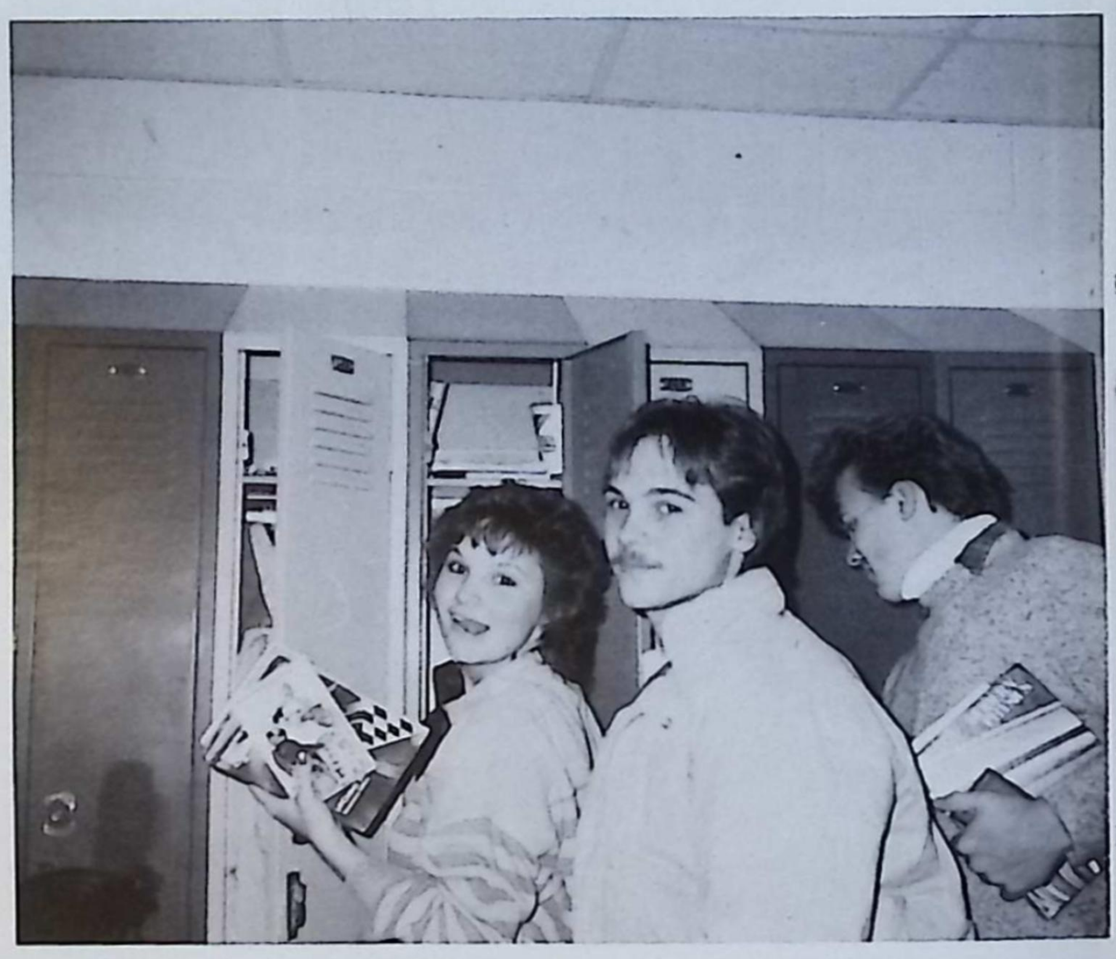
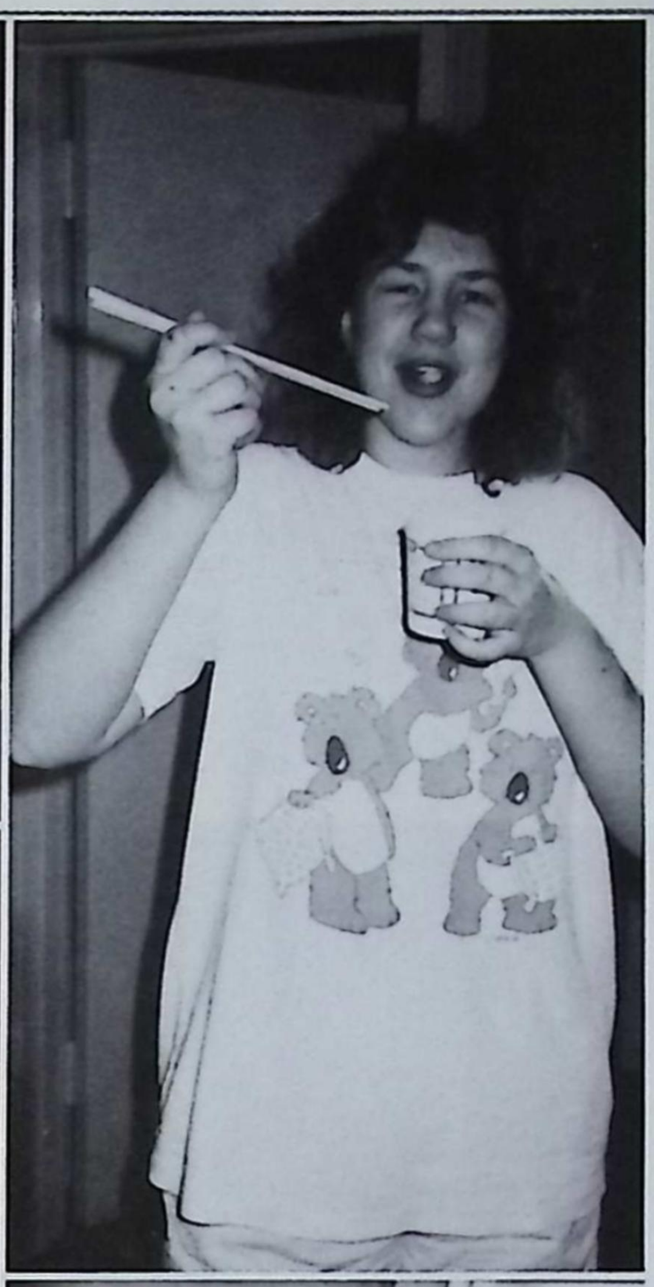
A FINAL LOOK . . .





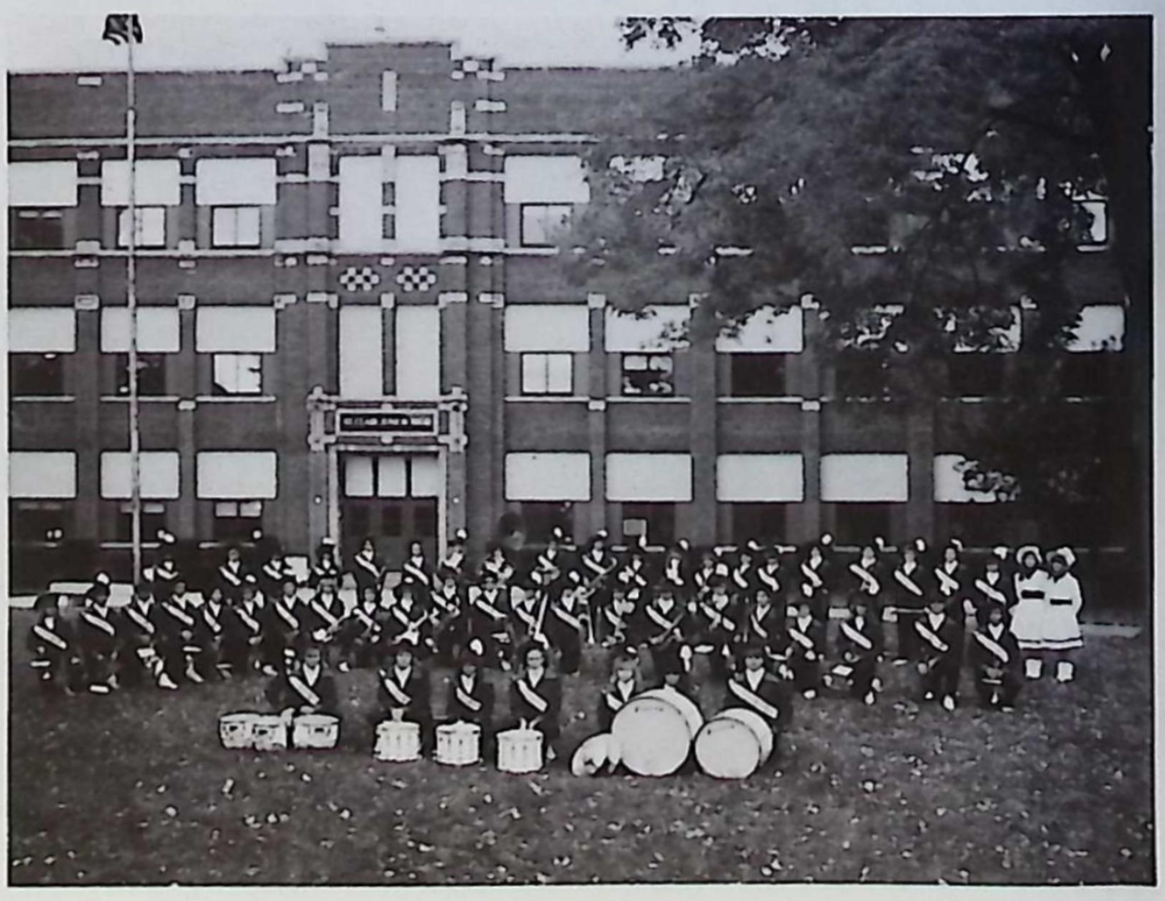




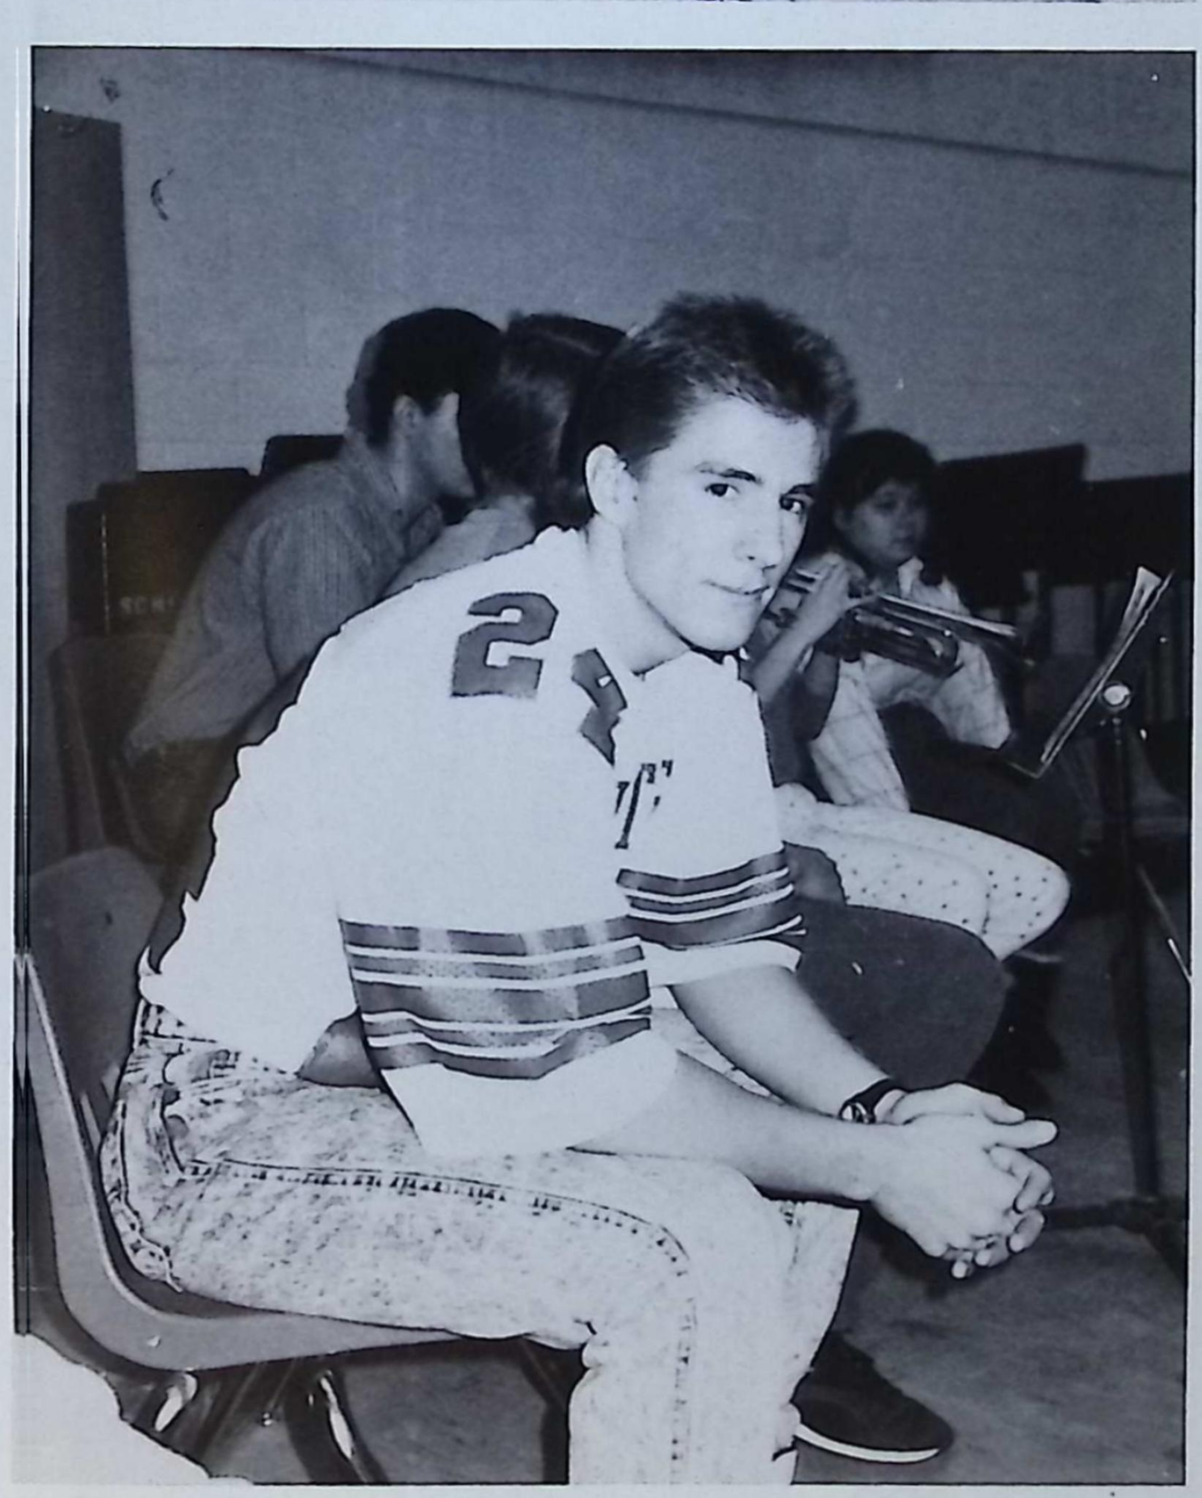


CLUBS

Showing off the perfect band attire is John Webber. John Bennett, Eric Hohmann, Jason Bitting, are getting ready for band to start as Kim Jones isn't sure whether she is ready for it to start or not. Do you remember? Then . . . . . and now. Did you forget something? Possibly your trumpet? The 1987-88 St. Clair High School Band. Directed by Mr. Robert Wheeler. Drum majorettes are Kim Jones and Tracee Good.



THE MUSICAL PIECE OF THE PUZZLE



The St. Clair High School Marching Band brought entertainment to the public during football season.

The band performed at every home football game. They gave the crowd some toe tappin' music.

Along with the band playing for the crowd, the colorguard perform several routines.

The marching band isn't just for football games, they also participate in the homecoming and the Memorial Day Parade. Once again the Marching Saints brought music to what would have been a quiet event.

After football season, the band takes off their marching uniforms and begins their concert season. They participate in the MSBOA District Band and Orchestra Festivals, which is usually held in March. The Solo and Ensemble Festival was held February 20. The competitors this year were: Sonja Boden — percussion, Renee Koch — flute. They received I's. While Lisa Thompson — trumpet, Chris Redfield — piano, and Tracee Good — Piano received II's.

Twice a year concerts are given. This is the payoff for both the parents and the students. After listening to the horrifying screeches from instruments, and practicing till' your fingers and face turn blue the one thing that soothes the raw nerves and fills the faces with pride are the concerts.

B.O.E.C. (Business and Office Education Club) deals with the business world today. This year's theme was "Touching the Future". The business club's activities involve fund raising, meetings, dues, regional and state competition in business skills.

At regional competition students compete in a business-like atmosphere. Everyone is dressed up in business-like attire. Some of the tests one might take are: Keyboarding, Business Math, Prepared Verbal (speech), Computer Specialists, Job Interview, Office Support Assistant and many more. If one places in the top eight positions in their competition, they earn the right to go to state competition

The state competition is the highlight of B.O.E.C., which involves a harder test of that which was taken at regionals. If one makes the top three spots, they are off to national competition. State competition was held at the Renaissance Center in Detroit. The three days spent there were exciting. Besides test taking one might go shopping, attend work shops, meet new and interesting people, and have an all around great time.

B.O.E.C. is a great club. It may start one on his/her way to a business oriented career. So join today if you want to show off your talent .

A MUSICAL PUZZLE

During first hour, on any given day, you can hear the strains of music drifting through the halls. The voices you hear all blend together to give us the unique sound of our choir. The members of the choir work continually to perfect their songs. They do this willingly, in preparation for their concerts. Much to the enjoyment of the student body and the public.

A special part of the choir is the group known as the St. Clair Singers. This select group of singers was picked for their ability to sing and dance.

The Singers work long and hard hours to bring their song and dance routines up to performance level.

Their work pays off each year when they travel to area schools and club banquets to perform.

The young men and women of the choir and the St. Clair Singers are a much appreciated part of St. Clair High School.

Jane Stuben shows no signs of nervousness, as she effortlessly sings a song. The St. Clair Singers often sang the National Anthem at sporting events, as they are seen here at a Varsity Girls Basketball game. The members of the choir proudly pose for their picture.

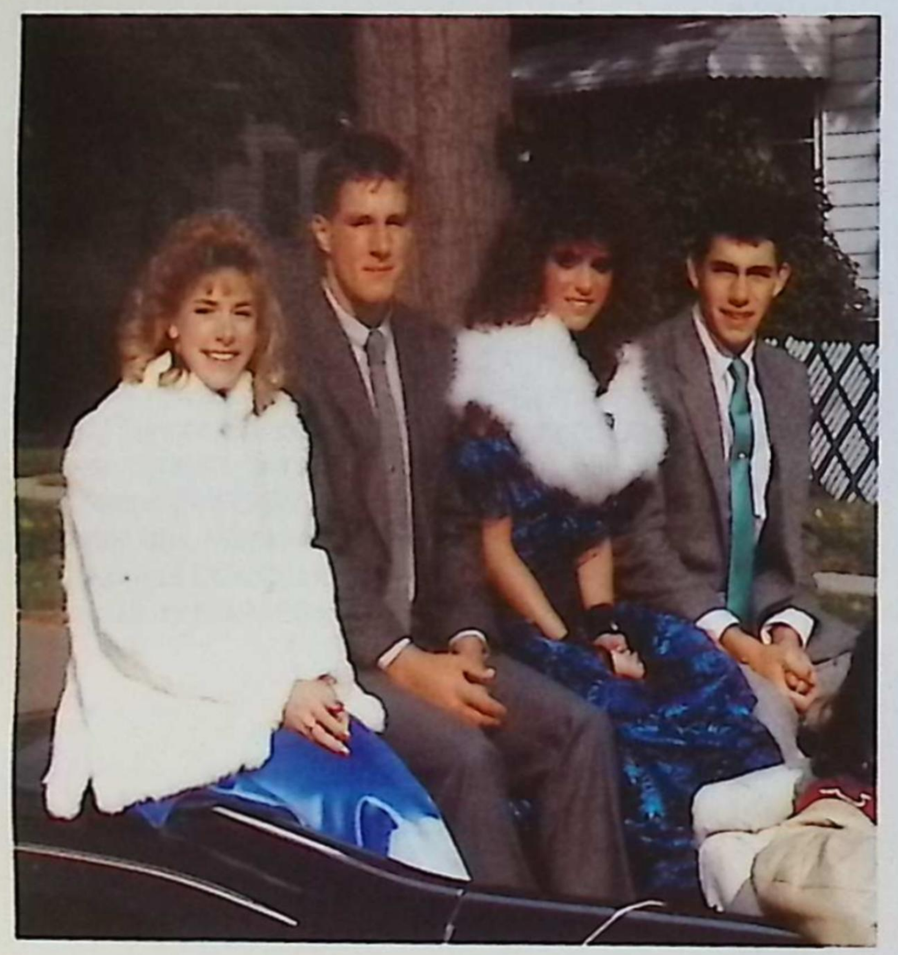
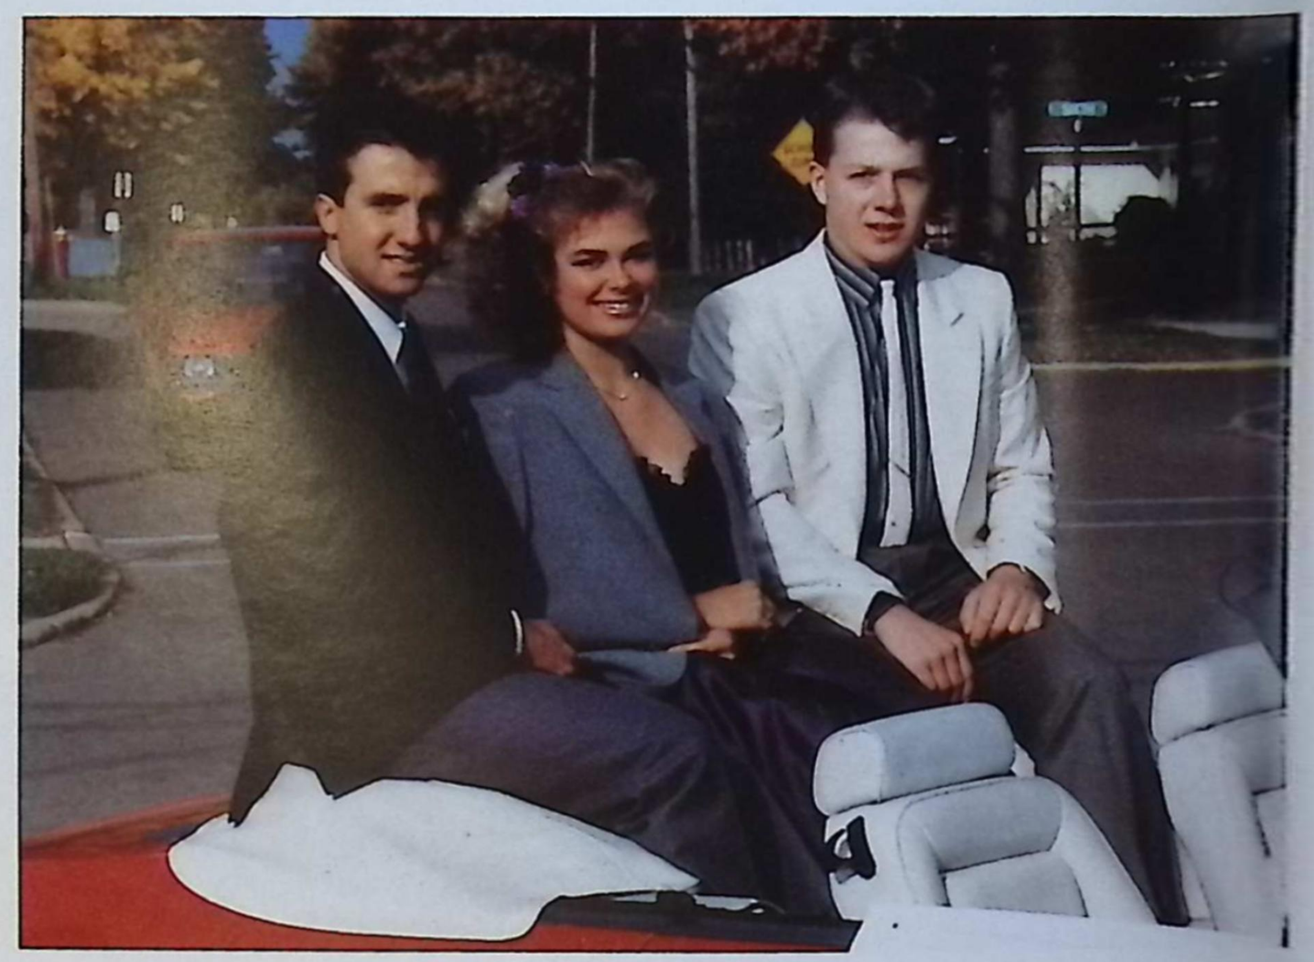
HOMECOMING
October 10, 1987

The making of the floats is exciting, but also the most hectic of Homecoming activities. Lots of preparation and time goes into making the floats. The 1987 theme was "Fairy Tales" — First place went to the Seniors, Second to the Juniors, and Third to the Sophomores.

The Senior float theme was from "Rapunzel" (Wrap 'em Up Saints). The Juniors float theme was "The Three Little Pigs". The Sophomores float theme was "The Little Old Lady Who Lived In A Shoe".

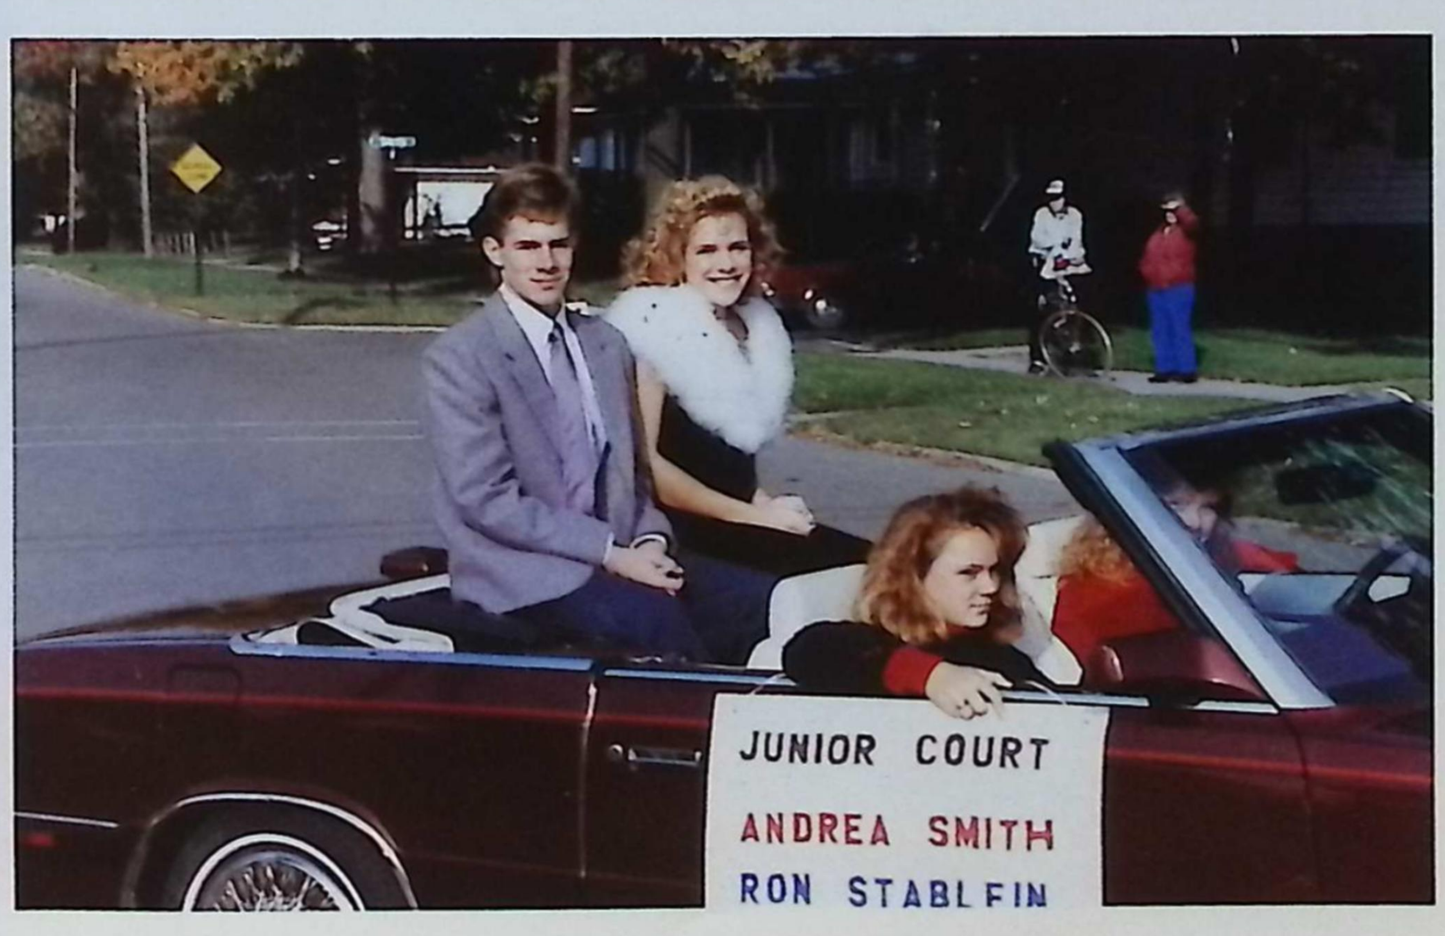




Sophomore Court Representatives were Yvonne Lanarski and Dan Accivatti. Senior Court Representatives were Gail Wolfe, Jason Bitting, Dawn Vargo, and Derek Reese. Three of this years Exchange Students, Marcial Montenegro, Marie Froling, and Ekkehart Kruger pause for a quick snap shot during the parade. Senior Court Representatives were Lee Martens, Brooke Bowman, Kim Judson, and Rick Schweihofer.

PARADE

.The tradition of Homecoming poses a special feeling in the air. The excitement for the game and dance mounted as the day grew older. The parade and floats are just a few of the traditional things occuring on this day. Among the popular is the procession. This is not only special to the representatives, but to the spectators as well. They get to see the bright and out going young adults representing our school and community.



Four of this years exchange students — Marja-Leena Nissi, Joerg Tietje, Hanne Nordli, and Jacob Anderson. Varsity Cheerleaders pause for a quick snap shot. Junior Court Representatives Ron Stablein and Andrea Smith.

Mr. Tim Zobl and Marie Froling wait patiently for the announcement of the 1987 Homecoming King and Queen. Walking through the tunnel of flags is Senior Court Representative Rick Schweihofer and his proud mother. Escorted by her father is Senior Court Representative Kim Judson. Senior Court Representative Jason Bitting and his mother walk to their position in line.

HALFTIME ACTIVITIES

During Homecoming Day there are a lot of activities going on. Excitement increases as the announcement of the new 1987 King and Queen approaches. The suspense is at its peak when halftime arrives. At this time, each of the representatives walk through the color guards tunnel of flags to stand before the crowd. As the King and Queen are announced, the look on their faces shows just how special homecoming can be.

The expression on Mrs. Vargo's face shows how proud and excited she is for her daughter, Dawn Vargo. Escorted by her grandfather, Brooke Bowman is all smiles while walking down the field. Quarterback Lee Martens is escorted by his mother.

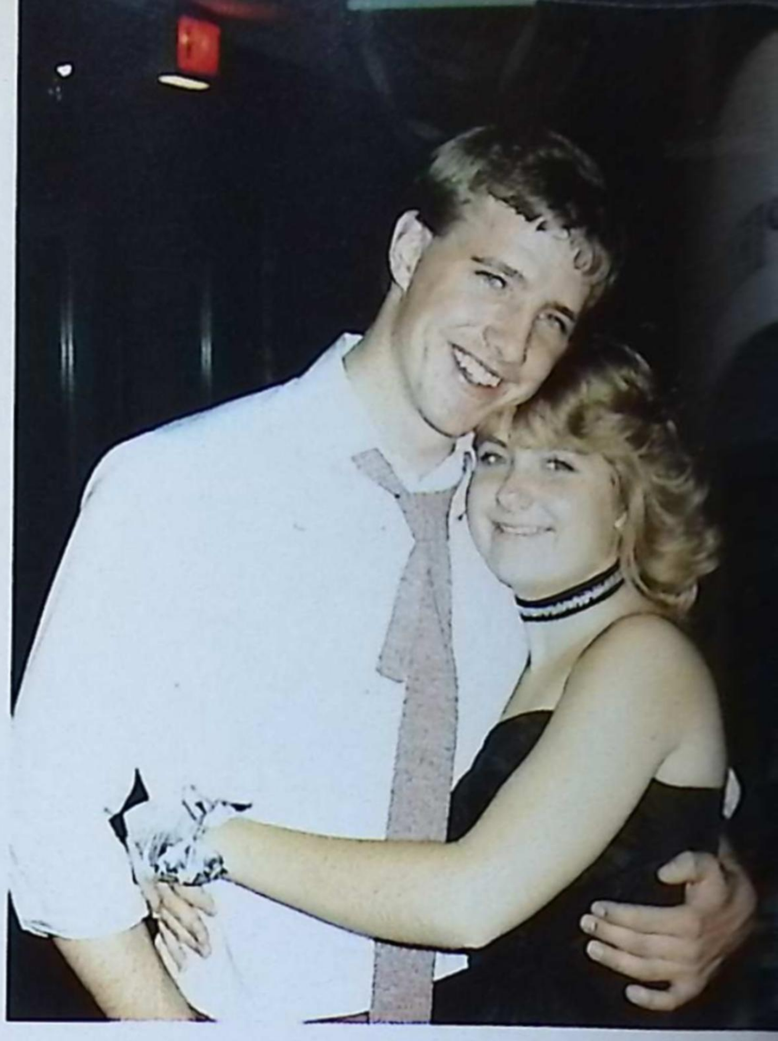
The 1986 Homecoming Queen Jenny Posey crowns this years recipient Dawn Vargo. The 1987-88 Foreign Exchange Students are Jacob Anderson, Marja-Leena Nissi, Ekkhart Kruger, Hanne Nordli, Marcial Montenegro, Marie Froling, and Joerg Tietje. Varsity Cheerleaders Laura Monte and Angela Watt congratulate this years King and Queen Derek Reese and Dawn Vargo.

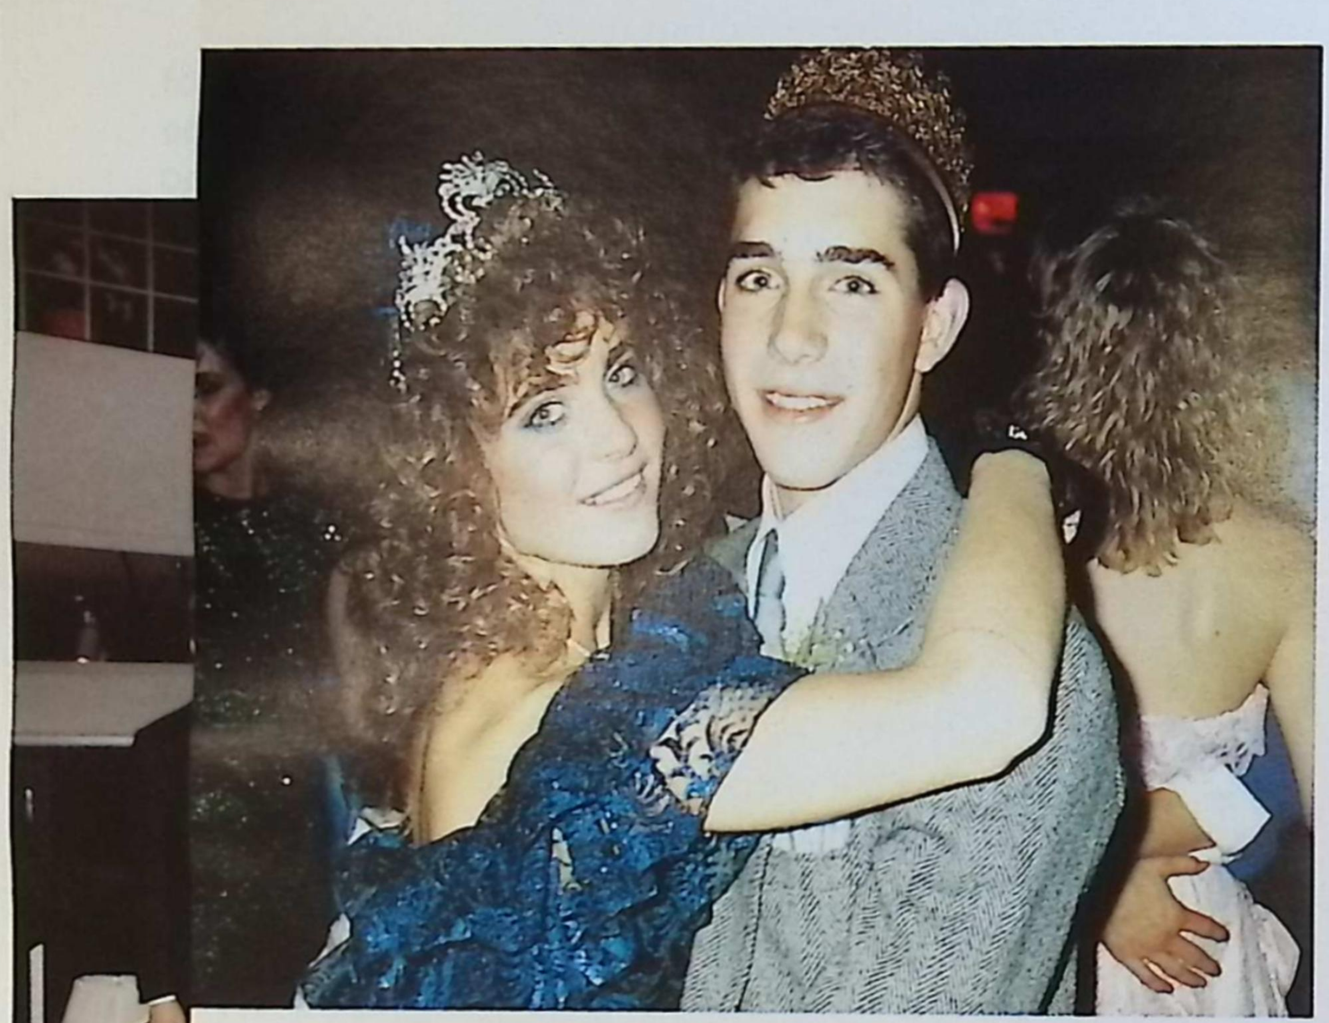
HOMECOMING COURT

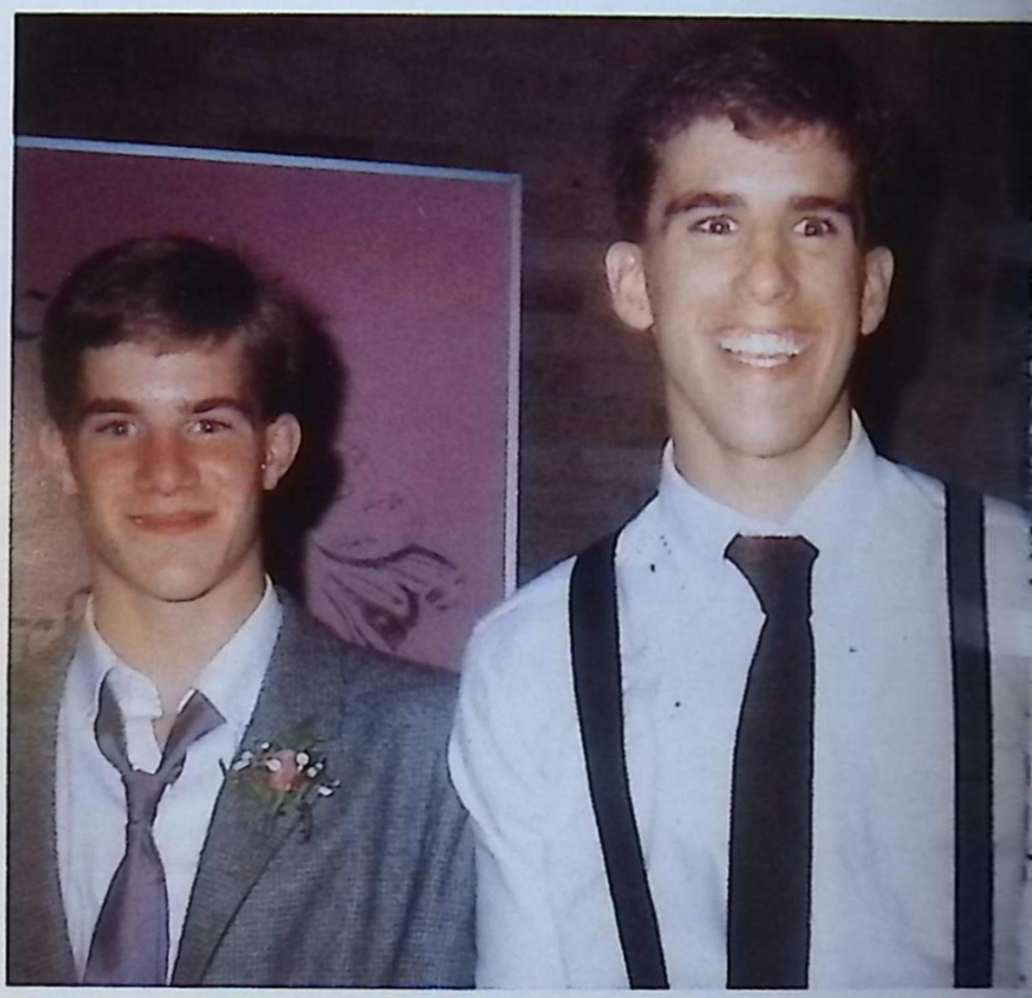
Making Homecoming a huge success was the beautiful sunshine and the crowd's excitement. The floats were set to be judged and the football game was not far away. The court representatives were anxiously awaiting halftime for the announcement of the King and Queen. The spectators are well aware of all the eligible candidates that could be chosen. The suspense reaches its peak as they are announced and the look of happiness and shock show just how much this acitivity means to the students here at SCHS. After the festivities the students began to get anxious about the Homecoming Dance that evening.

The 1987 Homecoming King and Queen were Dawn Vargo and Derek Reese. The 1987 Homecoming Court Representatives were as follows: Yvonne Lanarski, Dan Accivatti, Andrea Smith, Ron Stablein, Gail Wolfe, Derek Reese, Brooke Bowman, Rick Schweihofer, Kim Judson, Jason Bitting, Dawn Vargo, and Lee Martens. Seniors Gail Wolfe, Kim Judson, and Brooke Bowman pose with the King and Queen.

Homecoming Dance







The theme of the dance was "Cinderella", enjoyed by the following: Shari Kierszykowski, Derek Reese, Angela Watt, Brian Schweihofer, and Bonnie Hamilton as they stop dancing to share a friendly pose. Last years Homecoming King Kurt Distelrath and his date Stephanie Fisher take a needed break from the croweded dance floor. The King and Queen dance together to the theme song, as others start to join in. Ronnie Stablein gives us a big smile as Kirk Schaaf shows off his pearly whites to the crowd on the dance floor. Matt Mehlberg and Kelly Bigger stop for a picture before they leave the dance.

PIECING IN A PART OF THE FLAG

With their quick timing, flashy routines, and dedication, the 1987 Colorguard represents the school spirit and pride during the fall season.

The St. Clair Colorguard not only entertained the football crowds at halftime with their flag routines but also showed us a pom pom routine once in awhile.

To be part of the Colorguard the girls have to be a member of the St. Clair High School Band. These girls are directed by Mrs. Robert Wheeler.

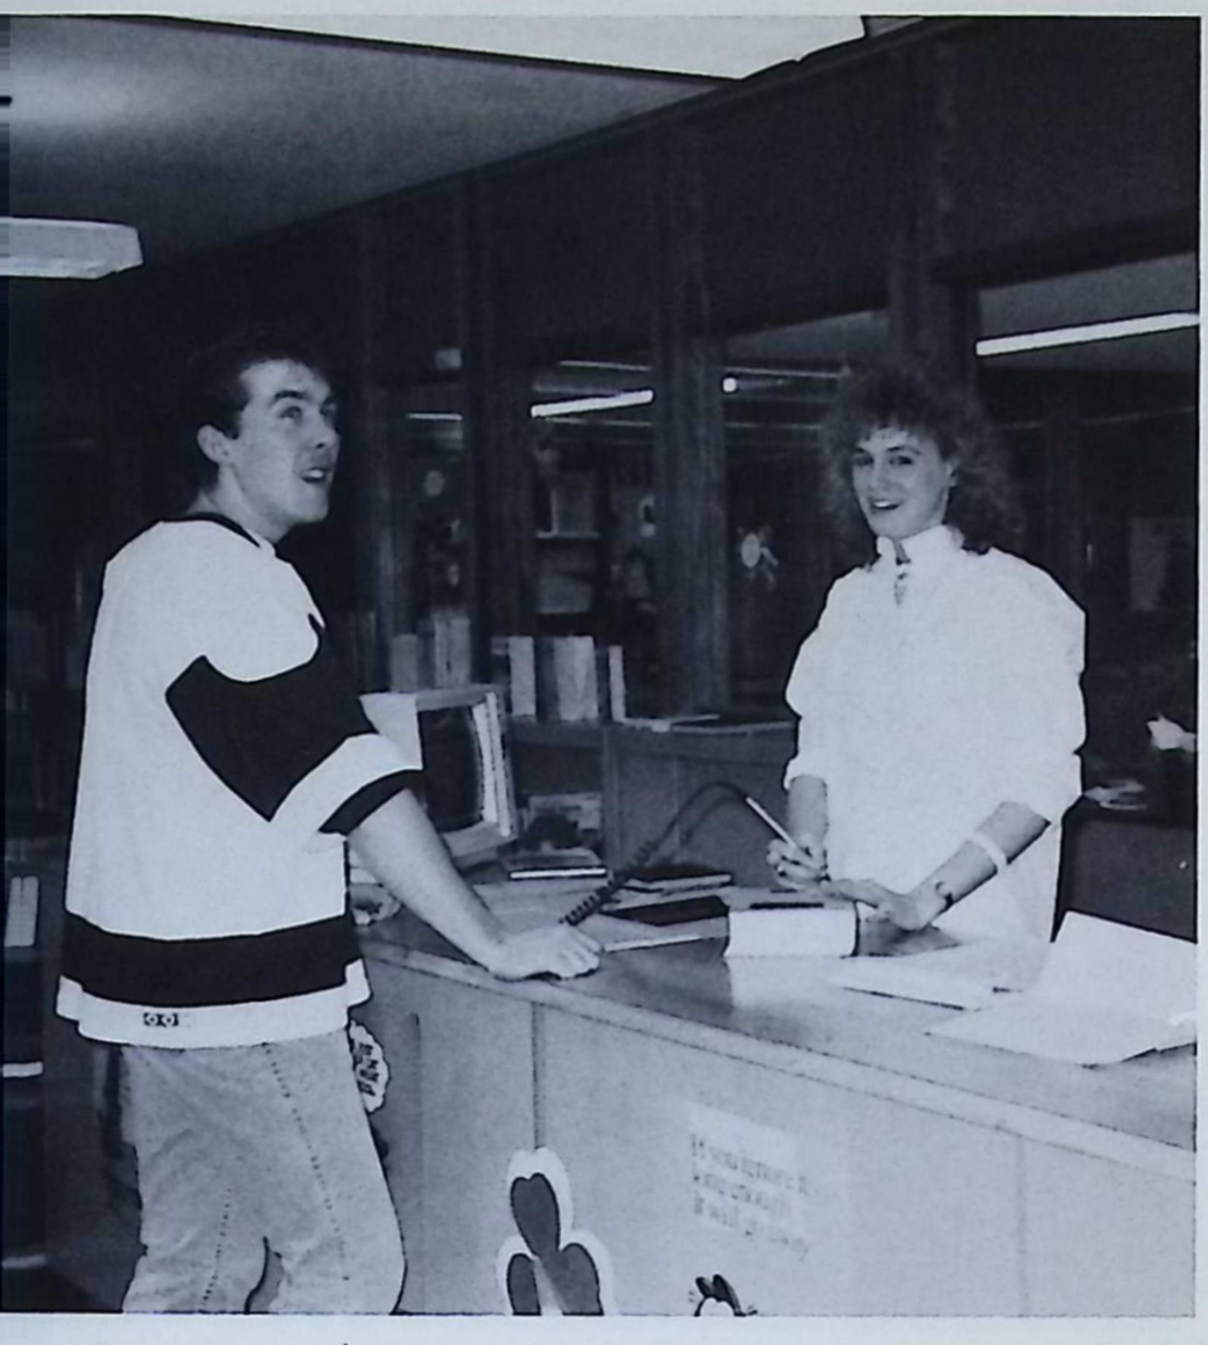
WORKING THE PUZZLE TOGETHER



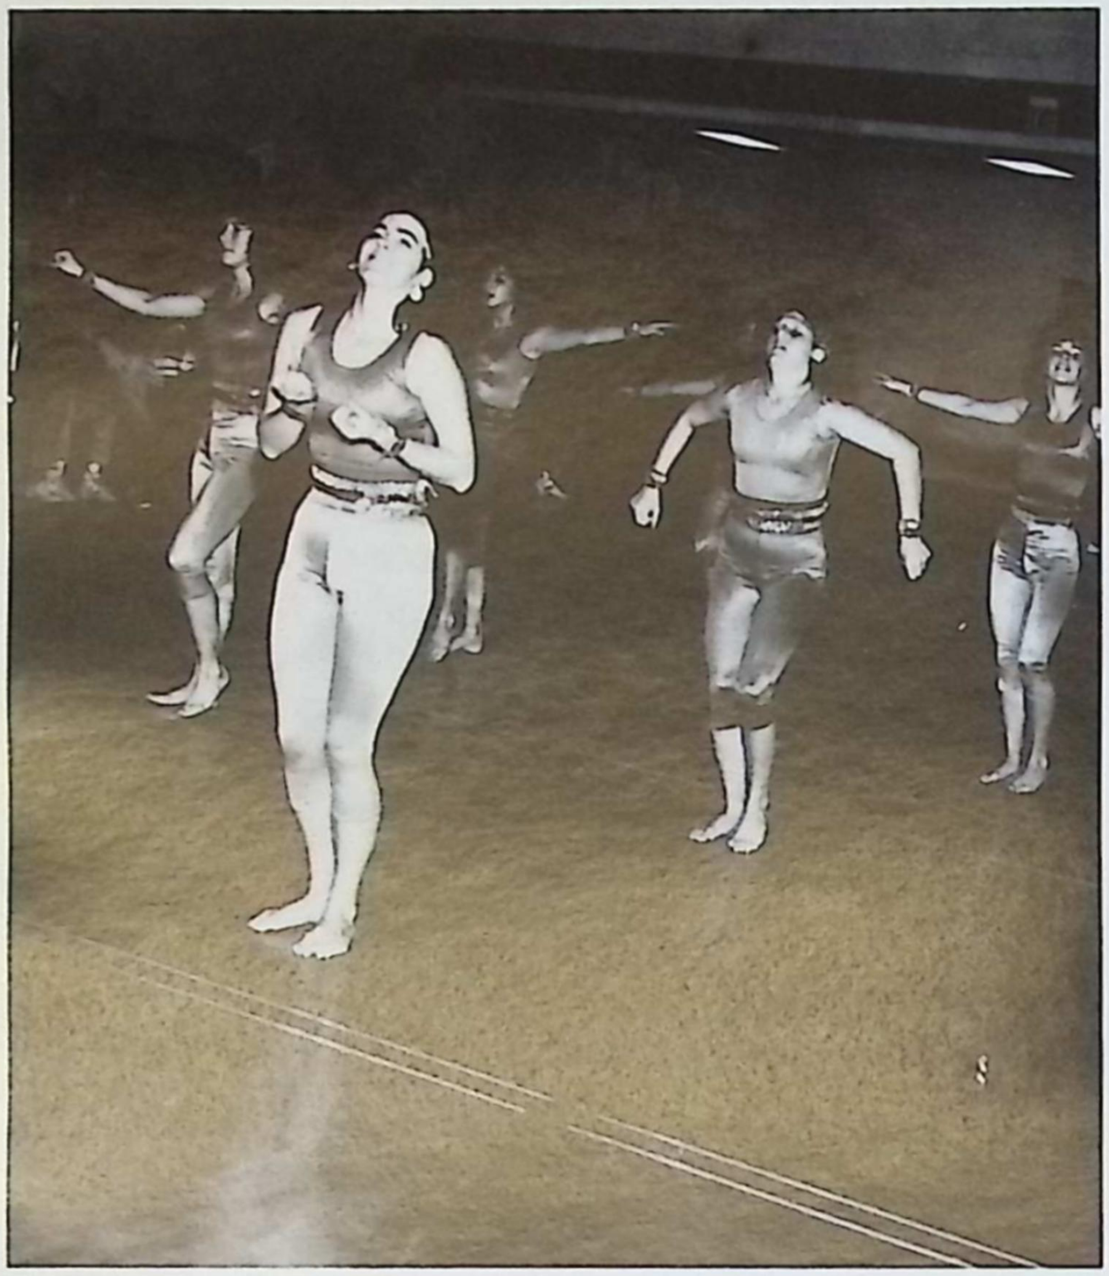
Finding a job after graduation can be frustrating, especially if all the businesses require experience for that certain job your applying for.

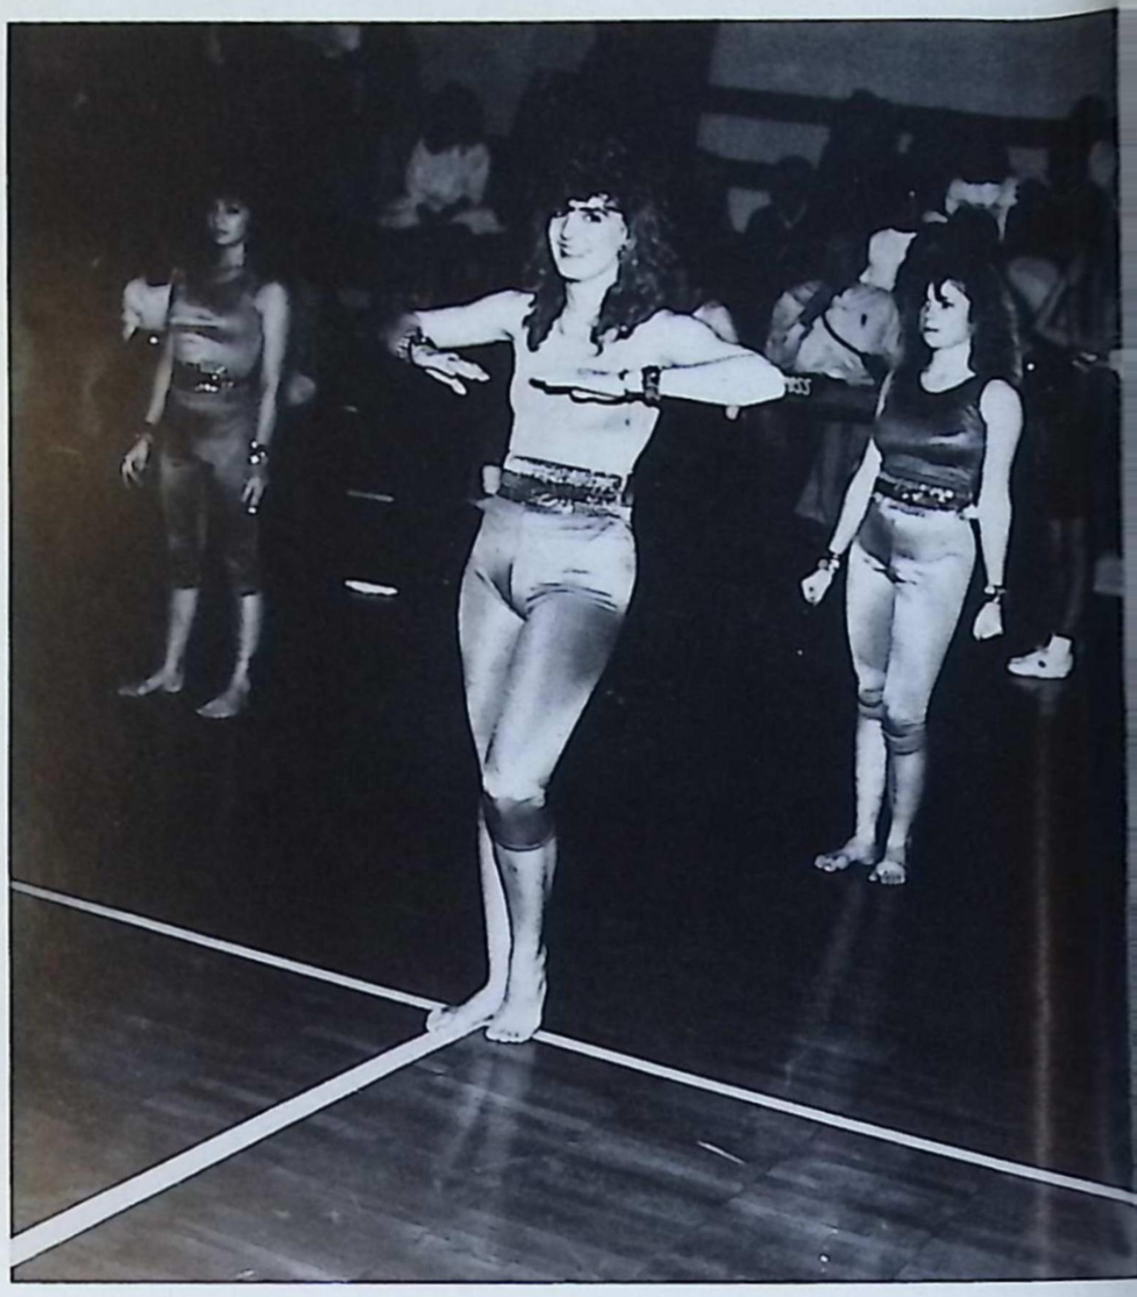
St. Clair High School offers a program to resolve that problem. It's called Co-op.

Co-op is the opportunity for students to use their skills they obtained in school and use them in the work field. The two fields offered are: Accounting and Office Skills.

The students participating in the program gain many advantages. They earn the experience they need for a job, receive credit for school, and get paid.

Another program offered to the students is Work Experience. This gives students the chance to earn extra money while attending school. They leave the school for a few hours in the afternoon.





In many ways St. Clair High School is unique from all other schools. One reason for this uniquness is because of Ms. Mihaiu's dance classes.

Ms. Mihaiu has successfully brought the talent and coordination out of everyone who has passed through her class. For some people it is a class to inhance their skills and to perfect their dancing, for others it is a class to teach them how to keep the beat, still for some they think it is going to be the easy way out of their one year required gym credit. Whatever it may be, the class is intresting and full of fun.

Dance is a time to take one hour out of a stuffy classroom with a stuffy teacher, relax and be yourself. Not to imply that dance is a blow-off class because it's not! Dancing is hard work. To those who want to blow it, their grade will show it, but to the serious dancers the satisfaction and grade is all their own.

Of course the students, even the guys at St. Clair High are proud to have a dance class. Whenever the class is video-taping on the stage in the cafateria, it never fails to have a few extra guys walking by trying to get a glimpse of the girls dancing.

Why would the class be video-taping you ask? Ms. Mihaiu has made it possible for St. Clair High School to be the first and only high school in the State of Michigan to have their own half hour dance program on cable T.V.

Every other year, since 1981, the dance class puts on a dance concert for the school and the public. All dancers have learned 3 or 4 dances in class and everyone performs these required dances in the concert. The rest of the program is the hard work and talent of dancers who made up and tried out with trios, duets, and solos. In the audience there is always a representative from Gail and Rice Associates to watch for talent. If they find someone with what they think is talented, which has happened in the past, they will offer them a job for their professional dance company for 50 dollars an hour to start off with. For the brave people who did a dance on their own, a job offer like that would surly pay off for all the hard work.

Along with the dance concert, the dancers also have what is called the"Top 16 Dancers". This is a group of girls who have proven to be the best 16 dancers out of all of the classes. This group of dancers not only practice during their class period but also for two hours every Wednesday night. Attendance is mandatory or you're off the team. They perform at half-time at some of the Varsity Boy's Basketball games. Needless to say even though it is half-time they have a large crowd cheering them on.

It's exciting to have music playing and to have dancing going on to liven up St. Clair High School and it's students. Dance has been a part of St. Clair's cirriculum for 16 years and hopefully many more to come.

COORDINATION AND PUTTING STEPS TOGETHER

Marcial Montenegro is 18 and from Spain where he lives with his dad Marchial, mom Carla and his two younger sister Monika and Marisa. During his stay in America, he lived with the Chapmans.

The difference between schools is that in Spain, they do not have homework.

Marcial doesn't care too much for American music, the food, or Michigan's cold weather. He does enjoy the country. the people, sports in school and the cheerleaders.

Upon returning to Spain, Marcial has a trip planned to Morocco with his friends and then to college.

Ekkehart Kruger is St.Clair's 18 year old exchange student from East Germany . He is living with Tom and Mary Zobl.

Soccer, tennis, photography and reading are a few of the many hobbies Ekkehart enjoys. During his stay in St.Clair he paticipated on the football, wrestling and track teams.

When asked what he liked the best about America he replied: driving at 16, the country, old cars, ice cream and the beaches. Ekkehart could also come up with some dislikes of the U.S. the speed limit, the school system and all of the junk food.

After returning to Germany, Ekkehart plans include 2 more years of schooling, 20 months in the Army and after possibly attend a Univesity.

Jacob Andersen, who is staying with the Wanglers, is 16 years old and from Denmark .

To Jacob, people in America seem to always be in a hurry and many things depend on time. He thinks that school here in America is easier.

What Jacob enjoys about America is the driving age, school spirit, parties, and football games.

Jacob will return home to his two older brothers, Robert and Christian, and his parents. While back in Denmark, he will finish three more years of high school and then he's thinking of possibly attending college.

Marie Froling is 18 and from Sweden . While in St. Clair she stays with Mr. and Mrs. Zobl.

"Americans aren't that much different from Swedes" say Marie, "maybe a little more old fashion sometimes and more modern other times."

Marie likes to golf and go out with her friends. Although she does admit that she doesn't have alot of spare time because of homework.

What she likes best about America is her host family and the way of living here in America.

Marie wishes for a license or a public transportation system.

Back in Sweden Marie plans 2 more years of school then on to a University to study psychology. After that she is undecided.

Hanne Nordli is proudly from Norway . She is 17 years old and is living with the Sopha's.

The difference between school is that the teachers switch rooms for most subjects instead of the students. Hall passes are not needed. There are no lockers or cafeterias in Norway.

Hanne wishes that the United States had public transportation instead of depending on cars. She thinks there are too many commercials on TV and too much junk food! Hanne is quick to add that she loves American ice cream!

What she has planned for her return to Norway is to finish high school, study law and get a good job. Also, on her agenda is to travel — may be even return back to America.

Joerg Tietje is 18 and West Germany 's representive in St.Clair with the Strathman family.

Joerg likes the relaxed lifestyle of the older generation in the United States. He likes American football, television, convertible cars, parties, the driving age and St. Clair's cheerleaders.

What he dislikes in America is the speed limit, curfews, and the formal dating system to name a few.

When he returns to Germany to his mother, father and older brother, Joerg has to finish high school. He would like to go to college to study for a career as an advertising manager for TV.

Marja-Leena Nissiis a 16 year old representing her home country of Finland . She is staying with Gail Wolfe and her family.

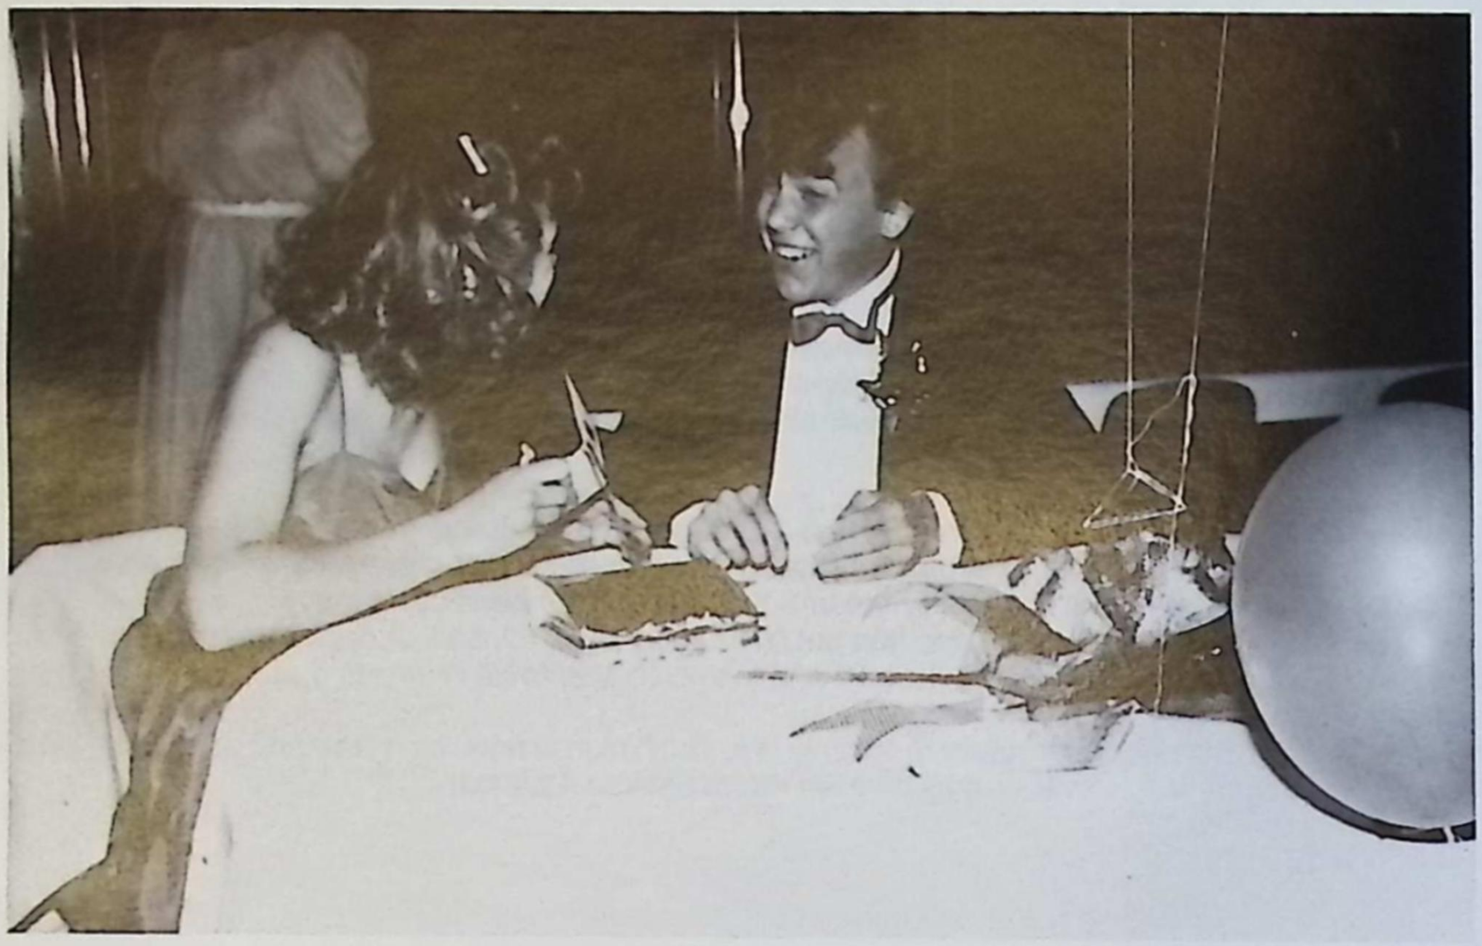
Marja-Leena enjoys the closeness of the Americans. Liking the fact that a hug can be given or received for no real purpose. She also thinks that Americans talk and smile more than the Finns.

Her hobbies include: swimming, cross country, downhill skiing, and the five string Kantele. You'll have to ask her what that is.

Answering the question of what she least liked about America, came two answers. First, she thought school started too early and secondly she didn't like school busses. Chocolate chip cookies, school spirit, and 96 WHYT were the things she liked about America. The number one thing on her list was her American sister Gail.

When Marja-Leena returns back to Finland, she still has to finish High School. After that, she is undecided.

Andrea Smith must have told a great joke to get her date Jeff Tomlin to laugh so hard. Darrell Barks has a great time, as he shows all the latest dance steps. Taking a few moments to rest and enjoy the dance is Kevin Donaldson and Stacy Arnold. Joanne Deegan and Dan Sparshu show us their pearly whites.



HEAVEN IN YOUR EYES

Dreams came true the night of April 25, 1987. Memories began to grow as young women wore their first formal gowns, men dressed in tuxedos as they picked up their dates, some in limousines, and corsages and boutonnieres were exchanged. Then Mom and Dad took a thousand photographs.

After the photos, the couples rushed off to dinner. Couples danced the night away, in a beautifully decorated cafeteria, to the theme of "Heaven in Your Eyes".

The highlight of a memorable evening came when Jason Bitting and Dawn Vargo were crowned King and Queen. The Junior Prom was a definite success with over 150 people in attendence. Everyone went home with memories of a night they would never forget.

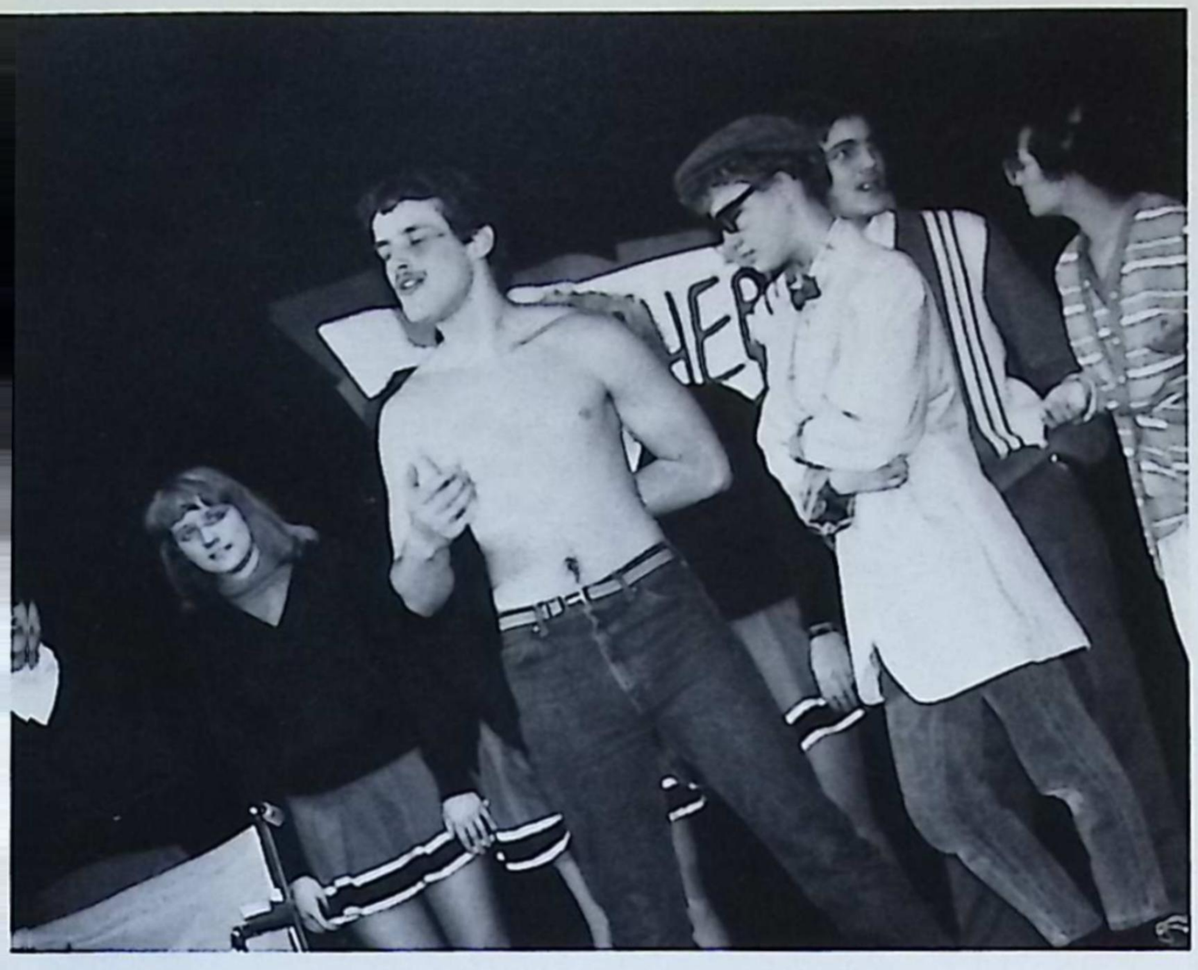
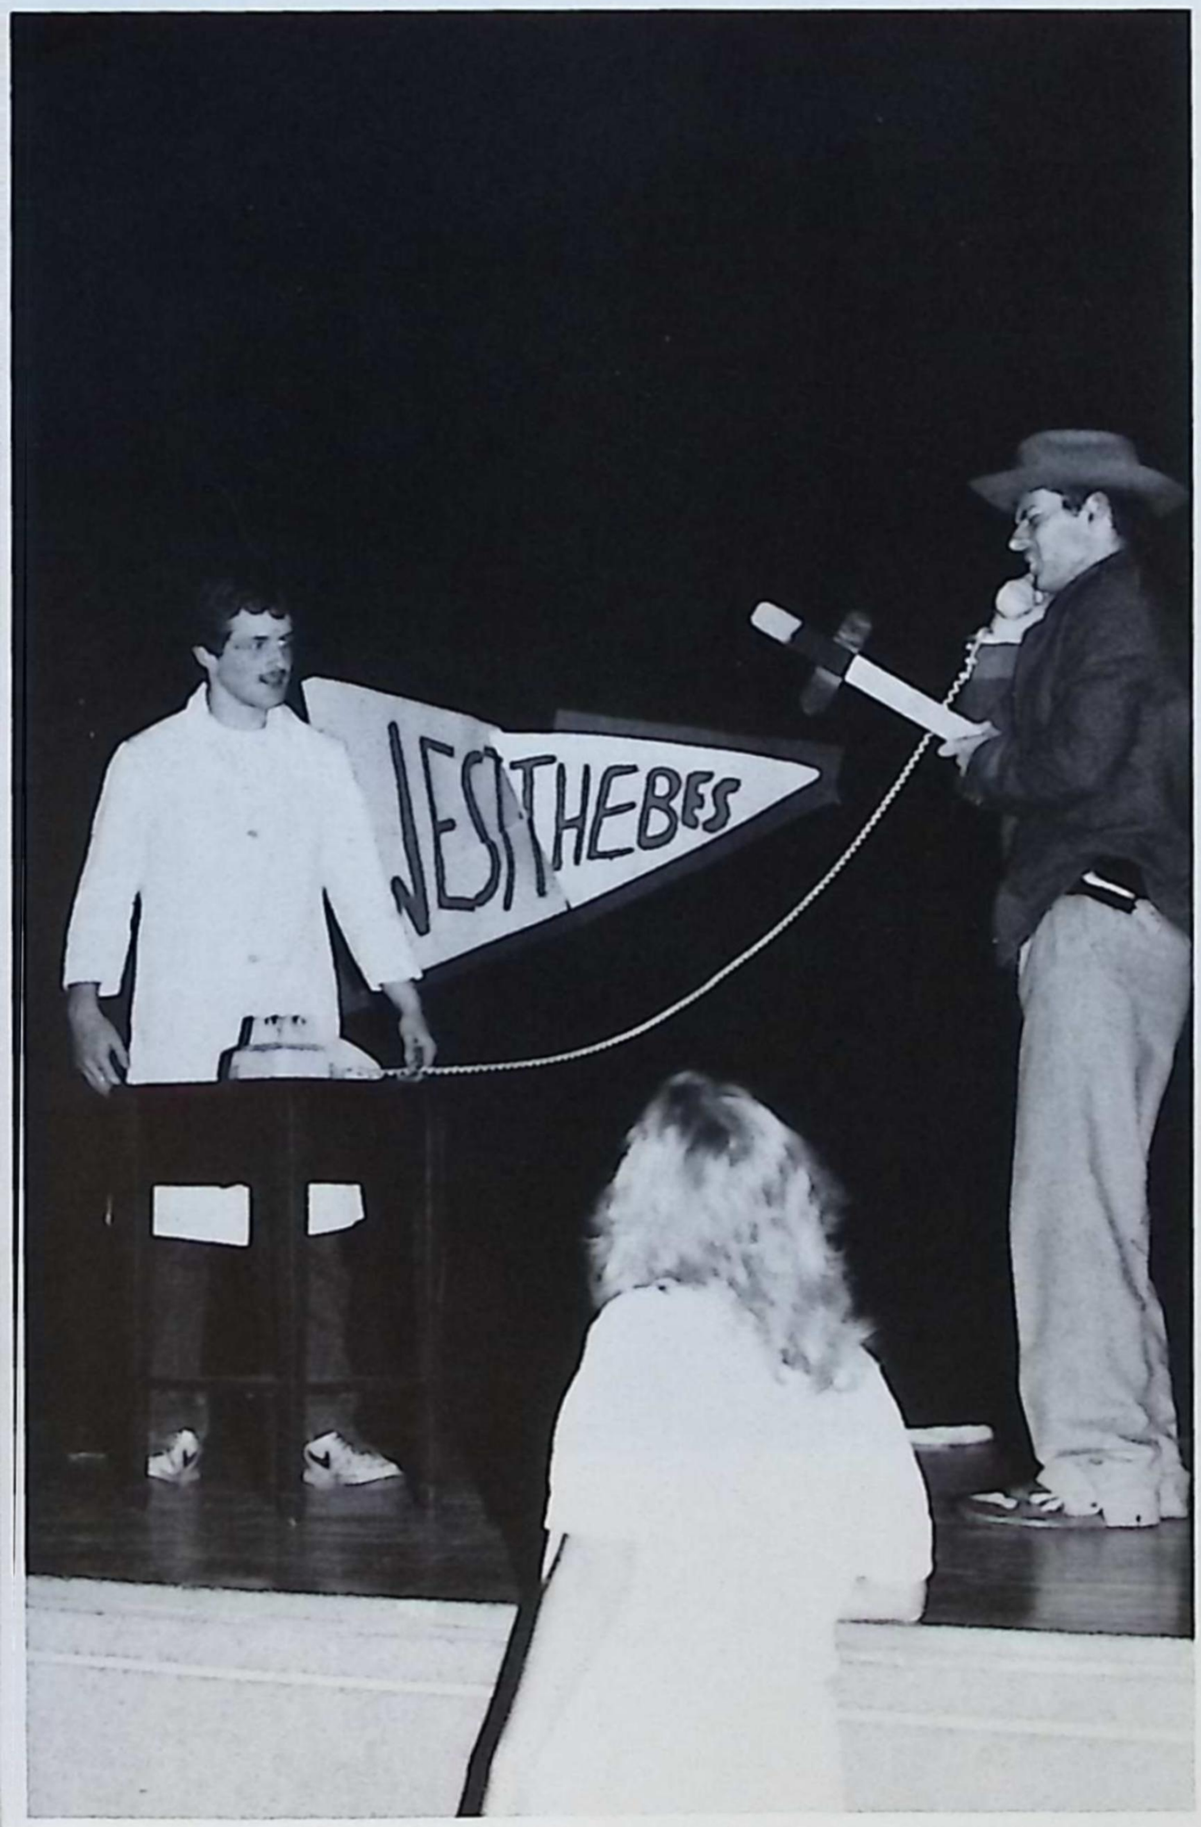
WE EBES





ED OPUS (REX)

THE 39 DOLLAR MAN

BREAKING UP IS HARD TO DO

Ed Opus (Rex) was the first of 3 one act plays the Junior class put on. Ed Opus is a take off on the great classic "Oedipus Rex". It takes place in a high school parking lot. Ed Opus, the student body president, finds himself caught amidst pure chaos. People are not who they seem. Slowly things work out and come together. In the end, things at West Thebes High School return to normal.

The next act was The 39 Dollar Man. This play was set in the city sewage system. Milo Sapperstien is the fearless man who faces the dreaded Dr. Draino. Milo and Draino face off using the sewers as thier court of battle. With a horrid twist of fate, Milo becomes a broken man, literally! MIlo's friend Paddy rushes him to the doctor and the doctor tells him, give me your money, or I give you your friend's death. Paddy hands the doctor his 39 dollars and Milo is once again put back together. Not necessarily the same as before, but maybe a little better. Draino went down the drain and all was well in the sewage system once more.

The last of the one act plays, Breaking up is hard to do, features 3 couples and 3 different situations. The first couple is old. They talk to each other about being old. The next couple is young, in their 20's. Actually you can't really call them a couple because it's a woman, a man, and his mother. In their situation he is leaving to move with his mother to another state, she does want to marry him, but doesn't want to move away. Slowly they talk things out, but you know there are arguments in the future. The third couple are high school age. She likes him and he loves himself. When she dumps him, he doesn't even notice. He thinks it's for attention. Finally he realizes that he has no girlfriend and passes it off as there's something wrong with her. Yes, breaking up is hard to do.

J.V. Quiz Bowlers Tim Mrosewske, Jon Hyslop, and Dave Creech await the next meet enthusiastically. Telling us the way it is, is Jeff McConnell. Awaiting the next trivia question is our wild eyed Saints. At a meet at St. Clair High, Rod Carrier keeps track of points, while Mr. Ben Witukiewicz and Mr. Don Weber supervise. Paul Miotke is overjoyed with the win over Capac. Bob Gamble rests in between matches. Heavy metalist "Ozzy" Jim Sopha thinks about the upcoming match. Paul Danao alias "Tai-Pan" laughs at a joke while at a team meet.

FITTING THE QUESTIONS WITH ANSWERS

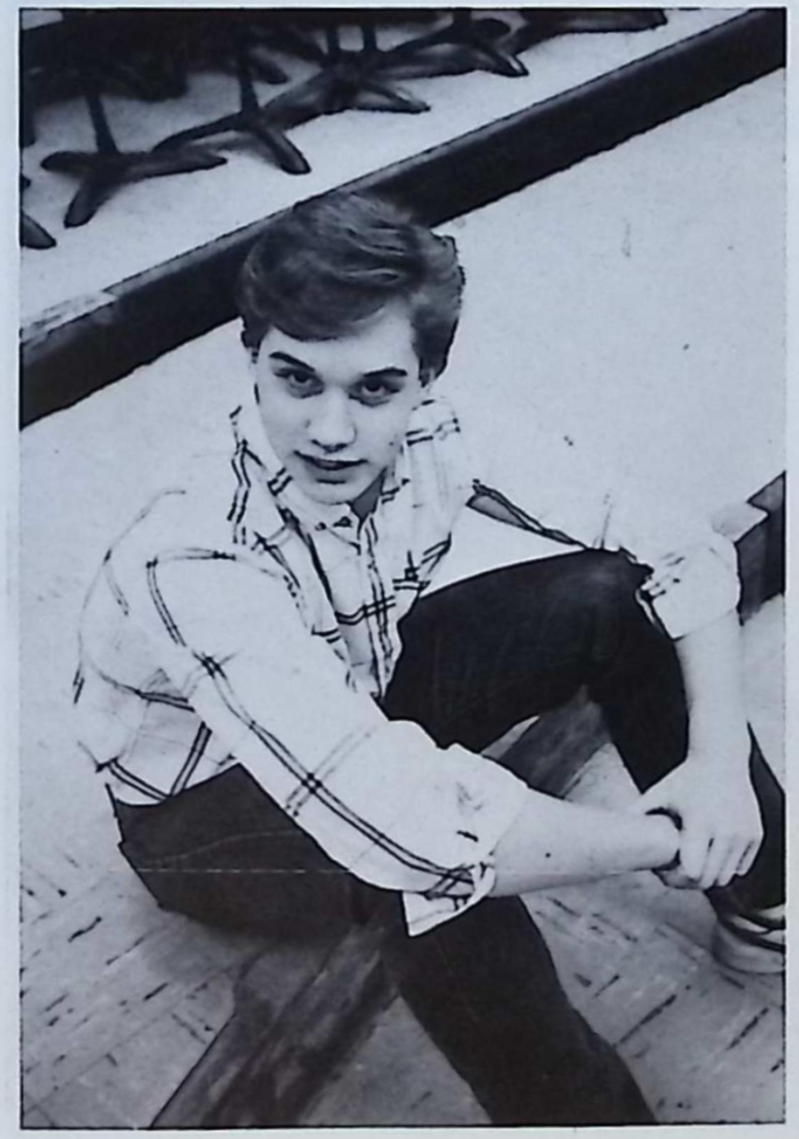
Quiz Bowl is an event which is misunderstood. It is a contest between schools which involves the answering of questions for points. These are no ordinary questions, mostly trivia.

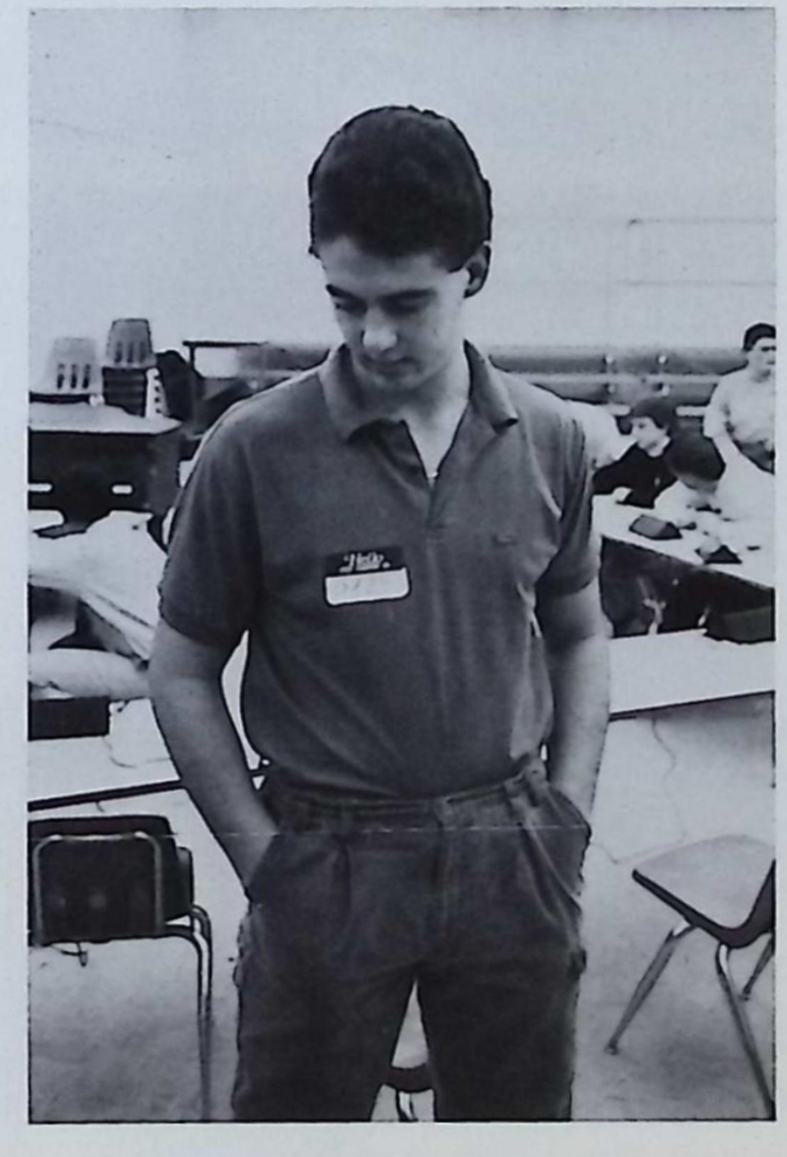
First there is the team which is composed of four or more students armed with buzzers. They sit at a table and answer questions for 3 ten minute periods.

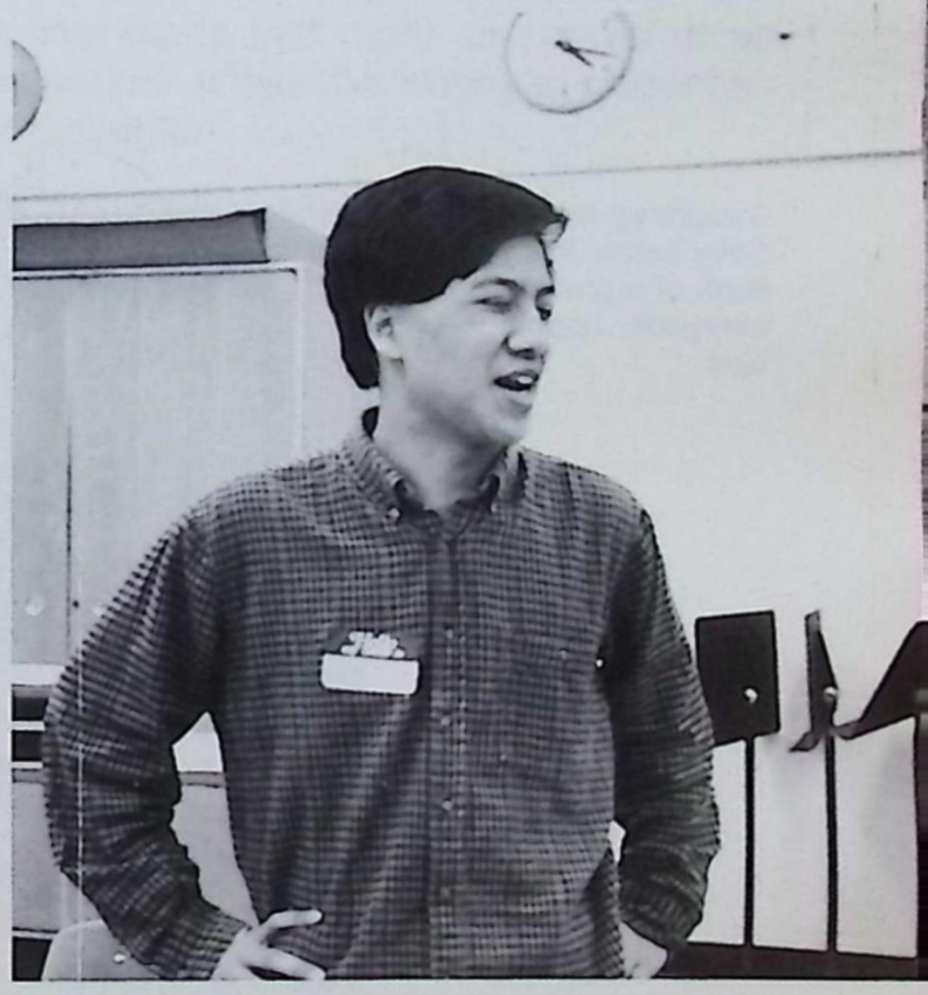
The questioner first gives a toss up question for both teams. The first team to buzz in and answer correctly gets a bonus question and 10 points. If incorrect, the other team gets a chance at the question and bonus question which is also worth 10 points.

The competition often gets intense, because the completion of one question may decide who wins or loses. The team with the most points at the end of the 3 periods is the winner.

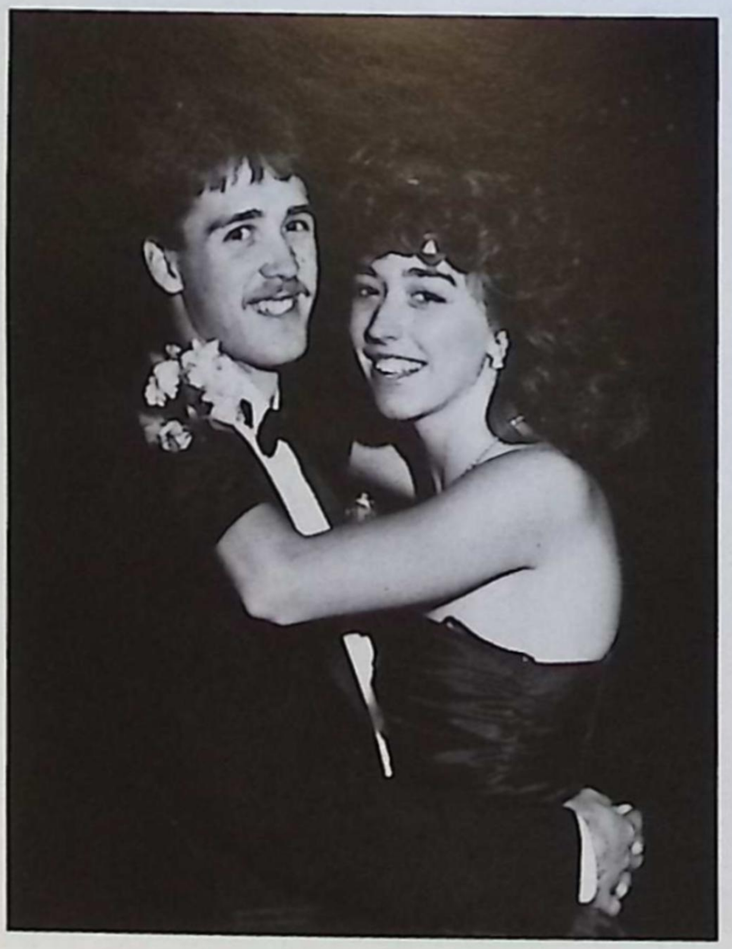
The Quiz Bowl team composed of Jim Sopha, Bob Gamble, Paul Miotke, Paul Danao, and Jeff McConnell, is coached by Mr. Pete Fox and Ms. Kim Krist. They were very successful this year.

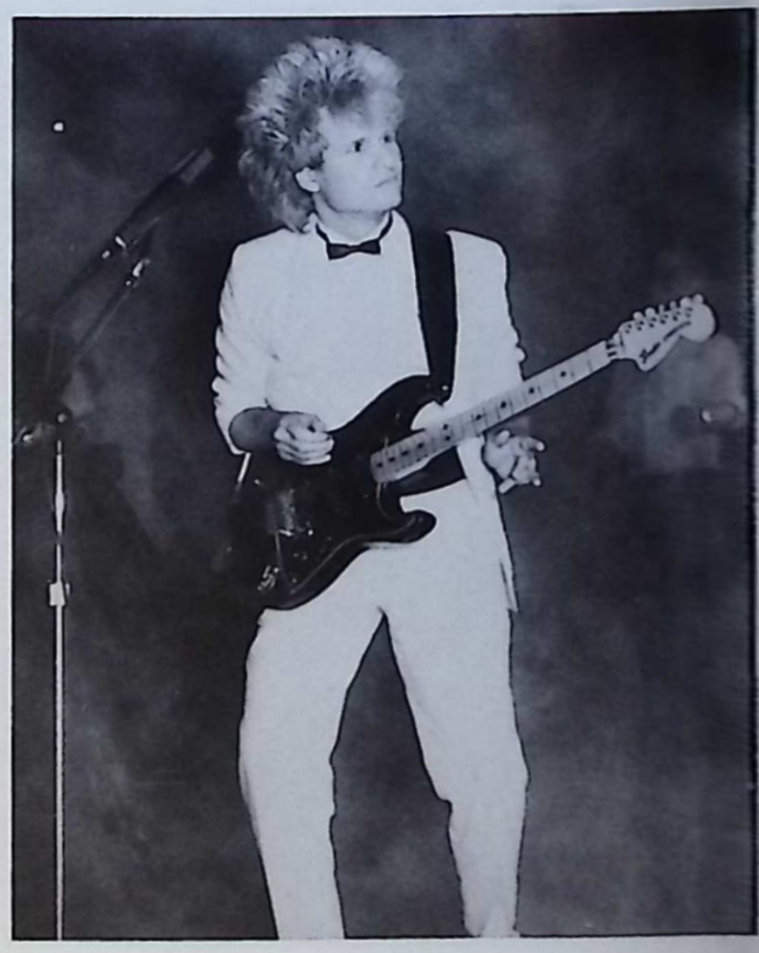




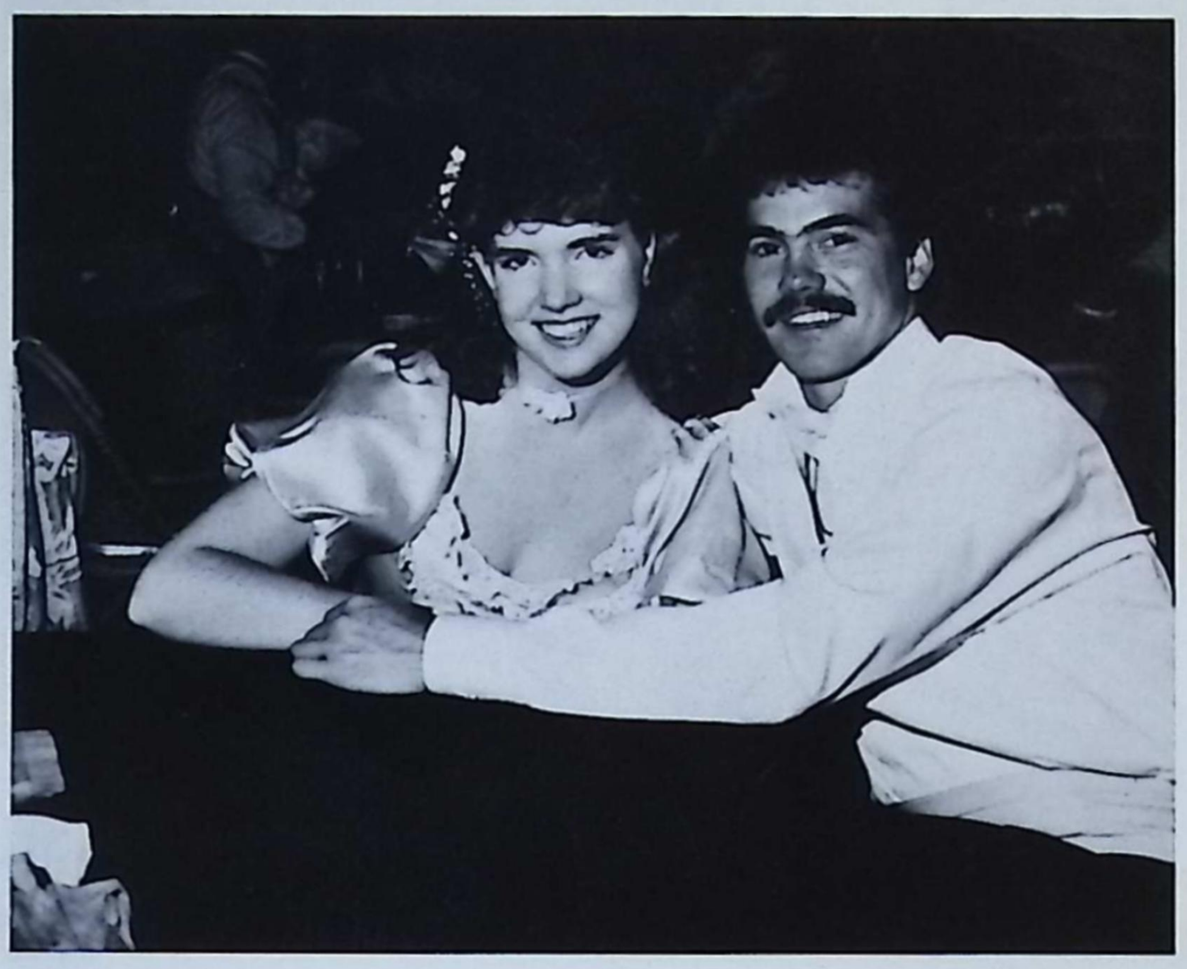


Caught up in the moment are Amy Heminger and Tony Toton. Kelly Judson and Greg Rancilio can't think of anywhere they would rather be. Keeping everyone hopping is Seth Swallow of Oriental Spa.





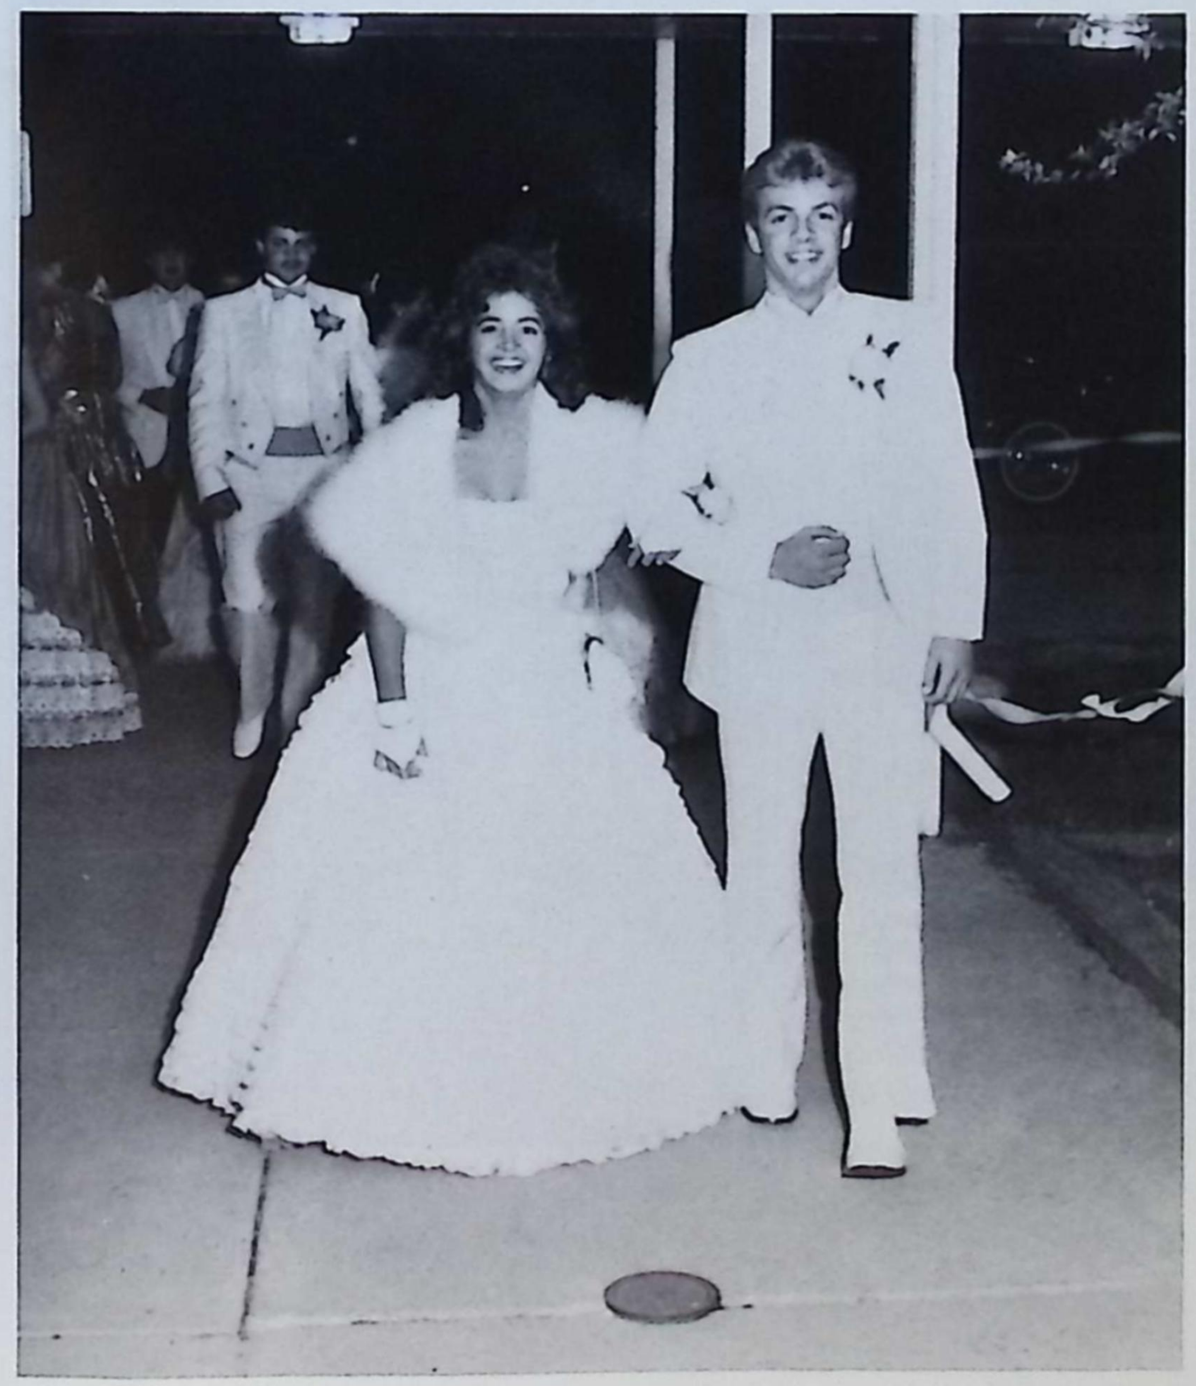
NIGHT IN THE ORIENT



Prom night has finally arrived. The endless preparations have been completed. Everything has come together perfectly, as if there was never any doubt that it would. The decorations were in place, the band was ready, and the gym silently awaited the couples who filled its dance floor.

Couples filtered in slowly at first until suddenly the gym was filled with people laughing, dancing and talking, savoring this last thing they would all do together before graduation.

There was so much memorabilia to remind us of that special night; pictures, glasses, invitations, and flowers. But it was not the things that made that night so special or so memorable, it was the people. It was the feeling of closeness that you would never feel again.



Lori Boulier and Randy Kauftman take a break from the heat of dancing. Chris Strathmann proudly shows off his date, Lisa Stryke. A smiling Amy Reese and Todd Larson take time out for a picture.

The evil creature Morgana Crook (Liz Lueth) and Geoffrey Badum (Steve Smalenburg) discuss their evil intentions. Geoffrey Badum , the scoundrel who stops at nothing, and the shame of the village, Gypsy (Kaisa Matilla) tie up Little Richard (Lisa Struyk). The "Victorious" Cast : KNEELING: Keenan Wanamaker, Steve Demulenaere, Jim Light, Carol Wilke, Tom Stubbs, Matt Smith, Dan Sparschu, Nils Thommasen, and Kim Santo. SECOND ROW: Greg Rancilio, Jenny Deegan, Joe Thornton, Paul Boak, Joyce Govaere, Rob Sheets, Belinda Fraser, Kelly Schmidt, Amy Reese, Roger Cohn, Lisa Struyk, Taye Jackson, and Heidi Dunsmore. THIRD ROW: Liz Lueth, Kaisa Mattilla, and Steve Smalenburg. STANDING: Heather Satchell, Kelly Ray, Renee Coche, Charlene Govaere, Michelle Daly, Don Weber, Kim Thompson, and Mike Zweng. The honest and sincere Sterling Ware (Paul Boak) who is doomed from the start, confides in his friend Sailor Bob and wife Lotta (Rob Sheets and Lisa Struyk).

VIRTUE VICTORIOUS

Picture in your mind, the following: "Geoffrey Badum, the villainous relation of old Cedarchest, richest laundry owner in New England, has wormed his way into his cousin's good graces in the hope of marrying the sweet and lovely Lotta. However, she has already married Sterling Ware. Infuriated, Old Cedarchest casts his daughter out of his house forever." Sound unlikely? Maybe so, but this twisted plot provided an outrageous and uproarous melodrama filled with comical characters. The cast? Selected volunteers from the class of '87.

Many obstacles had to be overcome before a successful production could be brought before the public. Casting had to be perfect, costumes had to be located and put together, the set had to be designed and built, make-up techniques had to be perfected, and perhaps most importantly, lines had to be memorized to perfection. After practicing hours daily for weeks, the obstacles were no longer a hindrance. The cast was ready to go on stage and stars were born!

Best friends and co-workers, Sailor Bob and Salty Goodheart (Rob Sheets and Joe Thornton) converse over the drawing board. A confrontation in the laundry room: Geoffrey Badum (Steve Smalenburg), Sailor Bob (Rob Sheets), Salty Goodheart (Joe Thornton), Prudence (Kelly Schmidt), Myopia Forsyth (Amy Reese), and Faith Always (Belinda Fraser). The richest man in New England, Old Cedarchest (Roger Cohn) smiles at the thought of his millions.

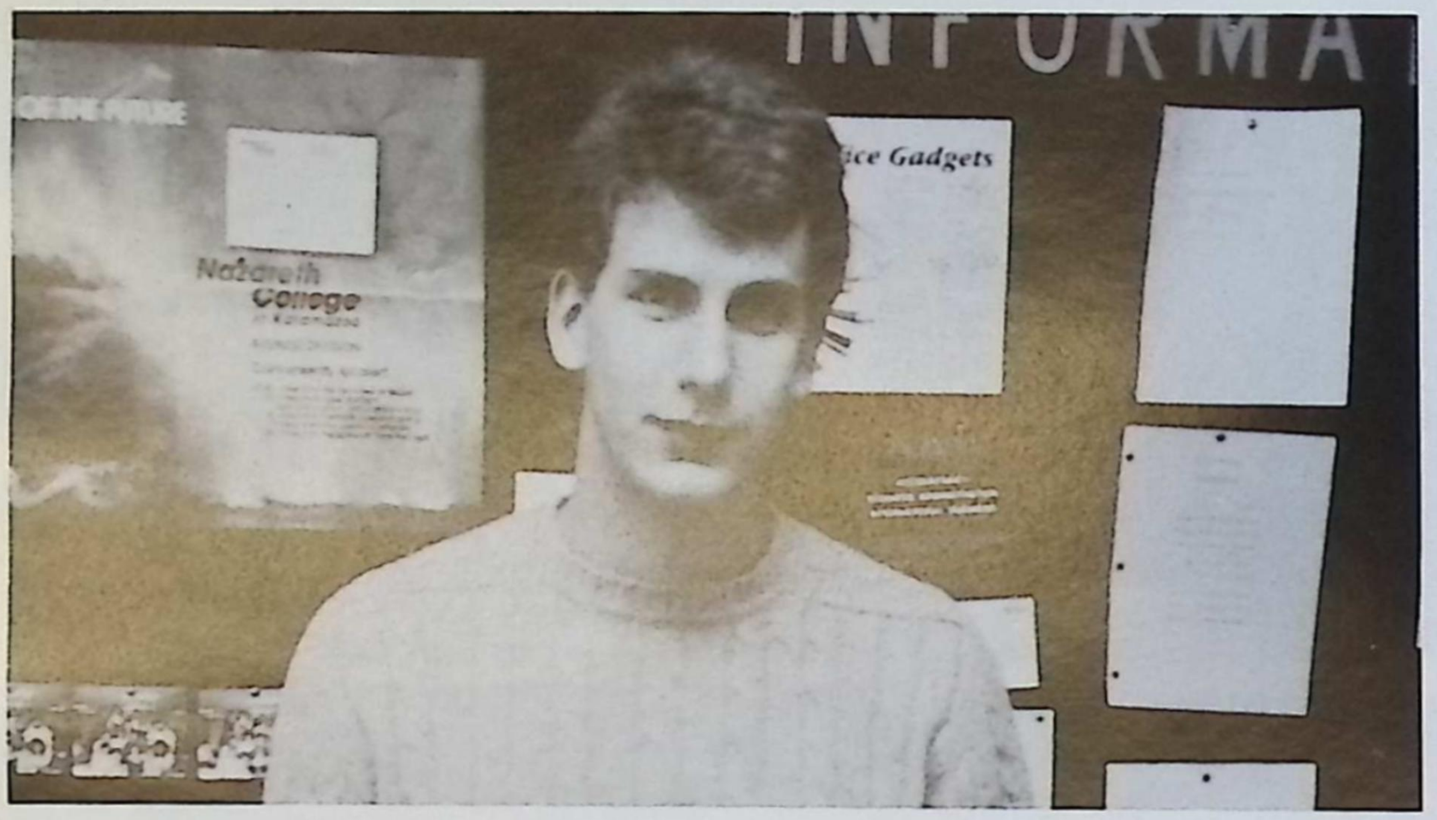
Yearbook was one of the toughest classes that most of the students had taken. It was not only a time consuming job, but one which carried responsibility and dedication.

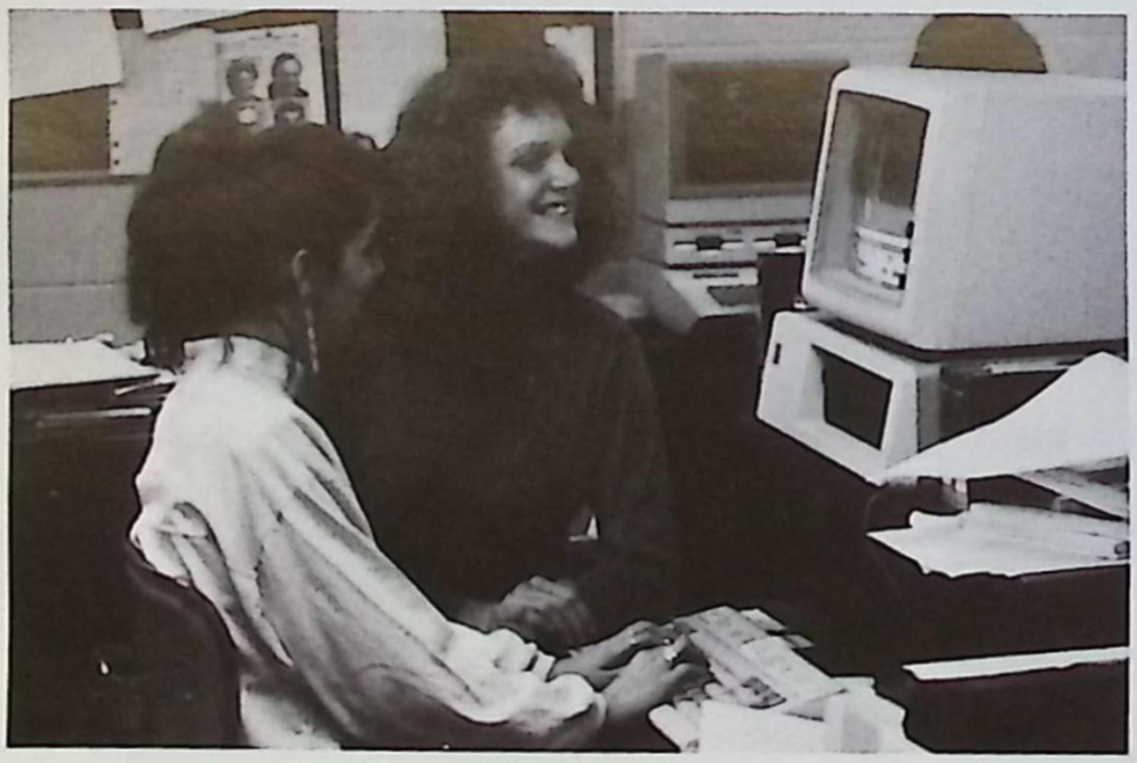
Your have to realize that in order to get a yearbook out on time, there are many steps to follow and many hours of time to be given to bring about the end results. Area businesses must be contacted to solicit advertisement. Yearbook staff must be present at school functions to take photographs of the many events. Page layout spreads must be done and captions and articles for pictures must be coordinated, typed, proofed, and retyped. Ever present along with the duties mentioned is the word deadline . This all may sound easy enough, but each staff member must pull his or her share of the load and responsibility so these deadlines can be met. This is the only way that the yearbook for the current year can be completed and back to school for distrubution by the end of the school year.

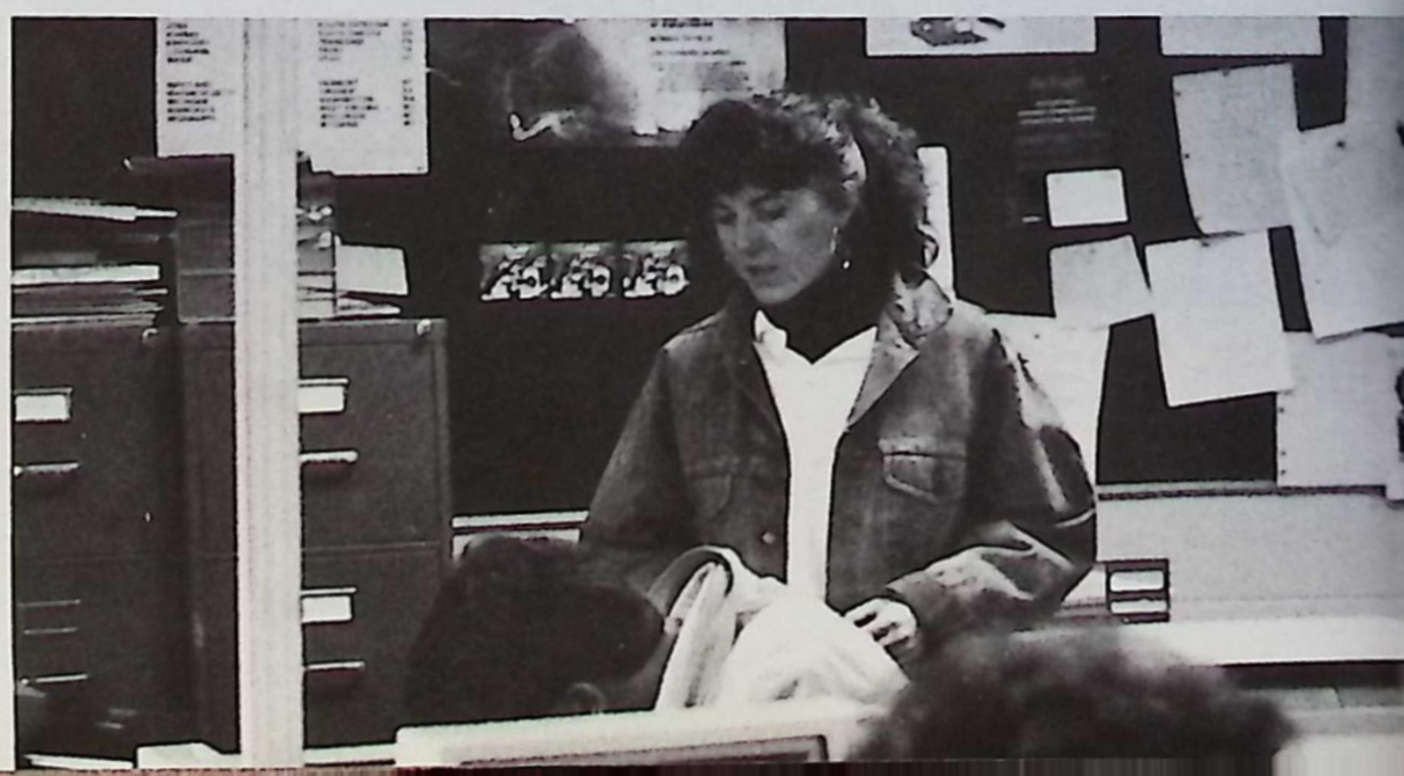
Yearbook is hard and demanding of everyone in the class, but it is also fun and interesting. There were many lessons to be learned in the one hour of Mr. Tharrett's yearbook class.

Don't let all this discourage all you future yearbookees. The class is really exciting — plus you get to know what the yearbook is going to look like before it comes out!

The Yearbook staff would like to thank Jason Niebauer and Pam May for their assistance with the yearbook.







PUTTING THE PUZZLE TOGETHER

PRINCIPAL ADVISORY

Every other Tuesday of the past year, a group of students, forming the Principal's Advisory Committee, met to discuss the coordination of particular activites such as, programs, fundraisers, and dances for the student body. This group was made up of the officers of the various SCHS activity clubs and organizations. The committee gave opportunities to its members to determine, plan, and project important changes that help the running of the school. This year, the committee orgainized and planned a Club Day program.

Members are: Front — Angela Watt, Rick Kasemsarm, Andrea Smith, Paul Miotke, Jim Sopha, Rene Page, Kris Devroy, and Amy Minnick. NATIONAL HORROR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is a union of students that must have obtained a 3.4 grade point average. The society stresses leadership, scholarship, and character as well as the importance of responsibilty. This year, the society provided a community service through a Rock-A-Thon and a free tutoring service.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is an important part of the puzzle, because they are the students responsible for many of the important decisions which benefits the student body.

This year's council was given $5,000 to improve the school or give out scholarships. They spent some of the money on a drinking fountain in the cafeteria.

Led by President Jim Sopha, the council worked hard to find out what the student body wanted done. They were very helpful to the staff also.

Next year will be great, because the overwhelming number of juniors who are on the council. As seniors, they will improve the school's spirit and looks. Also, with the addition of sophomores and juniors the Student Council will come together like never before.

TEENS LISTEN AND CARE

Teens Listen and Care was formerly S.A.D.D. The reason for the name change was that the group did more than try to discourage drinking and driving.

This year the group had many activities. Starting in October, there was a Project Graduation Planning Conference. Also, there was a S.A.D.D. meeting for a weekend at Mackinac Island. They attended Project Graduation 88' in March and for prom and graduation they put cards, which gave information on a safe ride program, in tuxedos and corsage boxes.

On the fun part of their agenda, they held the 2nd Annual Lip-Sync Contest at the junior high. Also, they had a spirit week, which discourages drinking and driving.

TLC, this year, went to the elementary schools to teach 5th graders Peer Resistance Skills, which involves saying no to drugs.

A program which the group wants to become involved with is a Peer Listening Group. This group would be set up to go one on one with students who needed someone there own age to talk to, confidentually. This would not be a counselling group, just a group who would lend a helping hand with students who wanted their assistance. It could be problems with school, to problems with boyfriends or girlfriends. Hopefully this idea will stick and become one of the programs TLC is involved with.

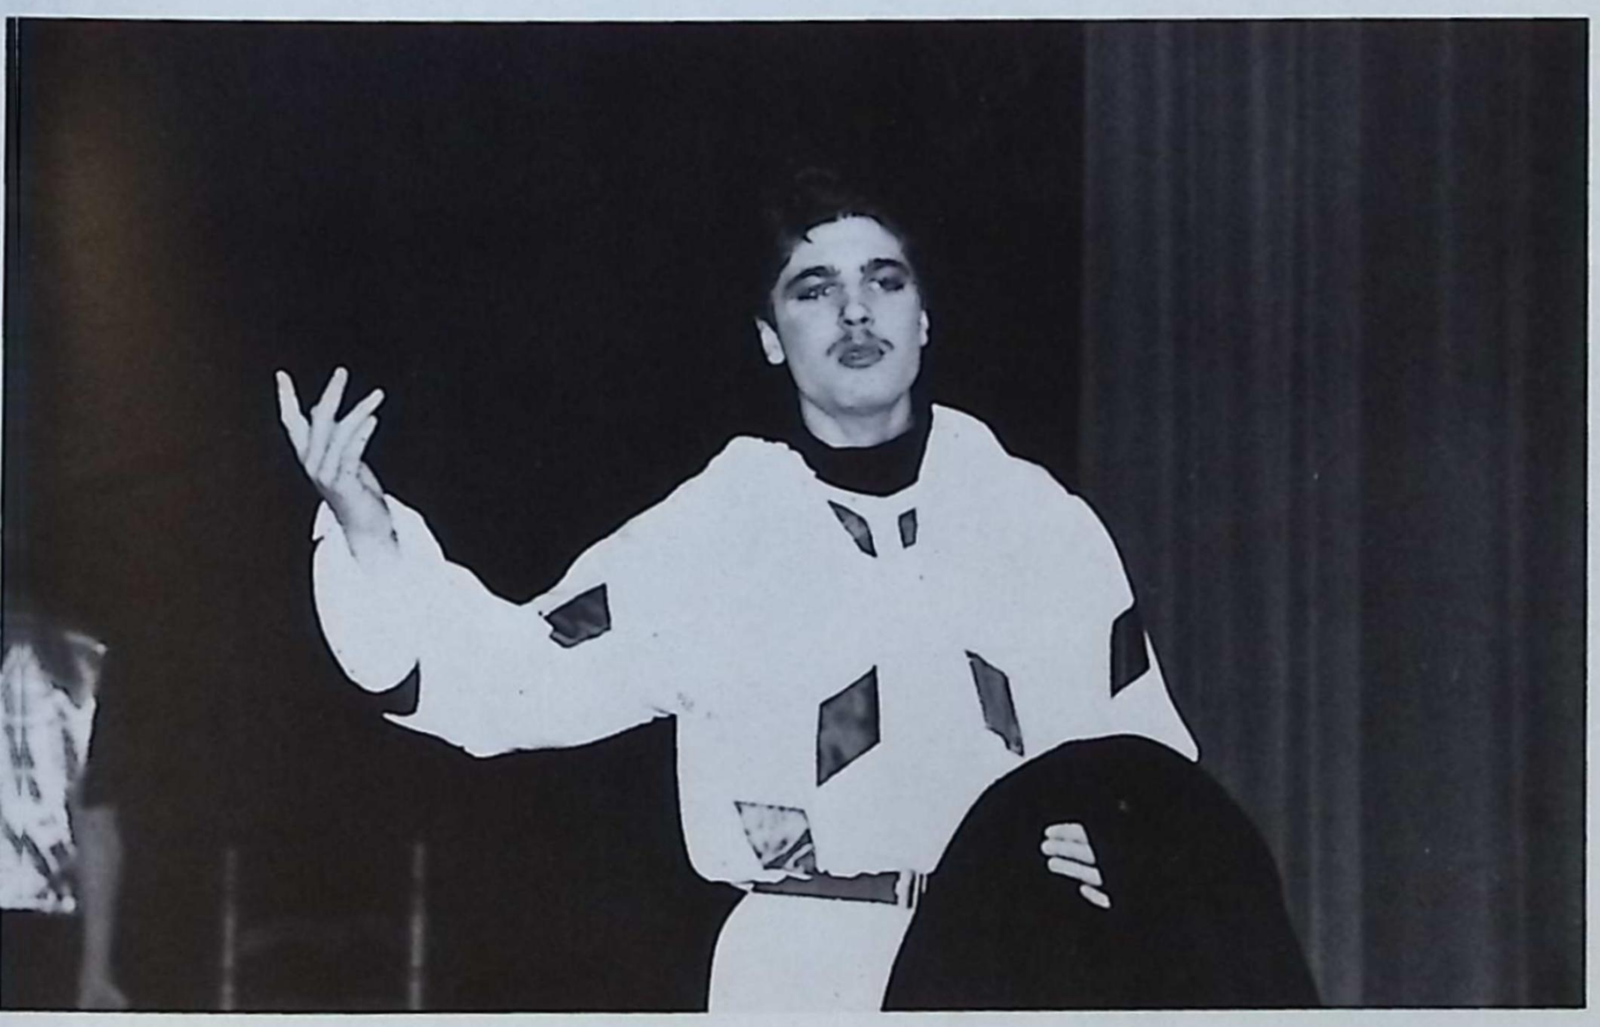
A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS

On March 17,18, and 19, a traveling band of comedians visited the St. Clair Junior High to perform the dying art of improvisation.

Led by their lousy manager Harlequin, the comedians performed a series of skits detailing "The History of Man". Although their first approach backfired, the comedians who ranged in characterization from an old man, to a retired captain, and from a sweetheart, to a tart, eventually they found their true selves and banded together to perform a heart warming, yet comic "History of a Man".

This year's senior play was yet another enjoyable taste of the arts, from the students of SCHS and supervisor Mr. Don Weber.



While doing the Mississippi River skit, Scapino unwillingly kisses Ruffiana. Dottore tries to comfort Tritano, during the birth scene. Pantolone talks to Columbine about getting his daughter a suitable husband, in the skit about marriage. Harlequin thoroughly scolds the company for not cooperating during the show. Harlequin's elegant way captivate the audience. During the Odyesseus Returns skit, Scapino — Odyesseus, tries to convince Columbine — Penelope, that he has indeed returned. Death is the theme, when Harlequin confronts Capitano. In the birth scene, Tritano and Isabella show their affections for one another.

If you are one of those people who have wondered where Amy Sheets has been, here is your answer.

Amy is spending the whole year over in Ploumagoar, France through Youth For Understanding. She is staying with the family of Martine and Michael Lecam. She has two "brothers" Frank and Frederick, and a "sister" Magali, who is in Scottsdale, Arizonia.

Amy attends school in France, Monday, Tuesday, half a day Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. The school day starts for her at 8:00 a.m. and ends 5:00 p.m.. She has nine classes that are required for her schedule. Amy was a outstanding student at St. Clair and we're sure she is doing an excellent job in France.

PIECING IN ANOTHER WINNING RUN

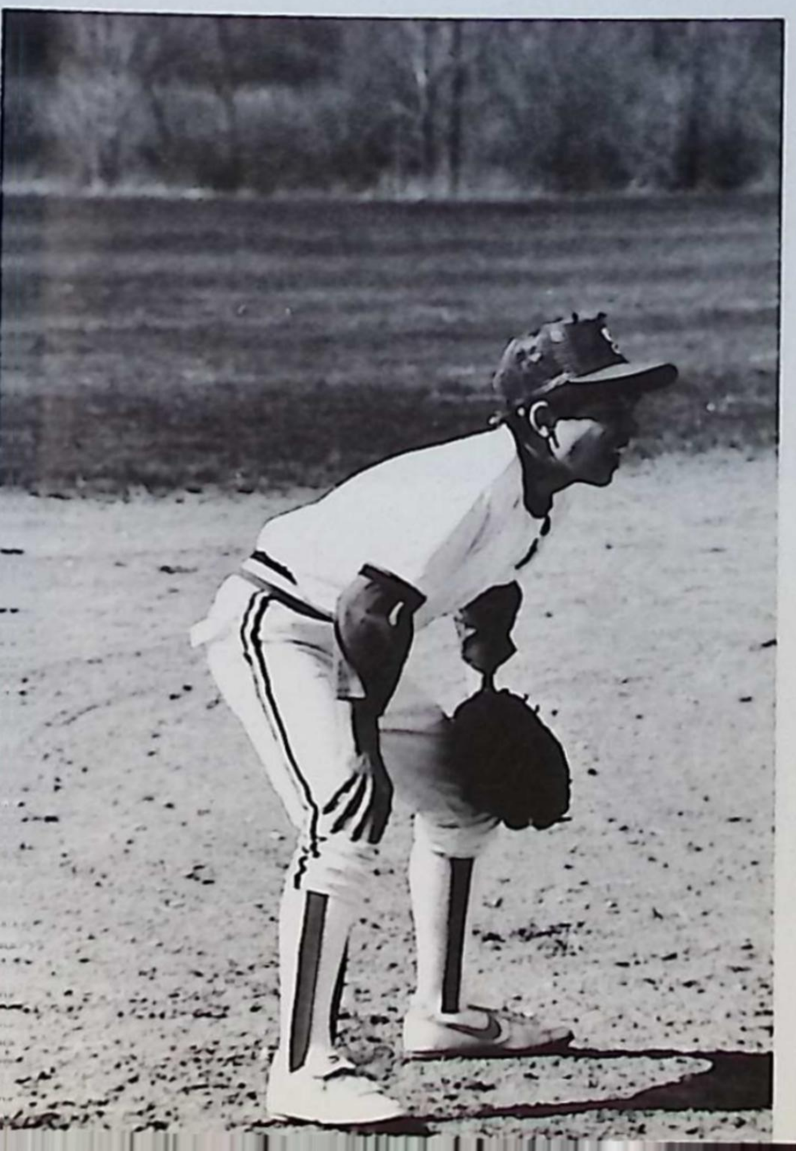
The athletes that play J.V. Baseball have many things to conquer before they begin playing the game.

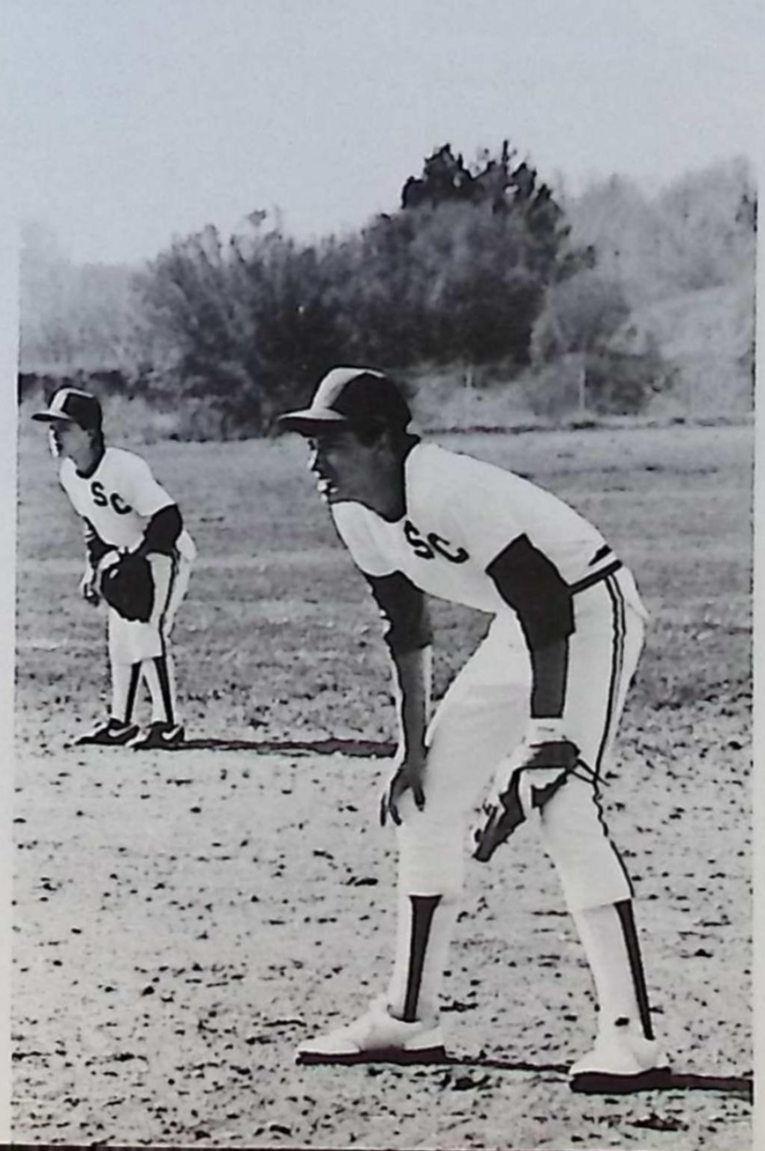
They first have to realize that fans aren't going to be flooding out in huge numbers to see their skills being displayed. Of course the stands aren't totally empty. There are always the "faithful fans". With that in mind, the players take one step closer to becoming a team.

Next — the practices. With every ounce of energy being drained by Caoch Eberhard's grueling practice, the pain begins to mount. Spring begins to linger in the air with summer following close behind. Having that in the back of their mind, it makes it hard to faithfully attend practices. That is where commitment and dedication become essential factors. Giving it your all and pushing to the limit take on new meaning. The players step again toward becoming a team.

Determination, it has to be there. Not just to win but to feel good about yourself, your teammates and how you all played.

Put all these steps together and they become a strong and ready St. Clair Junior Varsity Baseball team.





Rob Heminger puts everything he has into the pitch. Captain Larry Hiller gets ready to make a direct impact on the game. Fred Hayes is ready to take on even the hardest hit.

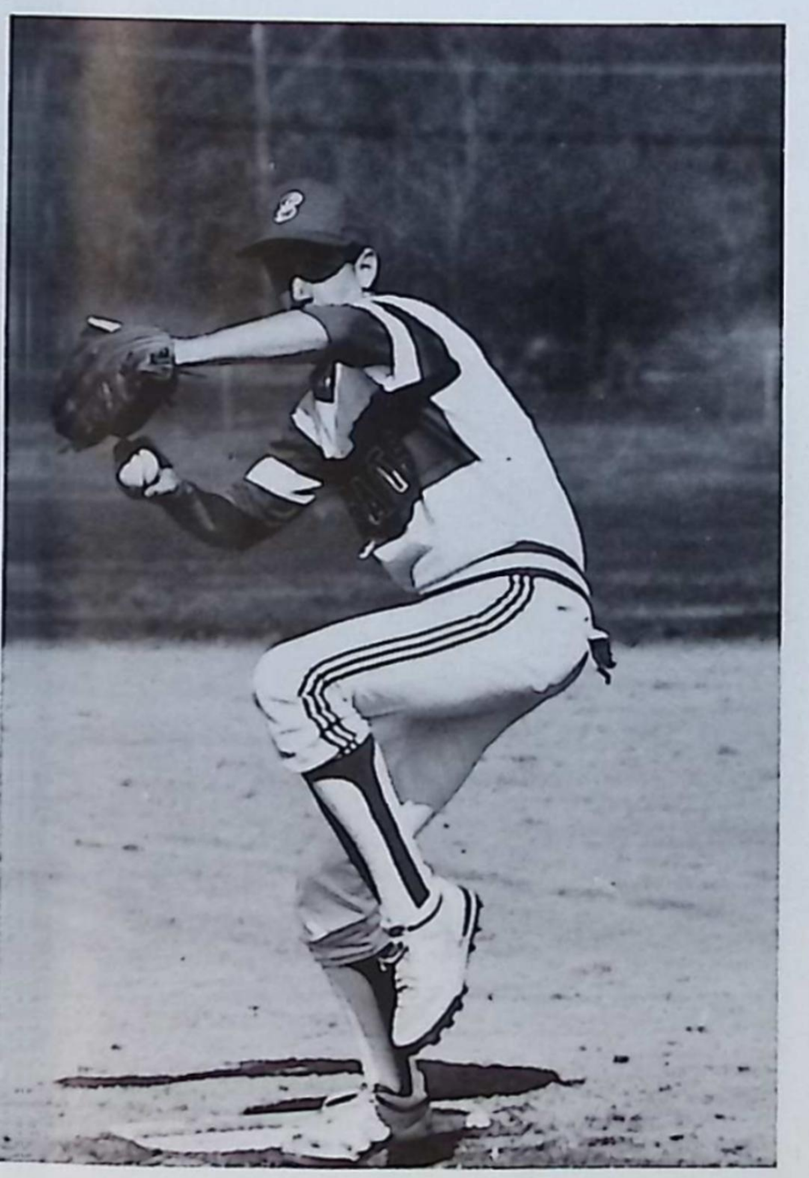
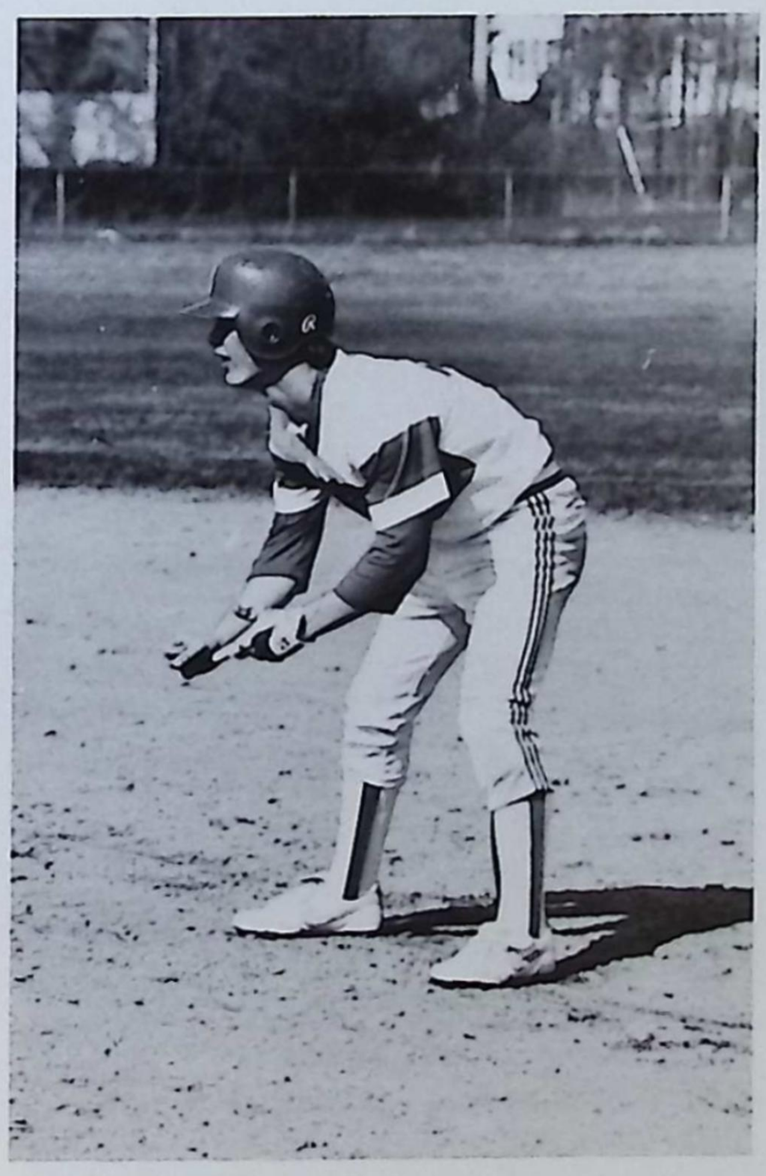
ANOTHER RUN MAKES THE PICTURE COMPLETE

The 1987 Varsity Baseball team had another successful season under the coaching of Rich Mallwitz. They had an even 5-5 league record and were 11-10 overall. The team was equipped with a large supply of experience and talent. There were many special awards given out to "Mal's Boys" such as: All District First Team and All League First Team to Pat Bondy and Gerred Roehring, All League Second Team to Kurt Distelrath and Honorable Mention to Brian Moran and Tim Winkler. More personal awards were also voted on and given out by Coach Mallwitz and the team: Captain award, Most Scholar/Athlete and Most Valuable Player went to Pat Bondy, while Unsung Hero and Most Improved Player awards went to Kurt Distelrath.





First baseman Chris Strathmann reaches toward the ball for another easy out. Kurt Distelrath and shortstop Pat Bondy move forward as they anticipate a bunt. Tim Winkler nails a perfect line drive to advance the base runners. The sheer concentration shows on Buddy Watson's face as he steps toward a pitch. Leaping across home plate, Matt Smith brings in another run for the Saints. Brian Moran demonstrates what intimidating the batter is all about, as he pitches another perfect fastball. You're suppose to watch for the signals Gerred Roehring, not send them!

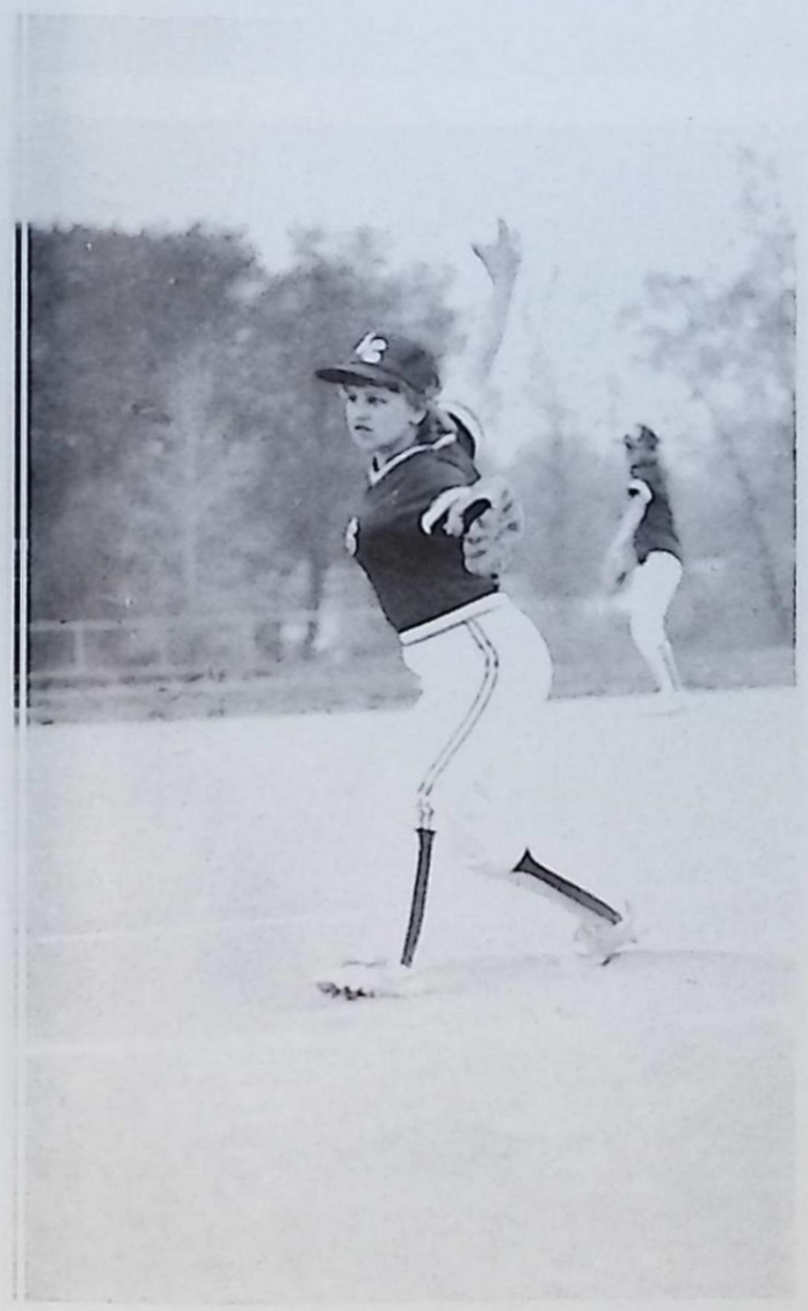
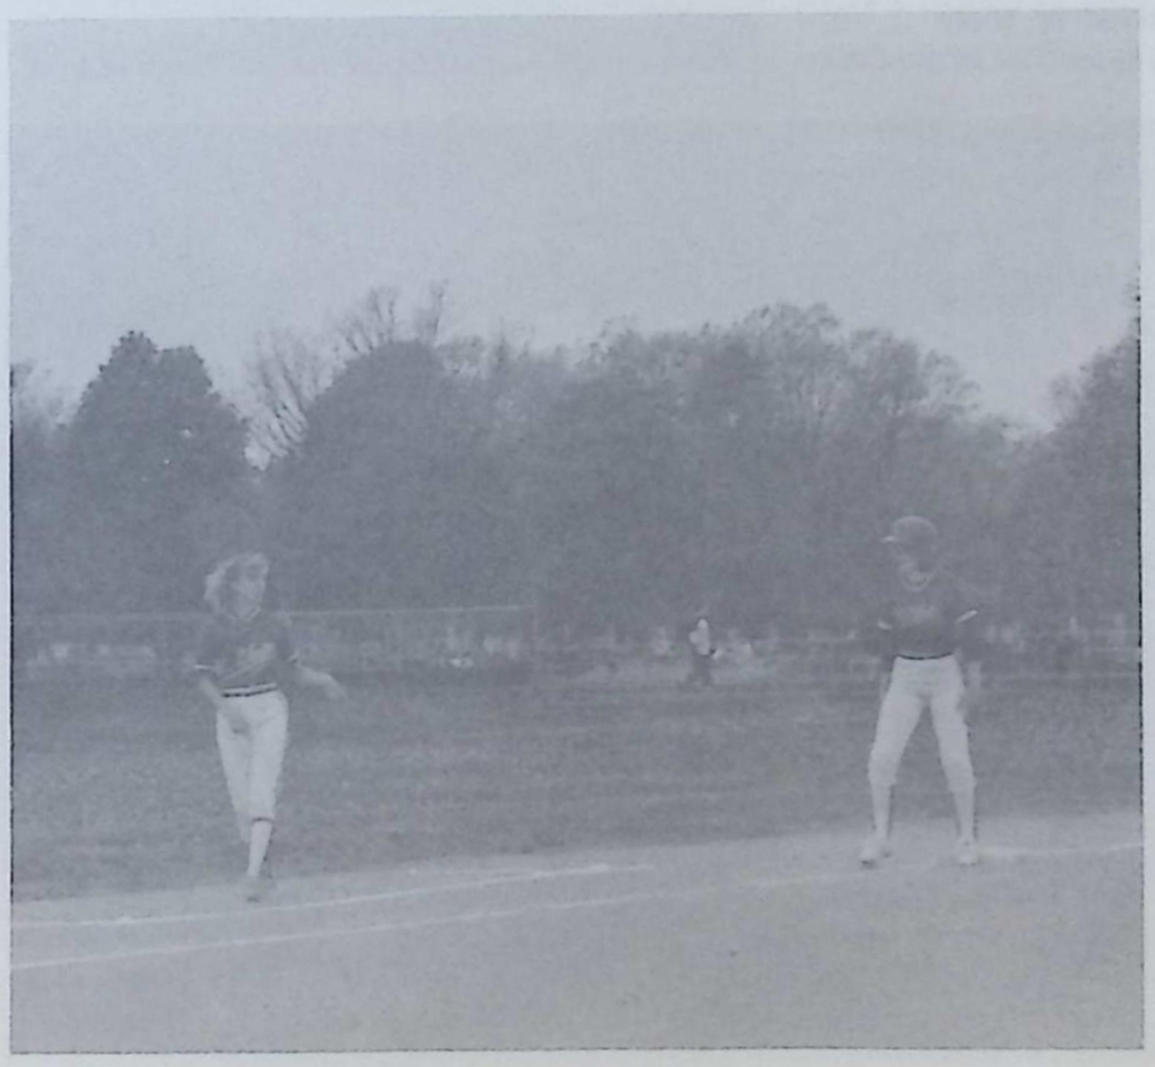
FITTING IN THE TIEING RUN

Their season practicing starts in March and it takes a lot of preperation for a team to get things to come together in order to make a winning team. The girls realized that teamwork is a major factor in the game of softball. They were under the new coaching of former Varsity Softball Player Mary Campbell, who did an outstanding job for the team. The team had a very exciting year with every game going down to the wire. Most Valuable Player went to Ann Schneider with 2 home runs and a batting average of .434. Another leading strength for the team was Missy Oles who has an average of .593 at the plate and 32 hits for the season. Kris Devroy was not only an offensive threat with 4 HR's but she lead the defense with her pitching strength. The girls showed that by using teamwork, you can accomplish many things and have a tremendous amount of fun while you're doing it.





Carrie Stier looks for the signal for what the next pitch should be. Showing us a perfect follow through is Debbie Bublitz. Dawn Orzechowski is trying for a good solid hit. Ann Shaw scoops up the ball for an easy out. Second baseman Ann Nichols grabs the ball to put it into play. Shari Kierszykowski is determined to score for St. Clair. Waiting for the pitch is catcher Angie Stier.

FALLING INTO PLACE

Just like pieces of a puzzle, the tennis team this past year came together to form a winning picture. The Varsity Tennis team tied for first place in the SCAL Championship with Algonac. Team captain and sportsmanship winner Sami Manninen along with team captain Mark McCumby both made the All-Area team. Most improved player was Pete Tinsey. Kevin Shaw was MVP as well as making the All-League team. Other All-League team members were John O'Connor, Mark McCumby, and Bob Gamble. The team members endured long hard practices and braved the elements.

FILLING IN WITH THE WINNING TIME

You have to give 110 percent to suceed in track. This is exactly what the Lady Saints track team.

A victory in an event is joyous — everyone will celebrate with you. It's the defeats that are difficult. Not everyone will rush up to you and say "nice try", but by the end of the meet, everyone will have said it to you. Friends that are made during the season are kept forever.

Everyone will push their team-mate to run just a little bit faster, throw a little bit farther or jump just a wee bit higher for their goal. Nervous, happy and sad for each other, they're all a family. They want their family to succeed. To be number one is the Lady Saints goal. If they don't reach that goal during the season, they'll wipe the tears, bandage up the sore muscles, put the cap on the Ben Gay, and with a smile on their faces patiently wait for another season to arrive.

SINKING ANOTHER PIECE OF THE PUZZLE

The Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball team, which was coached by Mr. Mike Craze, finished 8-2 in the league and 15-4 overall.

With Jamie Springborn leading the team as high scorer with 241, it's no shock the team did so well.

The team was quick throughout the game, which made it hard for the other team to keep up. They had two close losses in the league against Cros-Lex and Marysville, losing only by three baskets.

Losing a couple of key players next year to Varsity doesn't mean they won't be good. They still have two starters returning to make the St. Clair Junior Varsity team excellent next year!

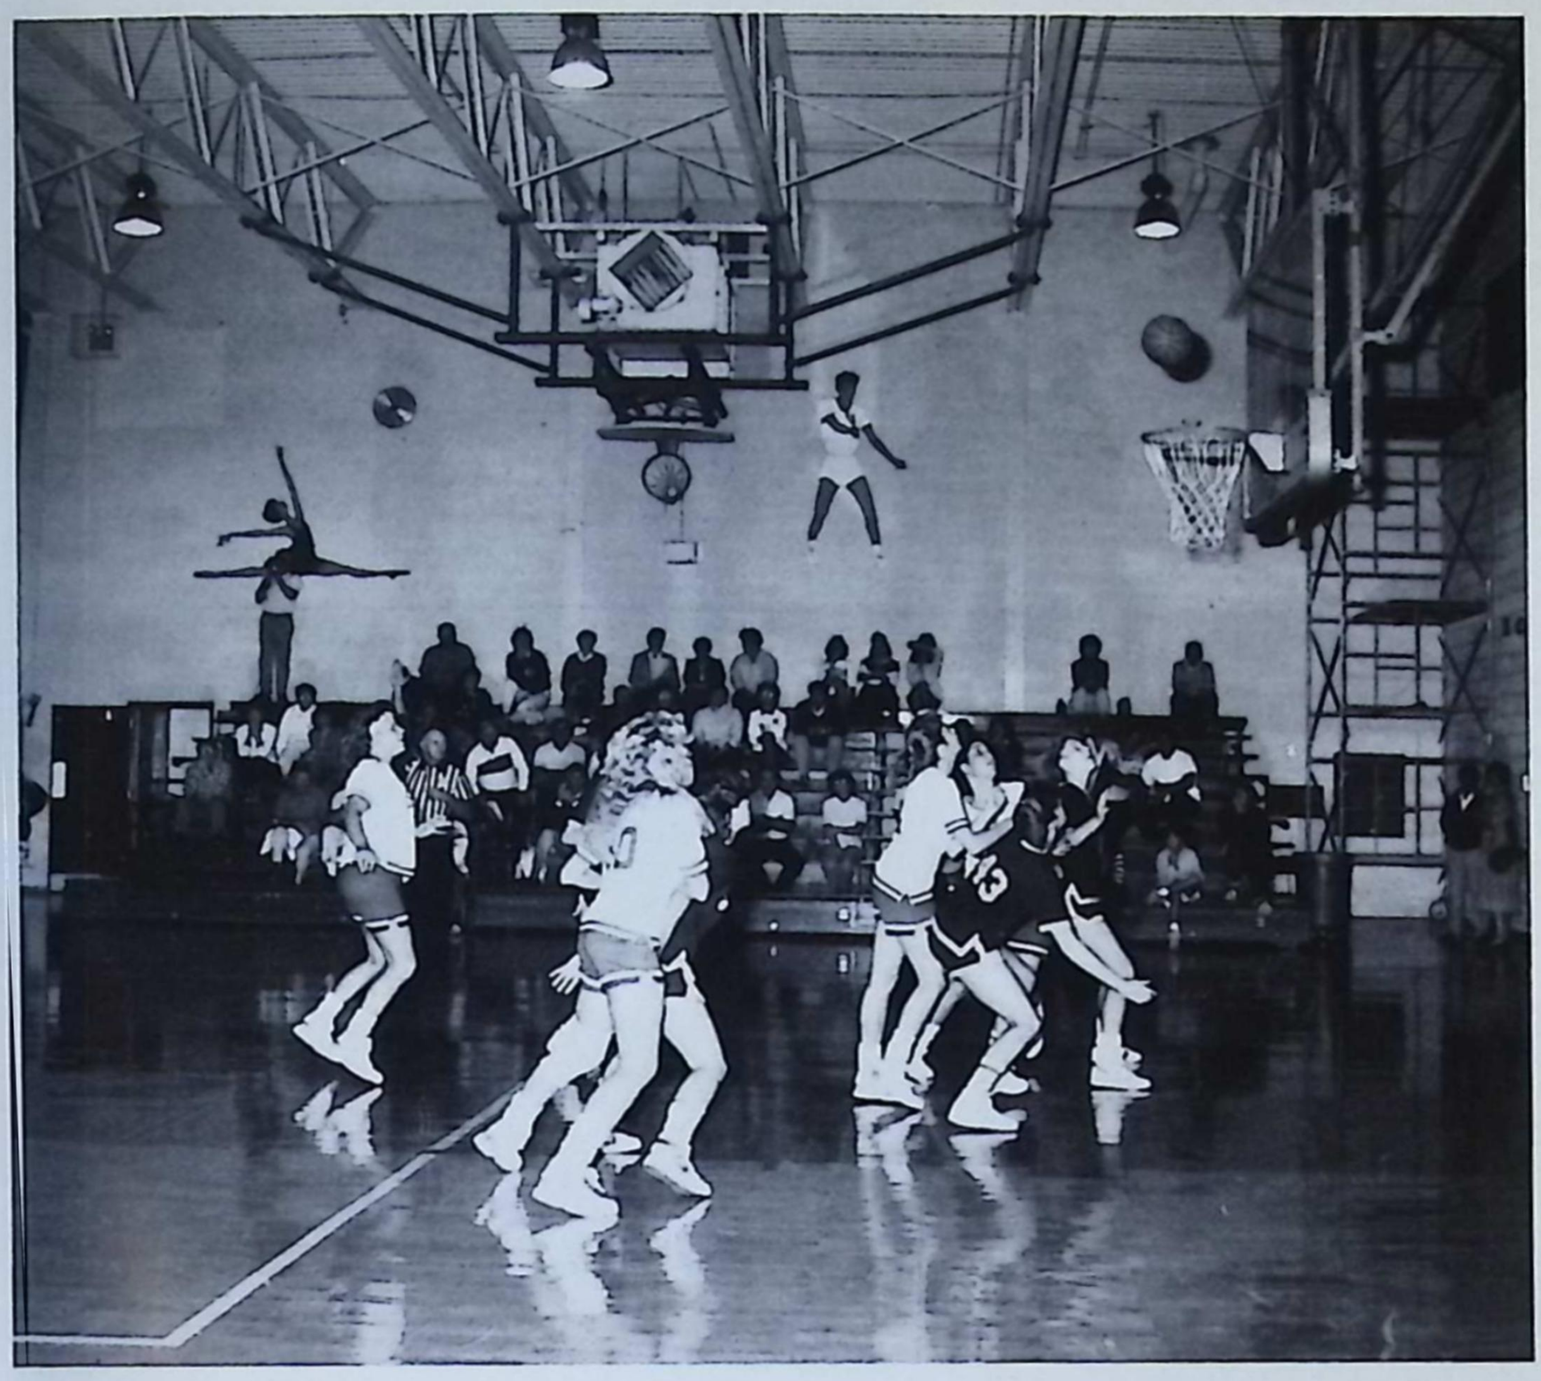
PUTTING THE PIECES TOGETHER FOR A SUCCESSFUL SEASON



"Quality" is the perfect word to describe the Girls' Varsity Basketball team.

The Lady Saints finished with 12 wins and 7 losses in the regular season. This however, didn't come to the ladies with much ease. It took hard work and work they did.

When most people are trying to enjoy and get the most out of their summers, the last thing on their minds is school, let alone an extracircular activity for school.

Not the Lady Saints. They paracticed much of the summer. This includes: getting up early to play some hoop or lifting weights. In preseason, the Saints take a weekend to Manestee to compete in a tournament, then they go directly to Michigan State for a week long team camp.

With all this time and effort put in, many would think that it was enough. Well, it wasn't for most of the players, because along with the above mentioned, many attended a week of basketball camp for their individual needs.

For all their hard work and determination, what did the Lady Saints get in return? They were the District Champions for 1987.

The Saints were led by captains Diane Biewer and Ann Nichols. Bonnie Hamilton was named Most Improved for the team. Ann Shaw made All-Area team and was named MVP for the year.

PUTTING THE STRIDES TOGETHER TO GET THE WIN

The '87 St. Clair Cross Country team was hot. They started off with an inexperienced team and worked their way to the top.

The pieces of the puzzle came together when the Saints captured the St. Clair Area League championship for the fourth time in 5 years.

Their success kept building higher, ranked No. 9 in the Class B state coaches poll. They won the SCAL duel meet with a 4-0 record.

Bringing the attention to students that Cross Country runners were needed, was the No. 1 runner, Ken Distelrath. As runners came out, Ken provided leadership and encouragement.

Ken took control of the Blue Water Area invitationals. He placed 1st in the Saginaw Eisenhower Invitational with a time of 16:46. In both the Marysville and Harbor Beach invitationals, he placed second. Ken has been the SCAL champion for the past two years.

The three runners who filled the gap for the missing seniors were Phil Hornberger, Doug Mehki, and Jody Shovan. Also helping out the Saints was the No. 2 and most improved athlete, Rod Carrier. Jerry Hayden and Rob Laming made the team complete.

The Saints were strong and powerful but it didn't come easy for them. Their success was due to hard and dedicated work.

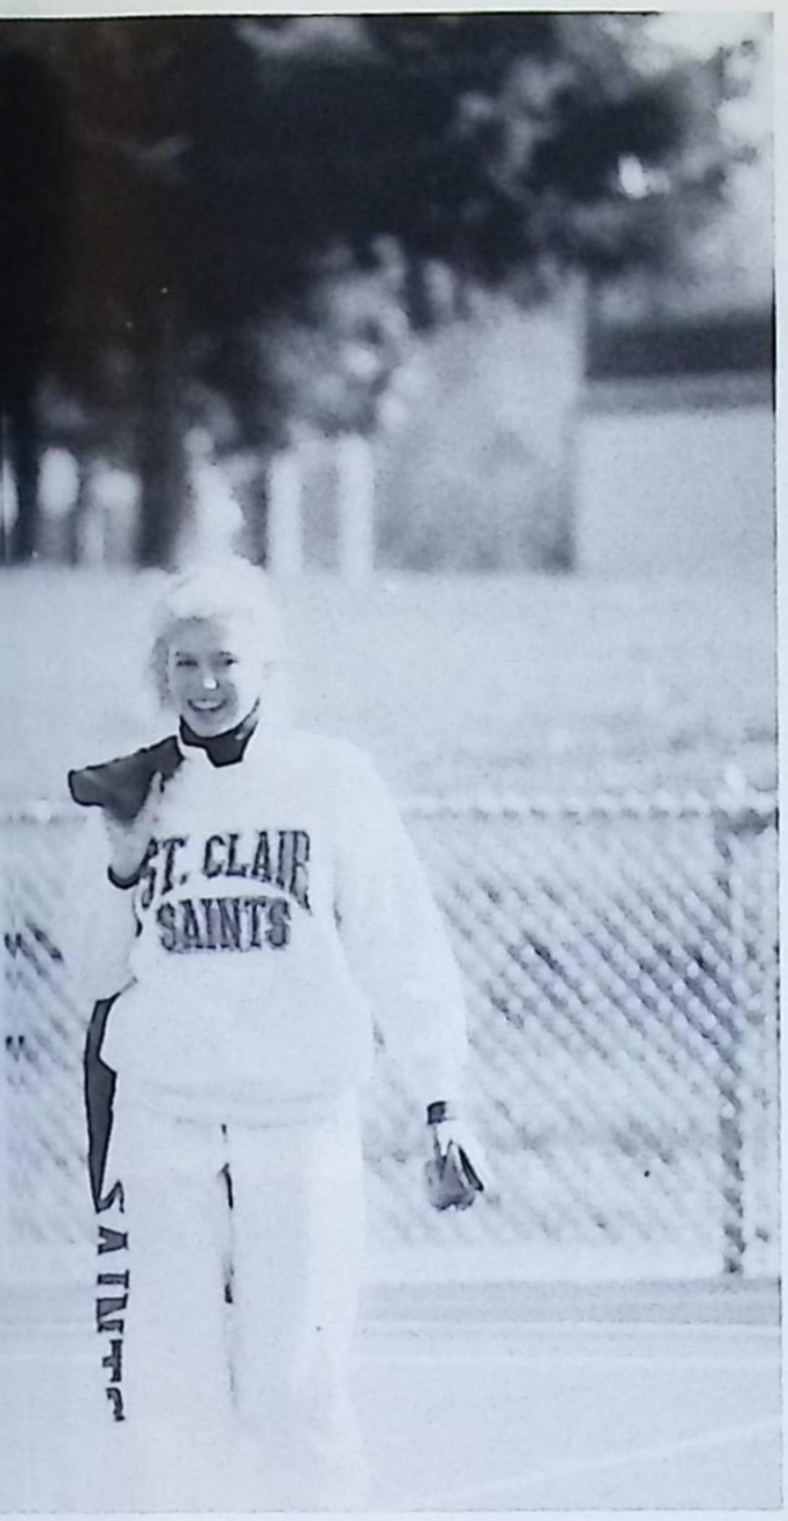
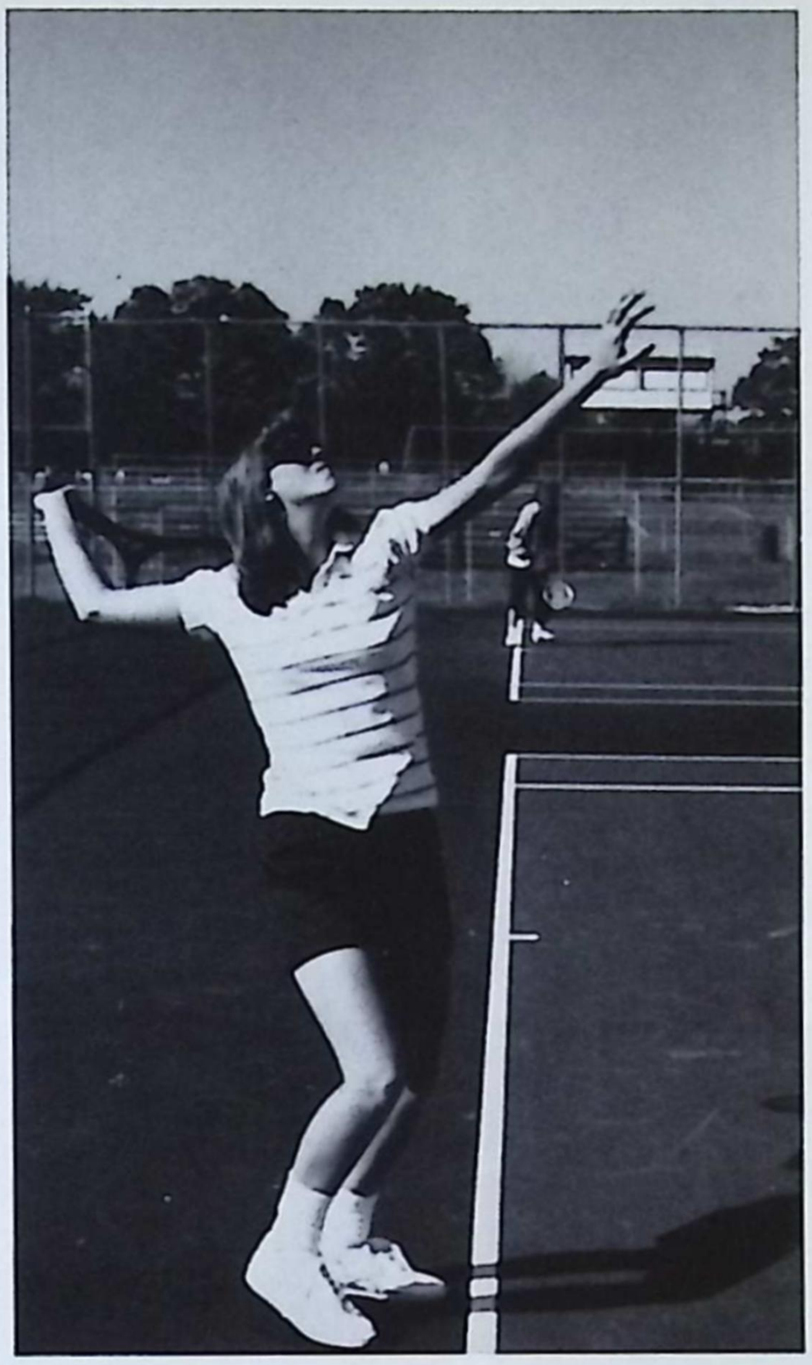
WORKING FOR THE MATCH





The Girls's Tennis team for 1987 was hot! They accomplished much throughout the year, placing first in the St. Clair Invitational and in the SCAL tournaments. That's not all they did, they placed second in the Mt. Clemens Invitational and second in the Class B Regionals.

Like all of the other sports, awards were given out at the end of the season: Most Improved player — Ellen Groff, Most Valuable Players went to Amy Osterland and Sarah Smith, both finished the season with 20 wins and 4 losses. The last award went to Anne Thompson for her good Sportsmanship.

With only four seniors graduating, next year should be great.

ANOTHER PIECE FITS TOGETHER

Another piece of the puzzle fell into place when Rich Mallwitz became head coach again for the J.V. Football team. Ken Thoel moved to the varsity team. Coach Mallwitz along with defensive coach Pete Fox encouraged the team and prepared them for their next year as varsity players. The J.V. team ended 4th in the SCAL and overall had a great season. Dispite losing a few players to the varsity, the team practiced hard and was able to execute. The Varsity team next year will gain many valuable assets.

Helping to build spirit is a combination of strong teams and enthusiastic cheerleaders; both characterized this year.

No matter what the circumstances were, the cheerleaders got the crowd roudy with their chants and cheers. They put in many hours in the summer and once school started, it was after school. Spirit, spunk, and enthusiasm made them an exciting squad.

Rain, sleet, or snow didn't damper the determination of the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. They were ready for any type of crowd.

PIECING THE CROWD TOGETHER IN SPIRIT

The 1987 Fall Varsity Cheerleaders were full of pride and spirit all season. They worked hard and always were able to get the crowd motivated. Not only working on a variety of cheers, the squad also did a dance routine to "Velcro Fly". The student body seemed to shine whenever the cheerleaders were around. The cheerleaders were always smiling and full of fire, which made the Varsity football players play at their best. The squad put on an exquisite pep assembly for homecoming. Being able to work hard and have fun is what makes the Varsity Cheerleaders so successful.

Golf is not an easy sport. You need patience and a lot of practice. Proof of their hard work was the naming of four members to the 1st Team All League. Their scores are as follows: D. J. Westrick 81, Derek Reese, Steve Shafer, and Kevin Distelrath all with 90.

The captains of this year's team, Derek Reese and Steve Shafer, supported the team through bad weather, terrible courses, and horrible scores. Everyone on the team was an important piece of the puzzle. The Saints ended with a record of 10 wins, 3 losses, and Co-Champ of the league.

Kevin Distelrath earned Most Improved Player.

Who were faithfully attending practice at 5:30 in the morning, meeting twice a week while the rest of the world slumbered? The St. Clair Hockey Team, that's who!

Running away with the Mr. Hustle Award was Brad Pickelhaup, MVP went to Rod Carrier, leading in scoring was Joe McLeod, and Most Improved player was Kurt Mead.

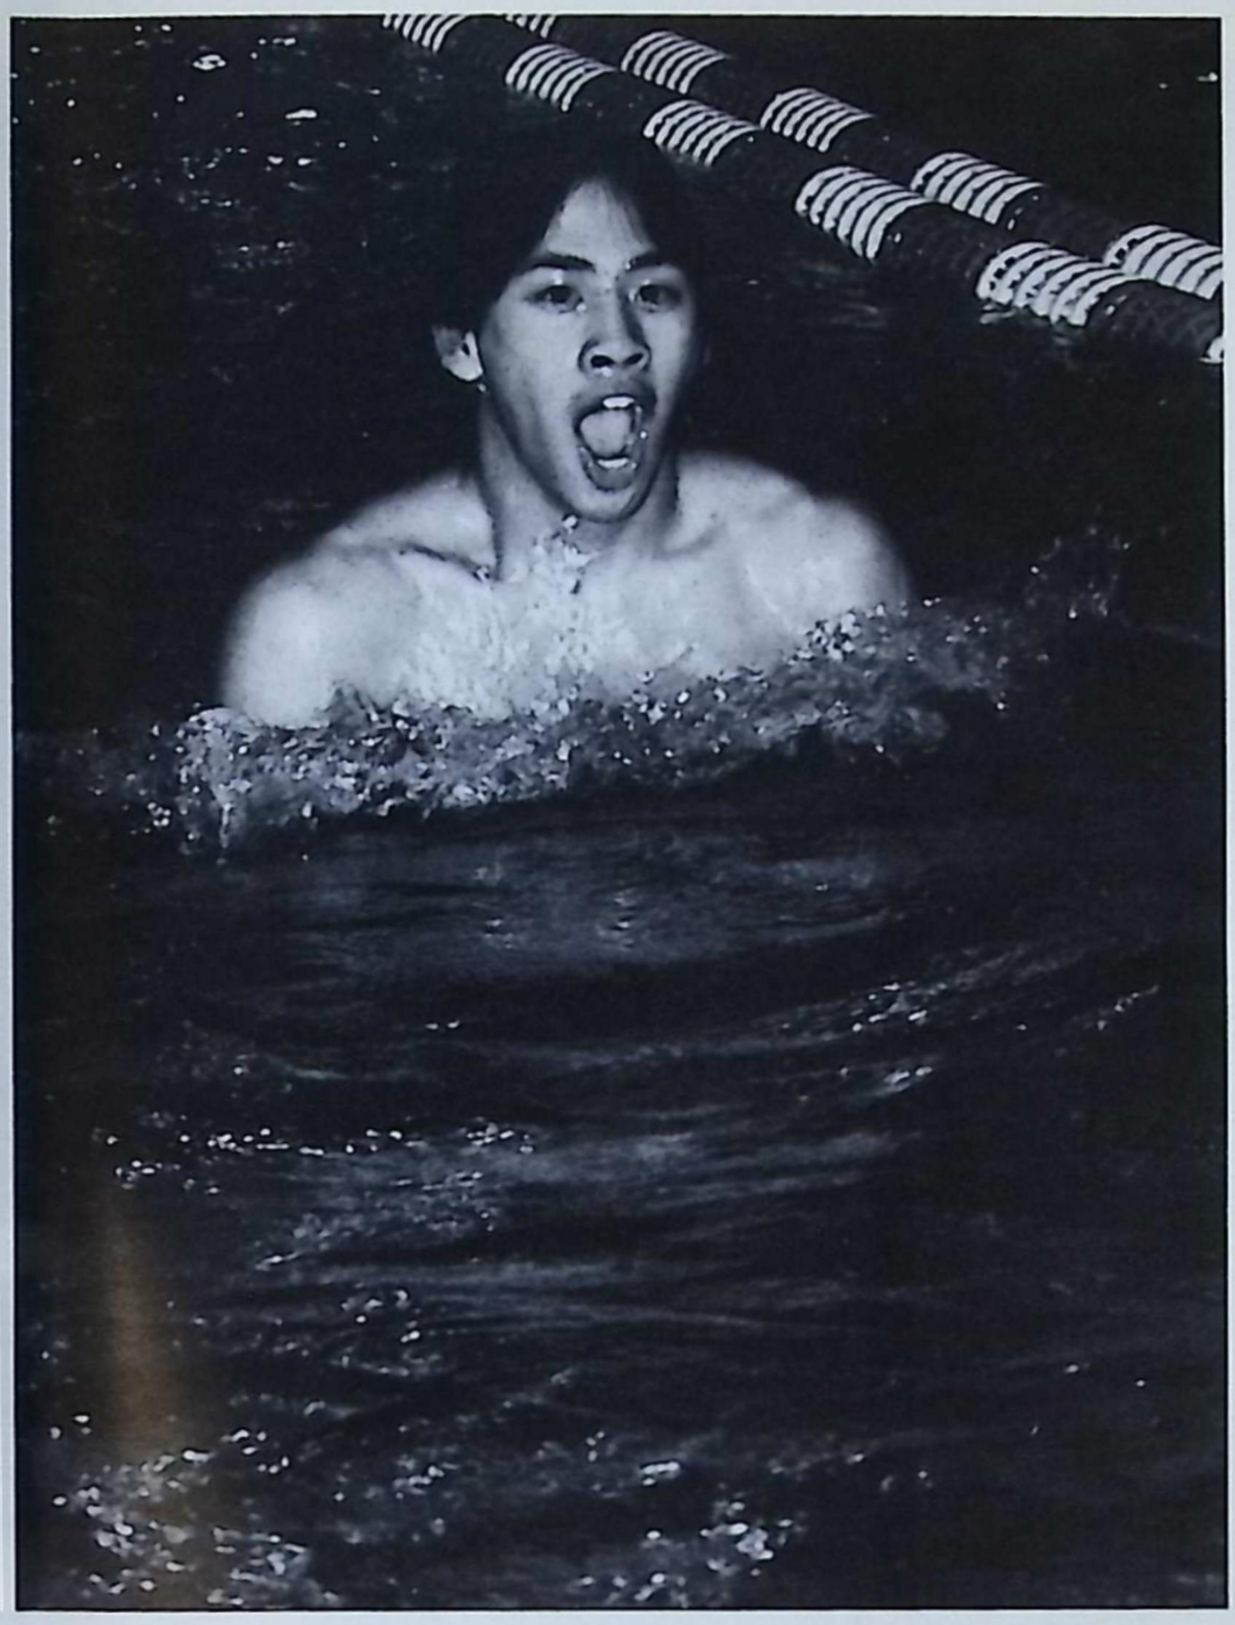
ONE PIECE SUIT ADDING TO THE PUZZLE



With a ten member swim team, one might think that the season would be long and unrewarding — Not true for the St. Clair Mens' Swim Team. They finished their season with seven wins and five loses. Also, they finished third in the Marysville Invitational and third in the SCAL meet.

The season was one for individual accomplishments. Six swimmers broke school records: Rick Kasemsarn — 50 Freestyle, Bob Gamble — 100 & 500 Freestyle, Jeff McConnell — 100 Breaststroke, Al Hackert — Diving(Al also qualified for the regional meet), and the 200 Medley Relay team consisting of Bob Gamble, Jeff McConnell, Rick Kasemsarn, and Kevin Paul.

The Swim Team, despite losing many members to graduation, will accomplish much next year.

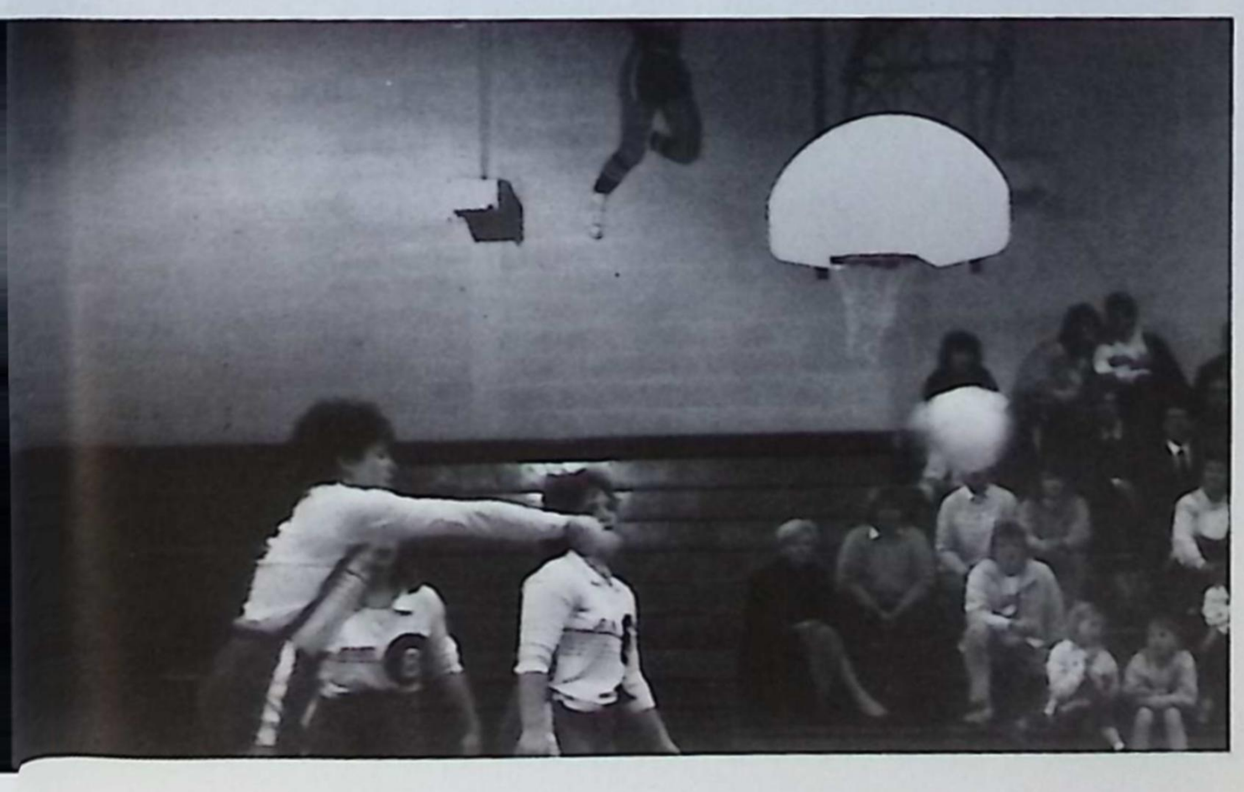
SETTING THE PUZZLE



Speed, coordination, and stamina are all important attributes in the game of volleyball. This year's J.V. Volleyball team imporved all of these.

Volleyball is a relatively difficult sport, because of the skills needed. One needs to know how to serve and do it well, how to pass, how to set, and how to spike. J.V. Volleyballers learned to do these things this year. Their practices were hard and repetition was an essential.

Even though this year was tough, because of the stiff competition, the j.v. will be a welcomed assets to next year's team.

Captain of the J.V. Volleyball team was Kelly McCabe. She offered support and superb leadership, as well as skill, which earned her the Most Valuable Player award. The Most Improved Player award went to freshman Therese Bonner. Finally, the Coaches Award went to Marie Neiman.

SPIKING THE PIECES INTO PLACE

The Varsity Volleyball team worked well together. They combined their talents and efforts into a spiking success. They lacked nothing except height, but with skill and determination that was overcome.

Even though not many people showed up to watch their games, the Varsity Volleyball team showed their stuff. Many matches were very close but the crowd, who was there, appreciated their spunk.

This year's team was composed of some returning varsity members and some great gals from last years j.v. team. Their practices were hard and long, the tournaments were far away, and their wins were hard, but that didn't discourage the Lady Saints. They never lagged and always tried their hardest. That's what makes a team, a team.

With some experienced girls from the j.v., next year's team will be better than ever.

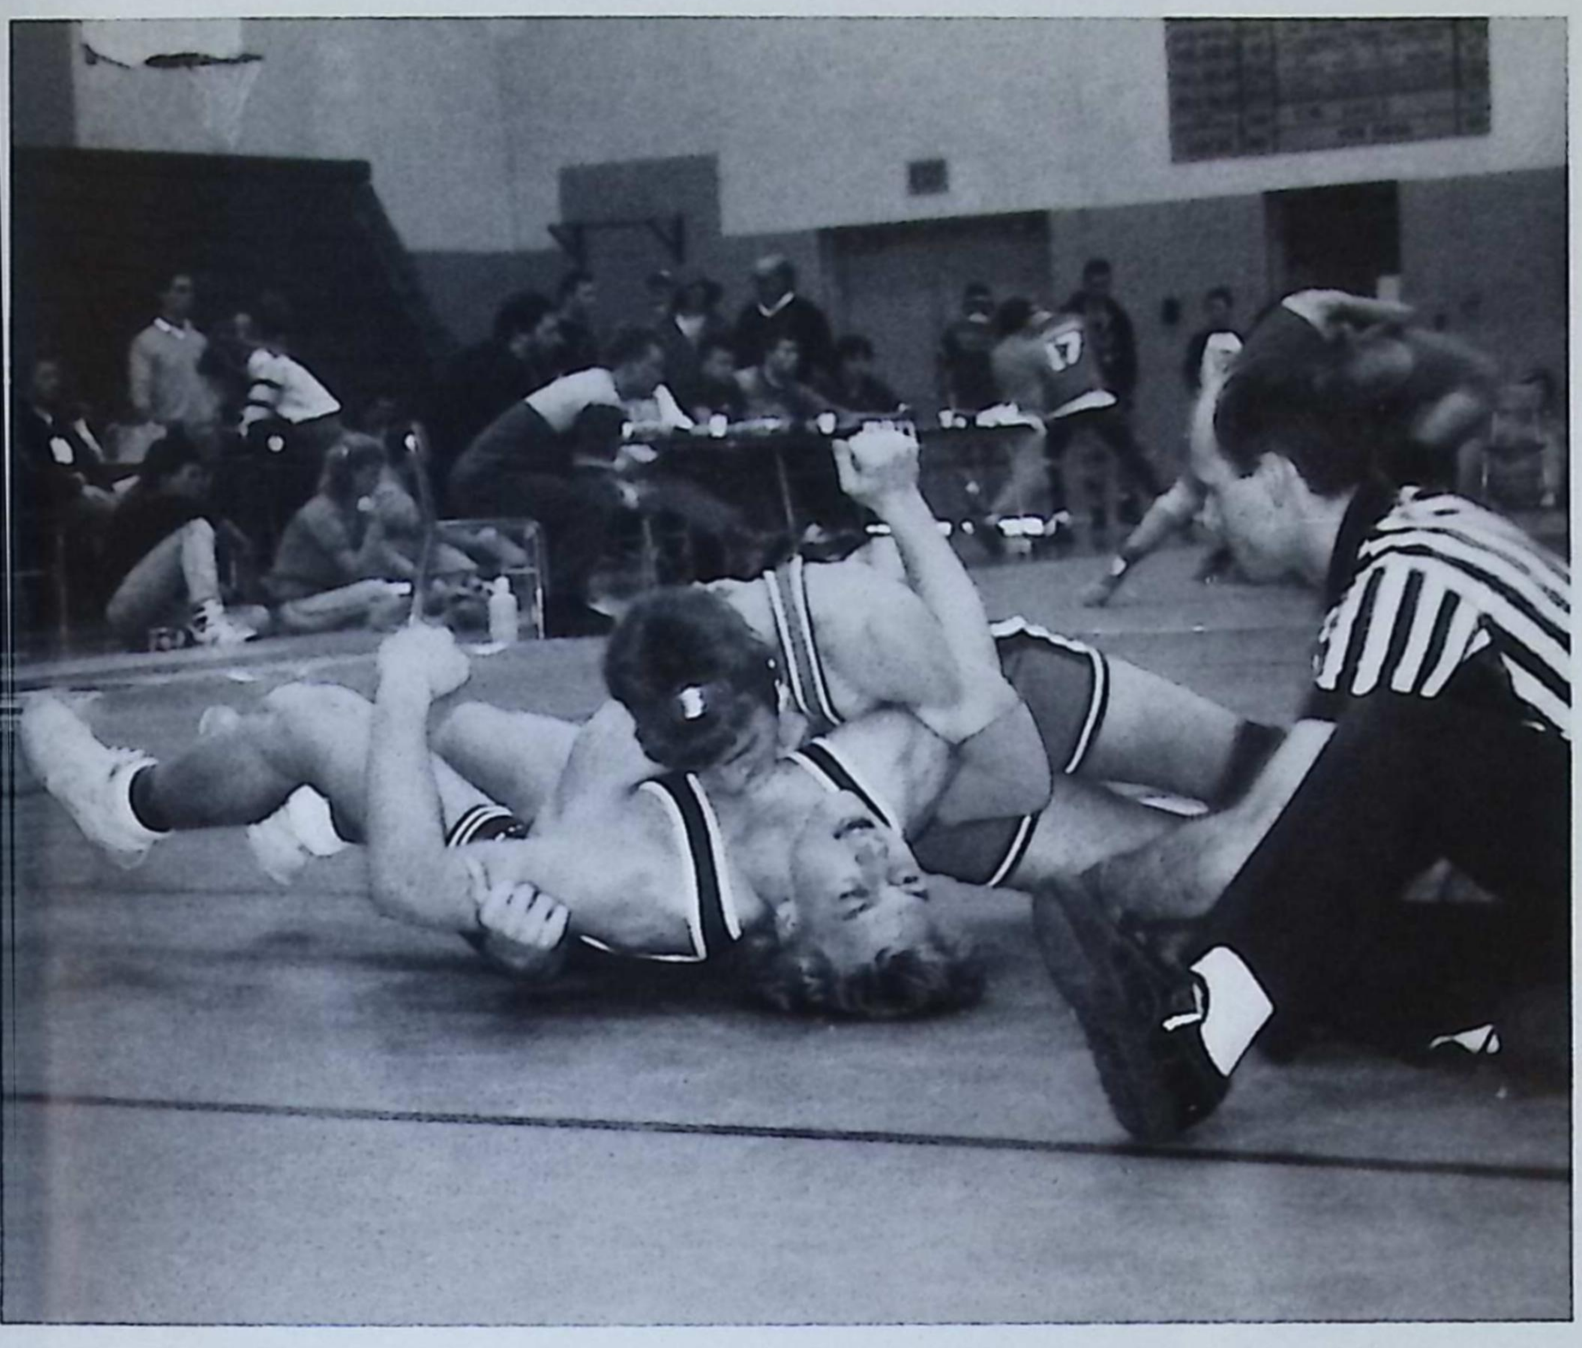
PINNING DOWN THE PIECES

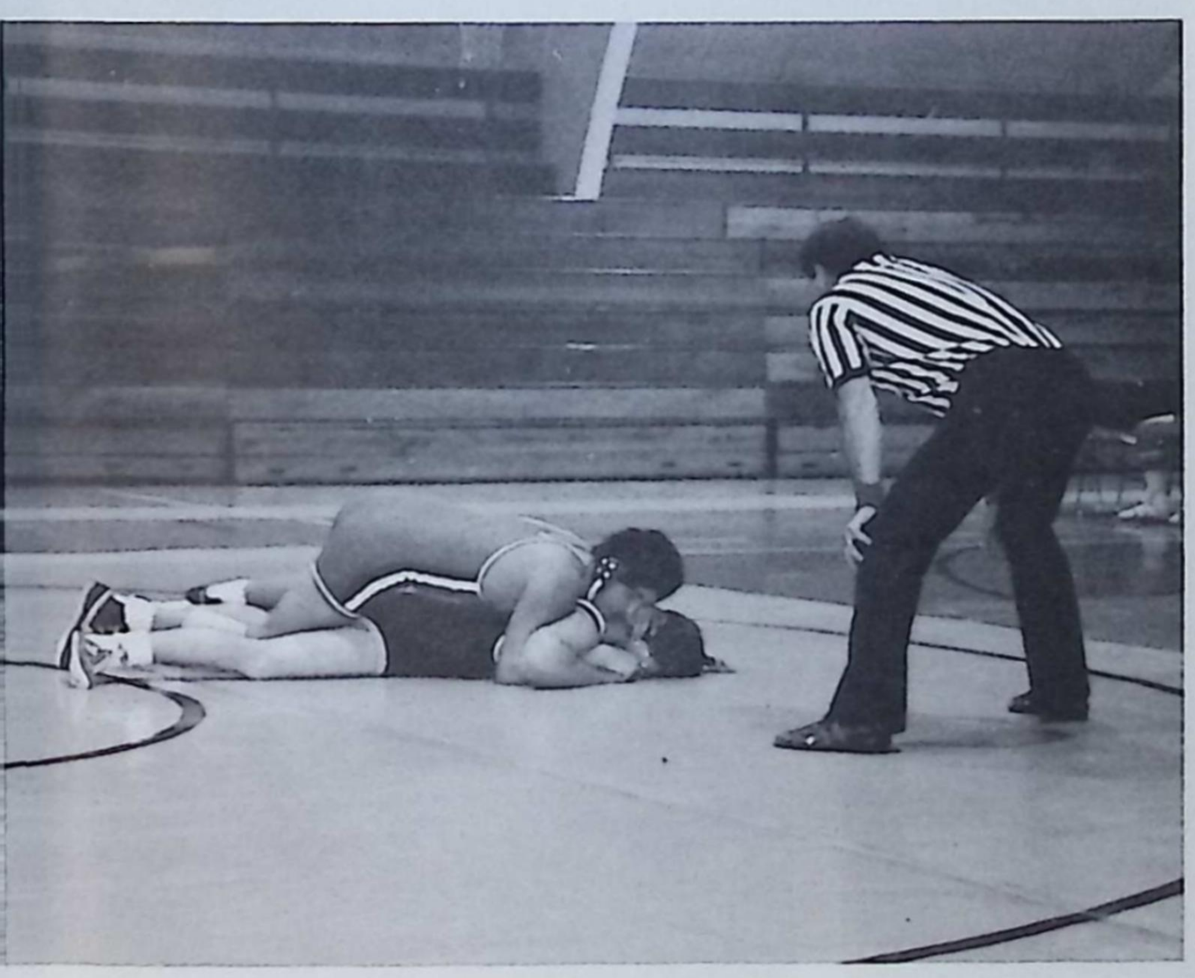


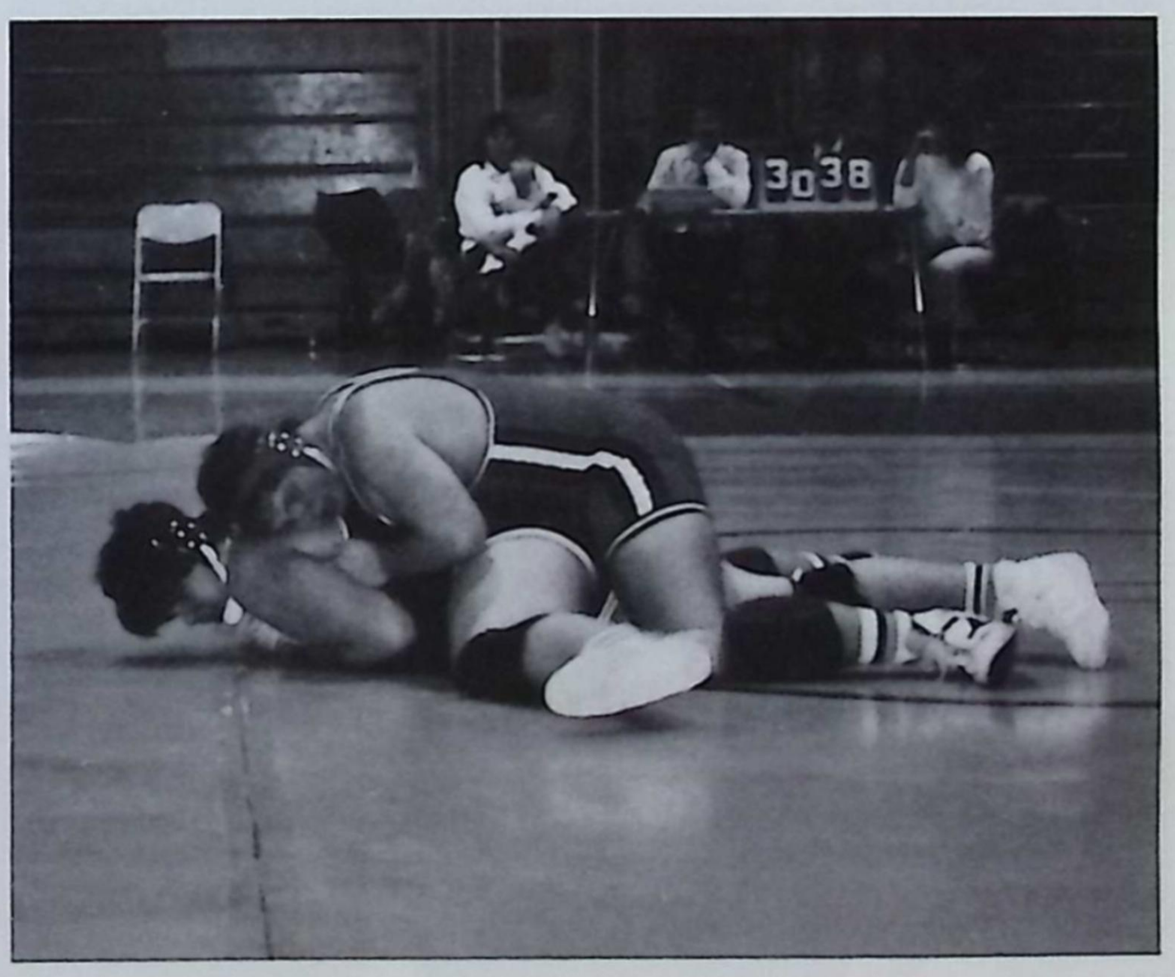
Throughout the 1987/88 school year, the St. Clair High School Wrestling Team showed great promise. They finished the year with a 3-14 record.

Captain, Jason Bitting, put forth tremendous effort to become a Regional Qualifer. Jason also received the Most Valuable Player award. Shawn Warn was awarded the Most Improved Wrestler.

Together with team spirit and pride in their school, the St. Clair High Wrestling Team showed tremendous overall team improvement.

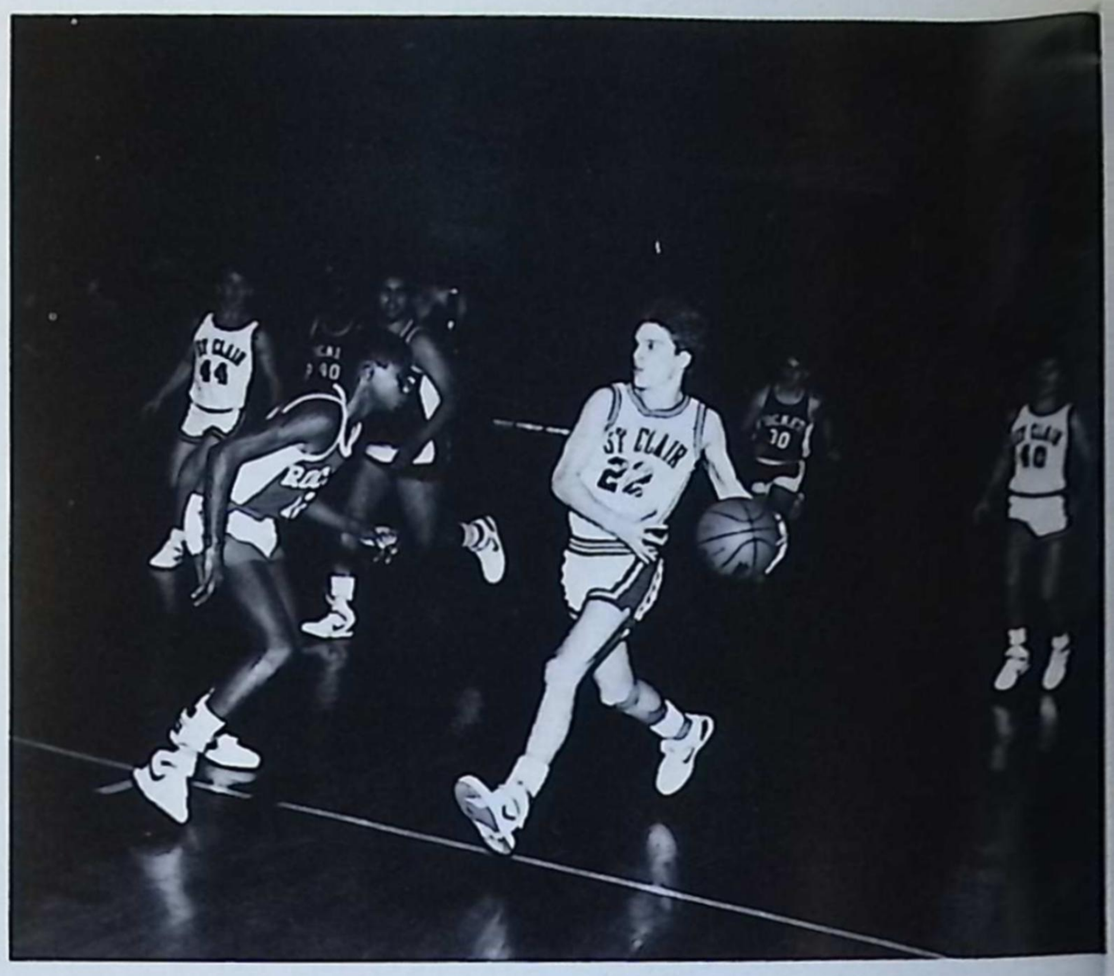
Congratulations team, for a fine season! Always keep your spirit and enthusiasm and be ready next year to reach even higher.

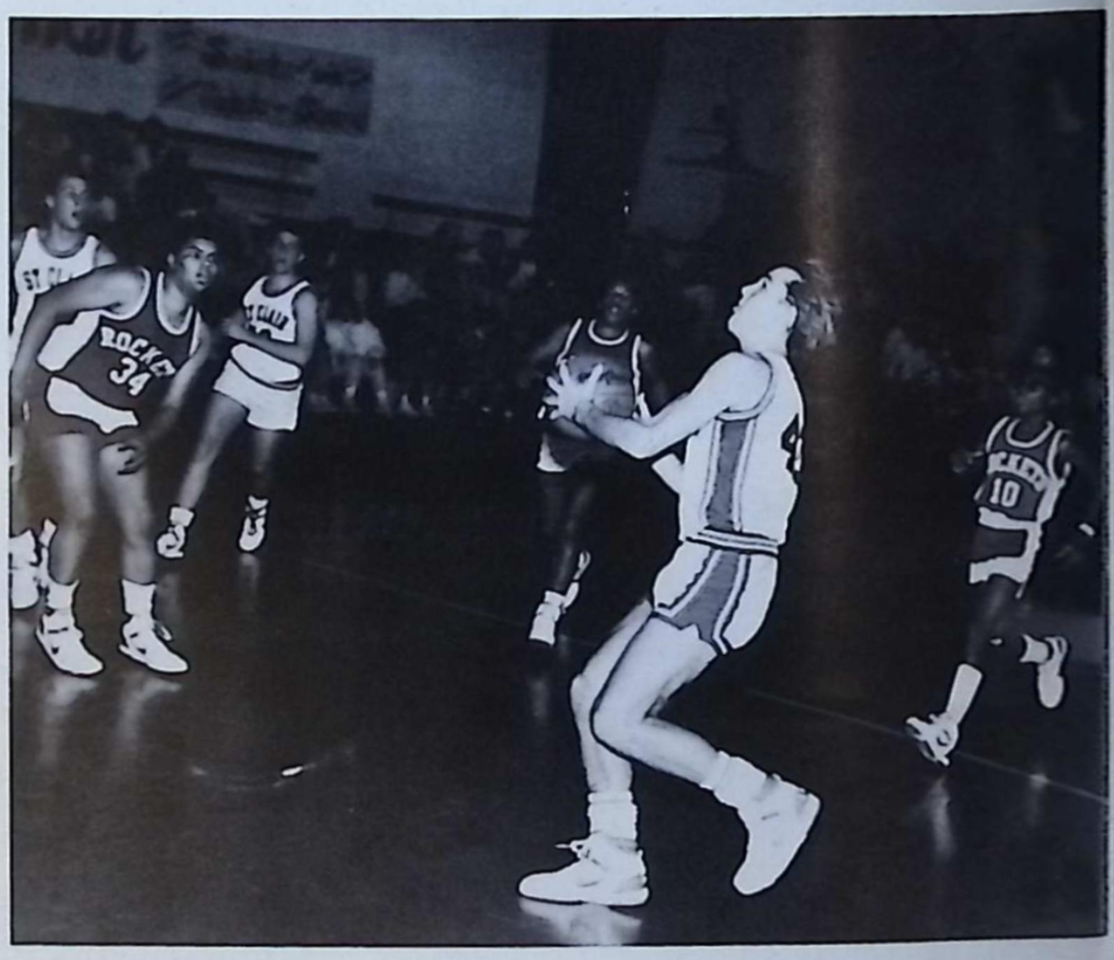




Jason Bitting executes an over-under throw. Putting on the heat is Adam Driscoll. Bill Jordan puts on the half-nelson with a bar arm. Going for the half-nelson, Dale Clark powers his man to the floor. Trying to pin his opponent, is Tony Beck. Jason Bitting wins first place at the Yale Invitational.

DEFENDING THE PUZZLE

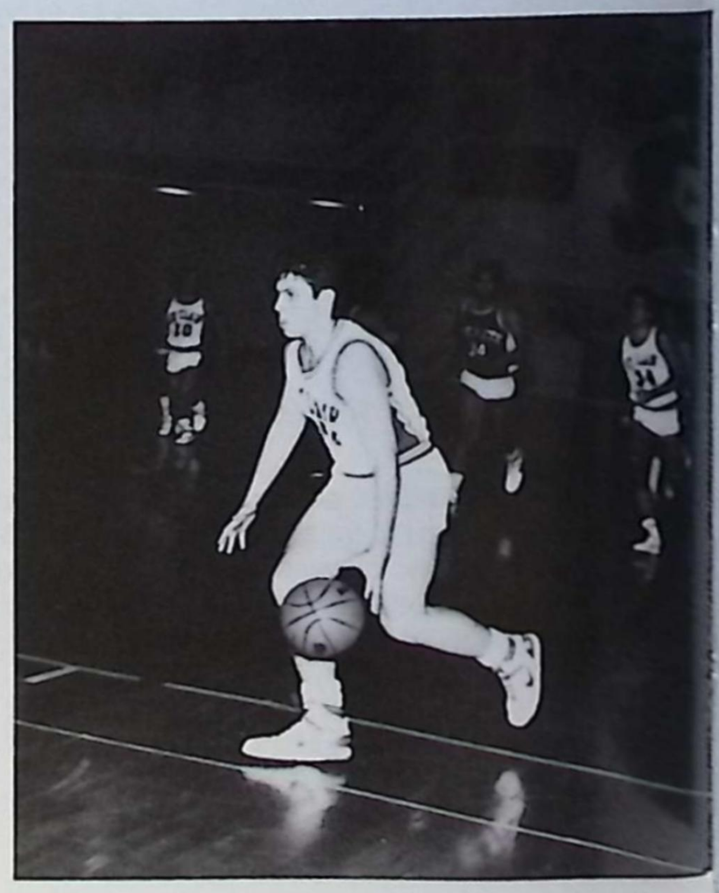




J.V. Basketball is sort of the opening act for the varsity, and what an act they were! Finishing the season with 12 wins and 8 losses.

They brought out many fans to watch them and their ability to beat other teams. Leading the Saints in shooting skills was leading scorer Jim Meyers. Eddie "Air" Delore ripped down the most rebounds for the team, receiving the leading rebounder title.

They practiced until they perfected their skills. When this team moves to the varsity level, they will be a force not to be reckoned with.



Driving toward the basket, with a determined look, is Mike Kierszykowski. Richie Clements is leaning but gets the shot off. Quickly passing the ball to another teammate, is Nick Pauly. Yes Jerry , the basket is really there. Keeping low to control the ball is Matt Landschoot. Jim Meyers shoots over an opponent to get the basket. "This is my ball," says Ed Delore, "and no one can have it." Marty Zobl makes the basket with ease.

REBOUNDING THE PIECES

This year's Boys' Varsity Basketball team was unstoppable in determination and effort. The game for them was never over until the buzzer sounded, no matter what the score showed.
Team captains were Rich Schweihofer, Brian Moran, and Chris Strathmann.

Despite a tough season with out much recognition for all their work, the awards banquet was a time to recognize them. Derek Reese received Most Improved while Brian Moran picked up the Captains Award. Awarded the Sclolar Athlete Award was Chris Strathmann, and the Most Valuable Player for the year was Rick Schweihofer.

The Saints didn't need cheers from the newspapers, all they had to do was look into the crowd. The 6th Man provided the support they needed!

Brian Moran gets hammered by his opponent as he goes up and, of course, makes a layup. Trying to catch up with the basketball before the other team does is John Richardson.

SCRAMBLING THE CROWD

When your basketball team is good, as the Junior Varsity Basketball team was this year, it's easier to get the crowd pumped up. It isn't that easy. The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders put in plenty of time and effort to make the season successful.

They made signs to decorate the gym for every home game, motivated the crowd into the games, and put in many hours of practice for their dance routine, which was put on twice during the season.

Cheerleaders bring with them a sense of school pride. Everyone enjoyed them this year.

Some of the JV Cheerleaders practice before the game. Stomping to the beat are Kerry Wright, Kerri Zobl, Kristin Crowl, and Renee Stubbs. Kristin Crowl, Gena Taylor, and Amy Richards take time out to pose for the camera. Getting the crowd going with their floor cheer are the JV Cheerleaders.

Amy Shorkey leads the cheerleaders with a floor cheer. Showing lots of enthusiasm during the game, are Amy Shorkey and Debby Senger. The whole varsity squad jumps around and swings their arms trying to get some school spirit going. Some of the Varsity Cheerleaders stand with their mother and father on Parent's Night. Moving into position for a crowd cheer are Angle Watt and Dawn Vargo. Close friends are made throughout the season, so close, they stick to one another.

CHECKING OUT THE SPIRIT

A big part of school spirit is the cheerleading squad. The girls gave it their all to get everyone excited for the winter sports. They brightened the halls with banners, held dances after basketball games, and reminded students that there was a game that night by wearing their uniforms to school during the day.

This year, the squad competed in the first cheerleading competition in this area. St. Clair finished third. During a basketball game, they put on a half-time program called "A Tribute to Seniors". It showed various stages throughout life until graduation. This program was touching and appreciated by everyone who saw it.

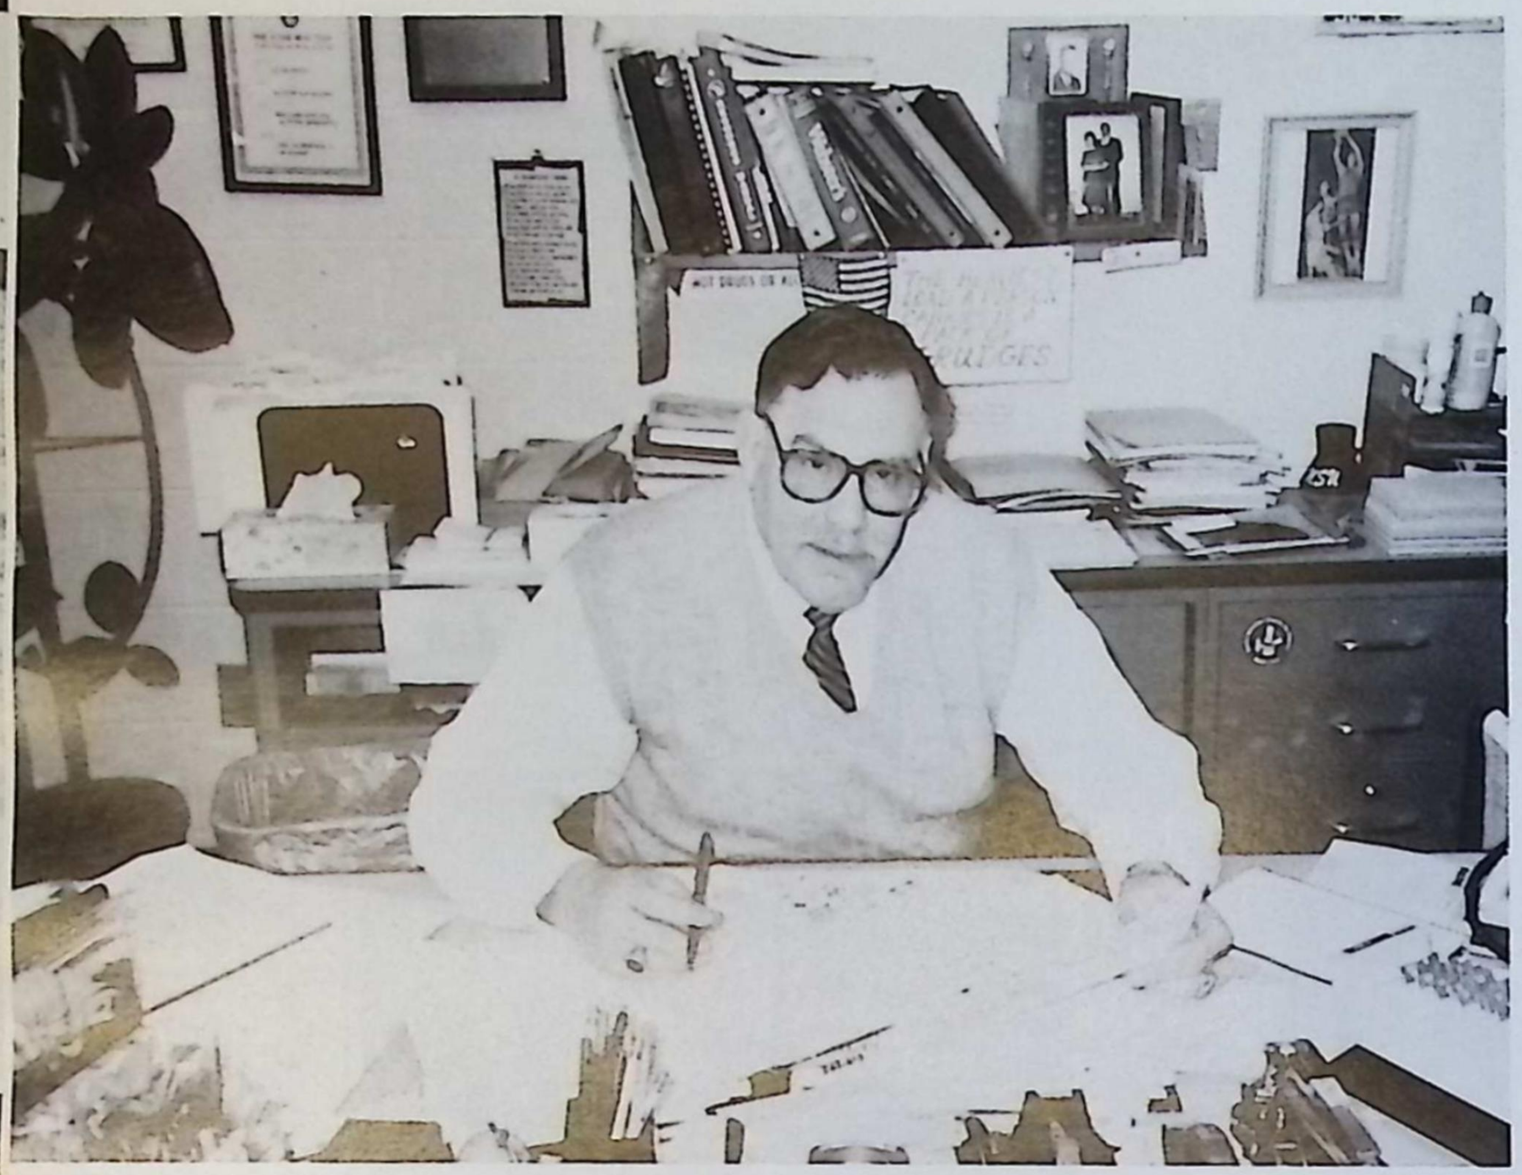
STAFF

KEEPING THE PIECES IN LINE

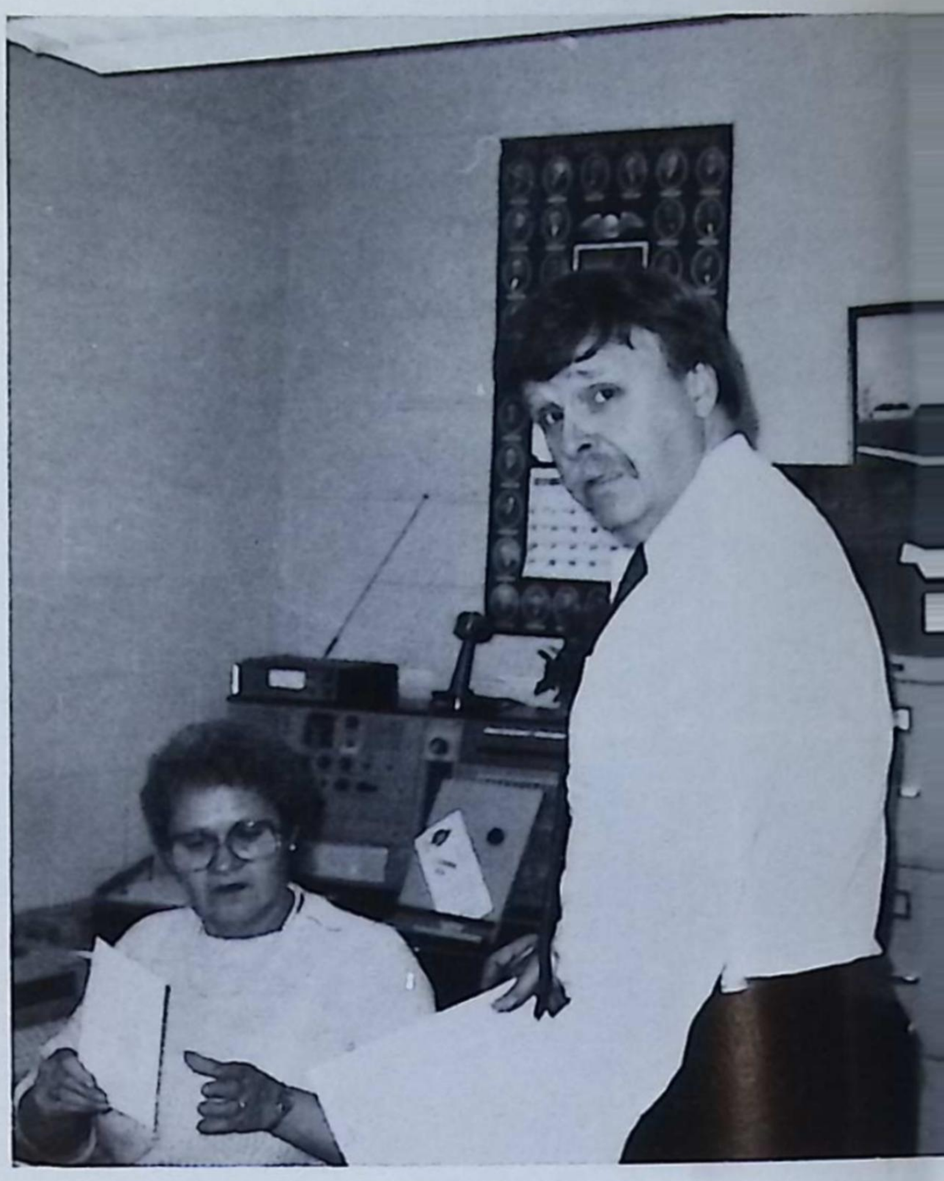


Following several months of "getting my feet wet", and learning names and faces I have finally begun to feel as though I am a part of the St. Clair High School family.

To those graduating seniors I send sincere best wishes with a note of caution. You will face many challenges in adult life, both real and imagined.

Use the skills you have learned to effectively meet these challenges and remember that success is not measured by material wealth but by physical health and emotional happiness. Set high but attainable goals for yourselves and you will achieve that successful life.

Mr. Bob Rood



The sun rises and sets and day follows day. Before we are aware of it, time has slipped by and a career lies behind us. How can we measure that time? How can we put a value on it? We are for the most part what we have done.

I am thankful that I have been afforded the privilege of knowing and working with all of you now and in the past. Though the years, the many contacts and associations have had a positive impact on my life. It is rewarding that such memorable experiences exist in this world today.

As you go on, my love and best wishes for success goes with each and every one of you. Thanks. Mr. Roger Parmentier Laughing at some of the excuses she's heard from the students is building aide Mrs. Pat McCartney. Returning to a huge pile of work is counselor Mr. Don Vincent. Exchausted after a long day at work is bookkeeper Mrs. Sue Stuben. Counselor Mrs. Barbara Saph gets the schedules straightened out for next year. Making sure all the schools paperwork was done on time is Mrs. Beryl Levy.

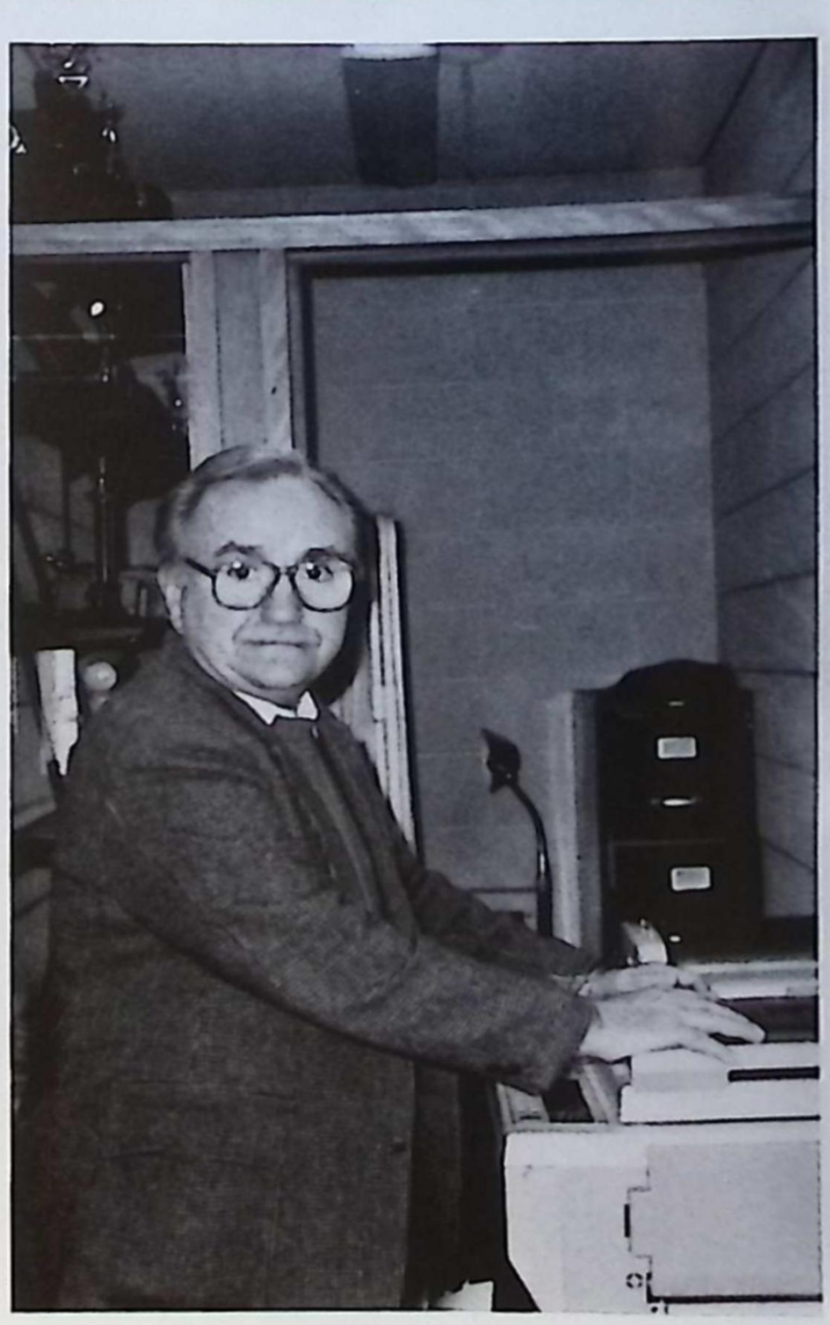
ZOO

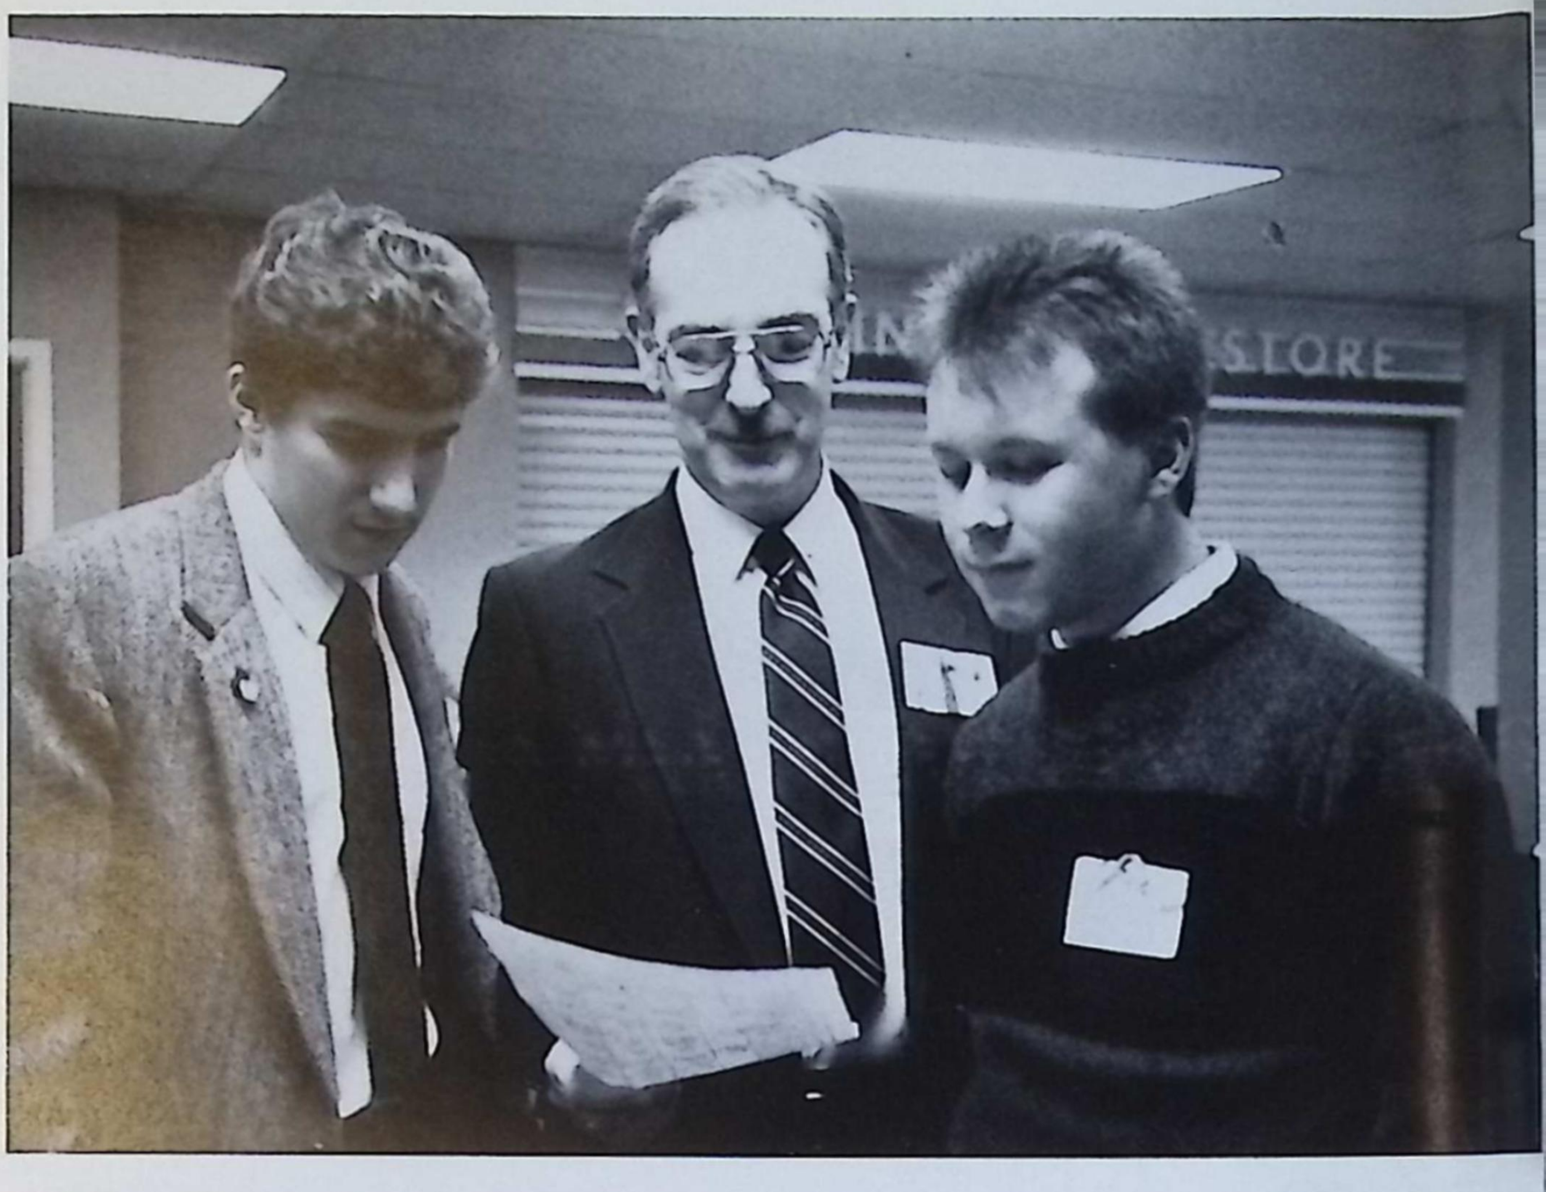


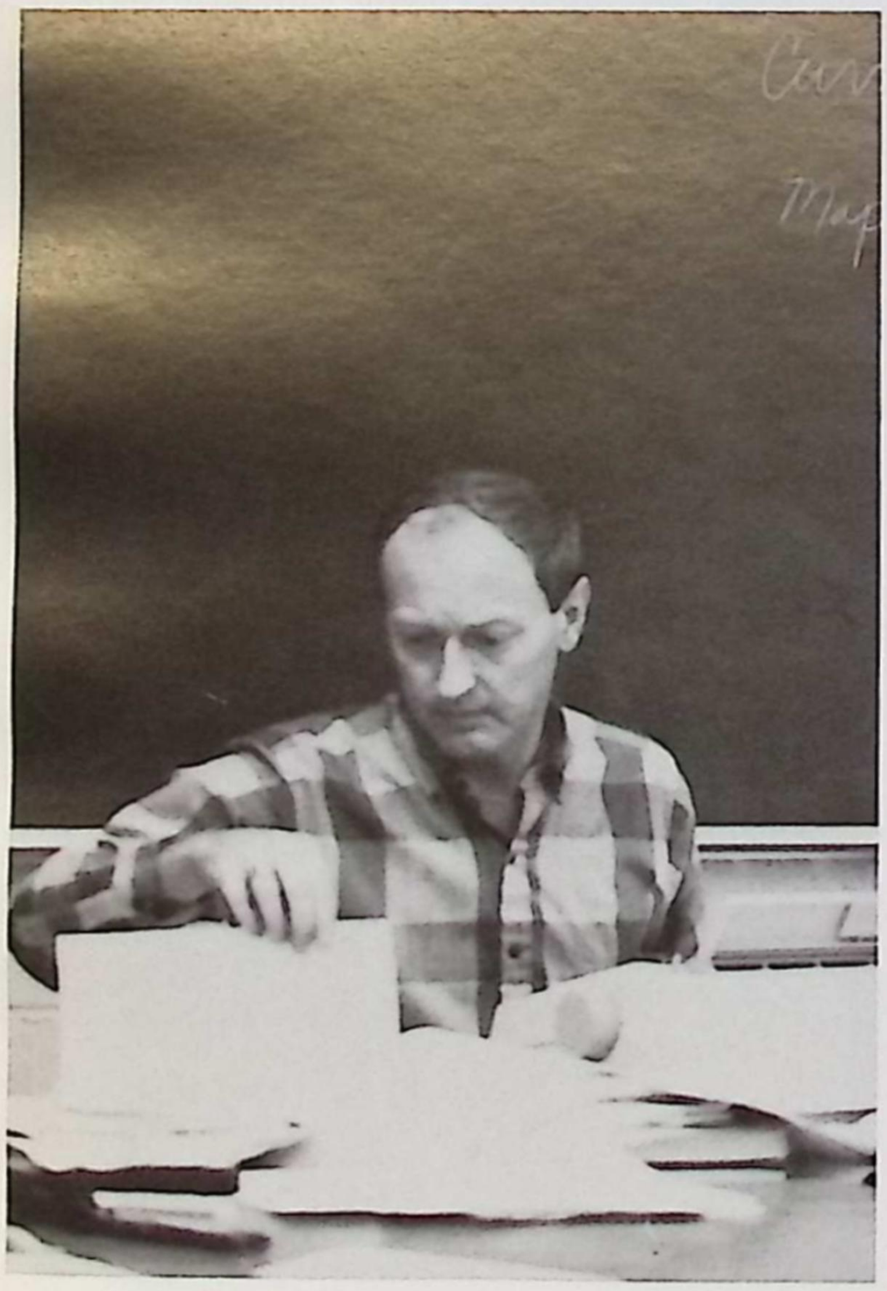
PUTTING THE PIECES IN TO MAKE THE LANGUAGE CORRECT

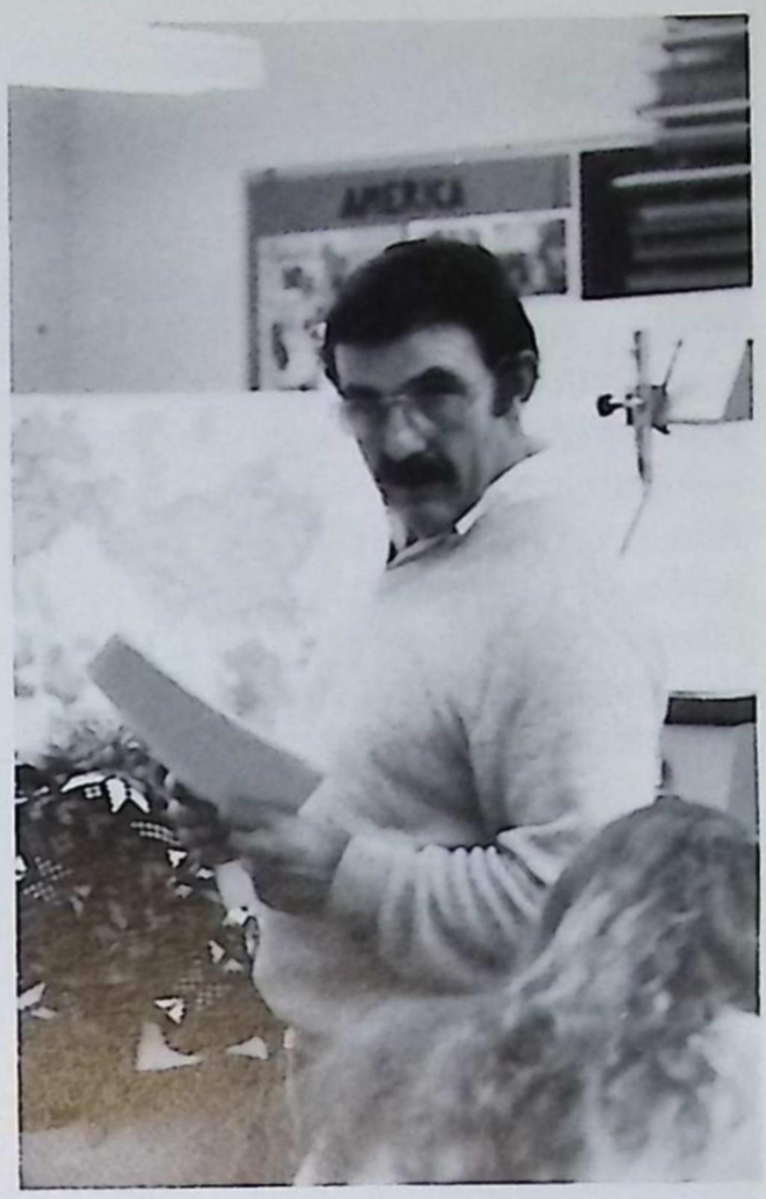
Mr. Walker Archer looks a little fed up with his English 10 students. Telling Santa some of her English 11 teaching skills while sitting on his lap is Ms. Kim Krist. Mr. George Roberts inspects the work of Literature and Composition students Stephanie Holladay, and Diane Robbins. Getting his Literature and Composition to discuss the stories they've read is Mr. Rich Mallwitz. Mr. Don Weber got caught by our camera while he is running off some papers for his College English class. Madame Clyne takes her French Classes into the language lab to practice their French. While taking her classes daily grade Senora Klein takes time to smile for us.

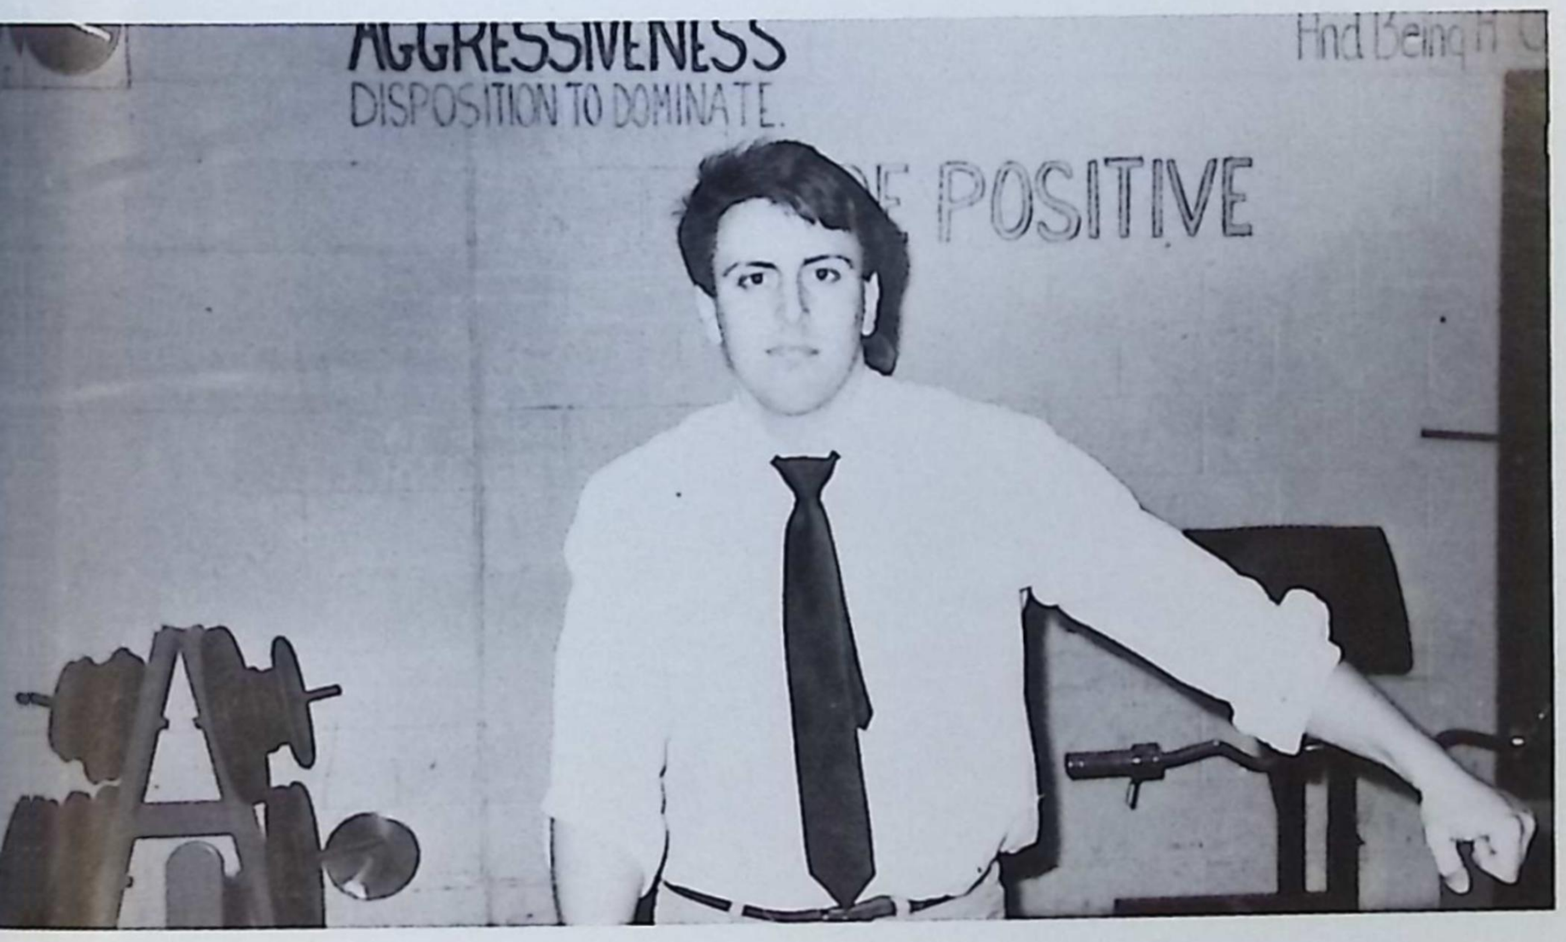
MAKING CREATIVE THOUGHTS TURN INTO PROSPEROUS IDEAS

Mr. Robert Tharrett takes time out of his favorite class, yearbook, to help out with BOEC. Looking a little confused with his General Business is Mr. Les Barnes. Smiling for us even with all her work to be done is Mrs. Dorothy Derrow. Mr. Ron Stablein cherishes his prep hour. The one hour he doesn't have to listen to the Rat-a-tat-tat of the typewriter.

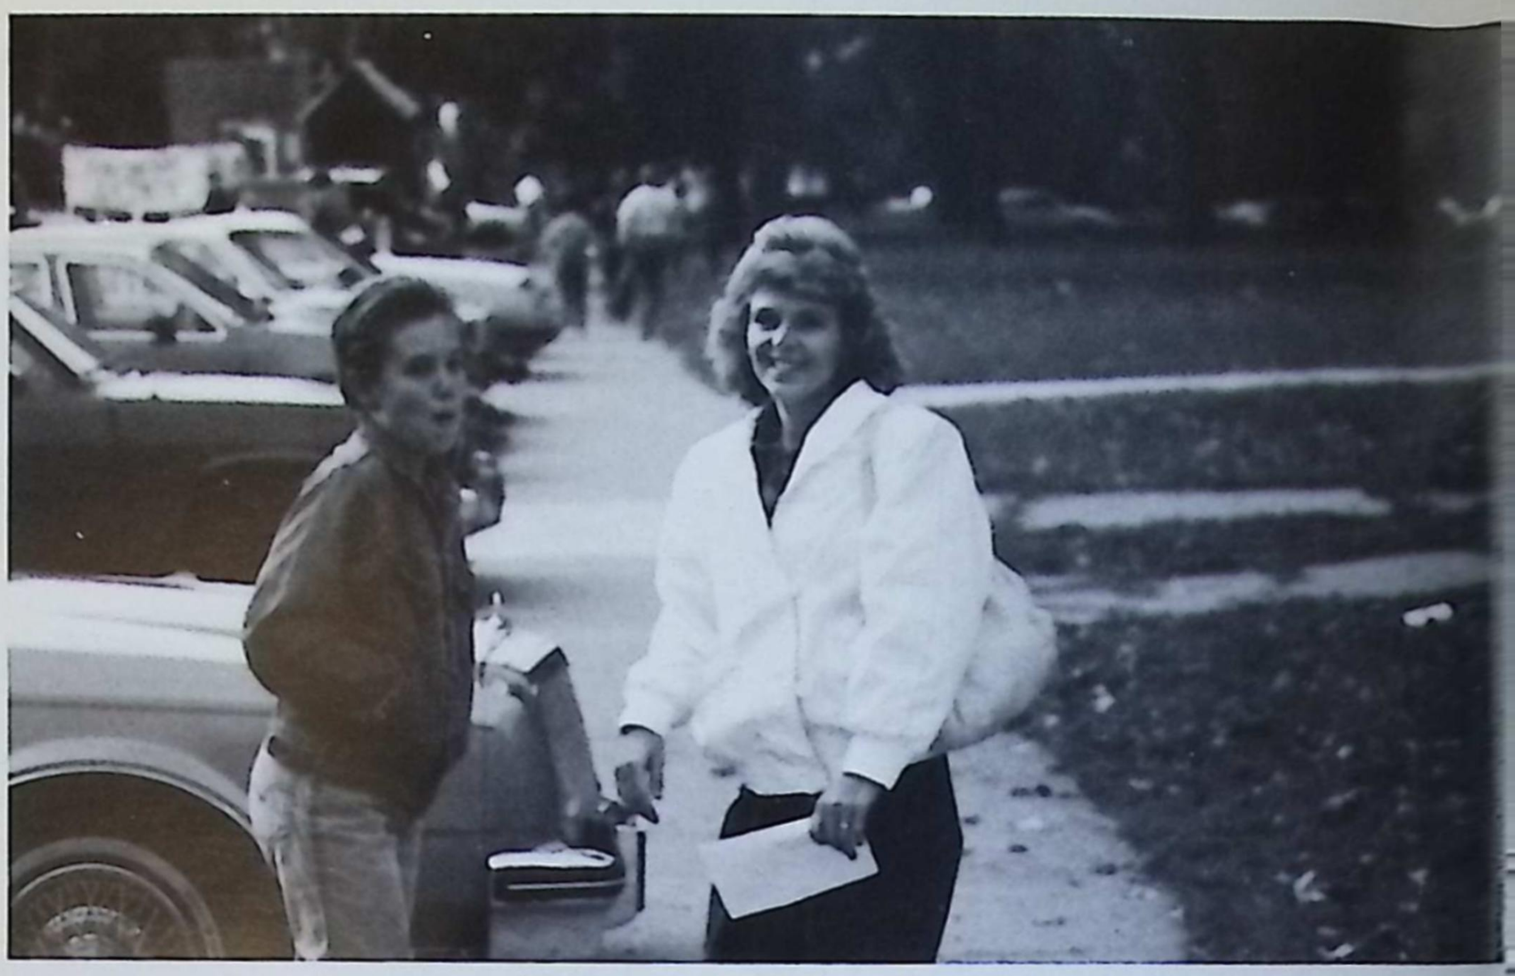




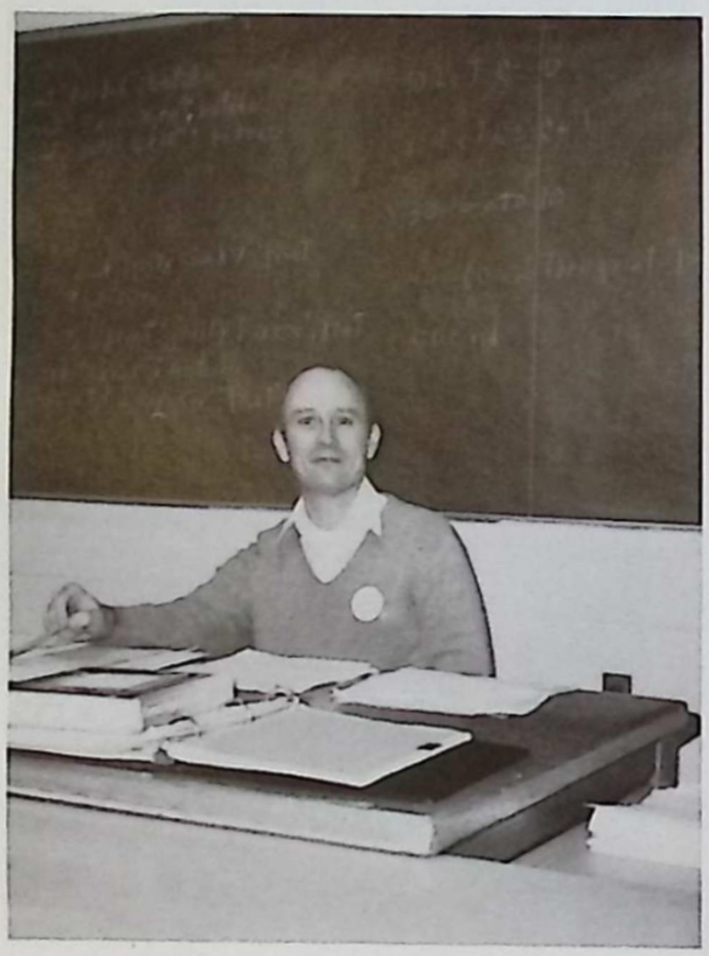


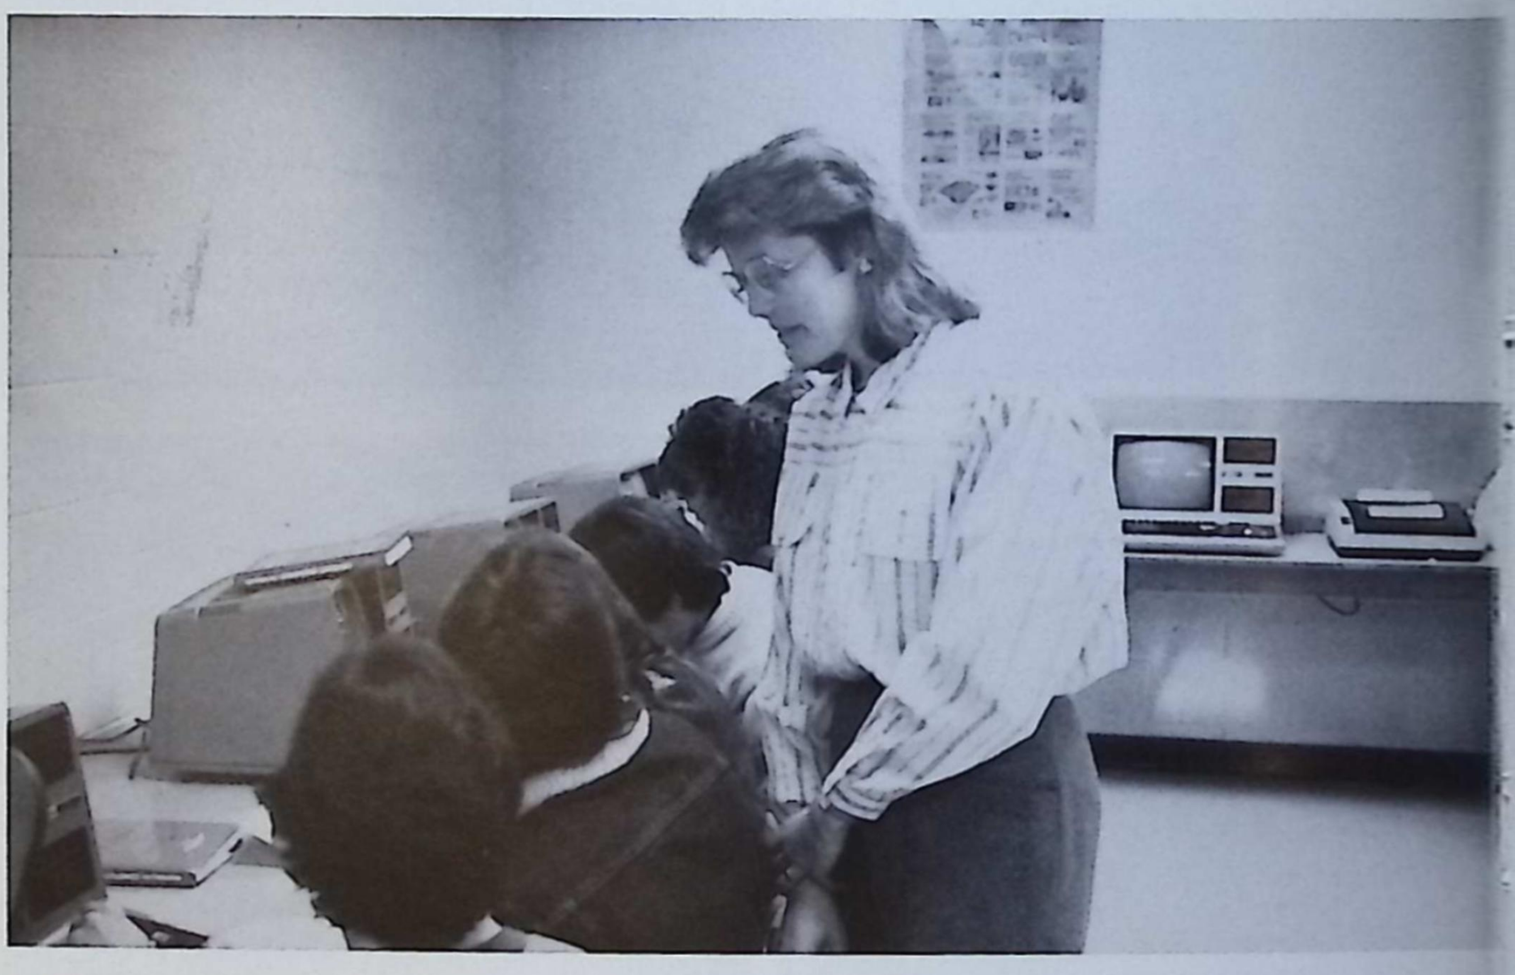


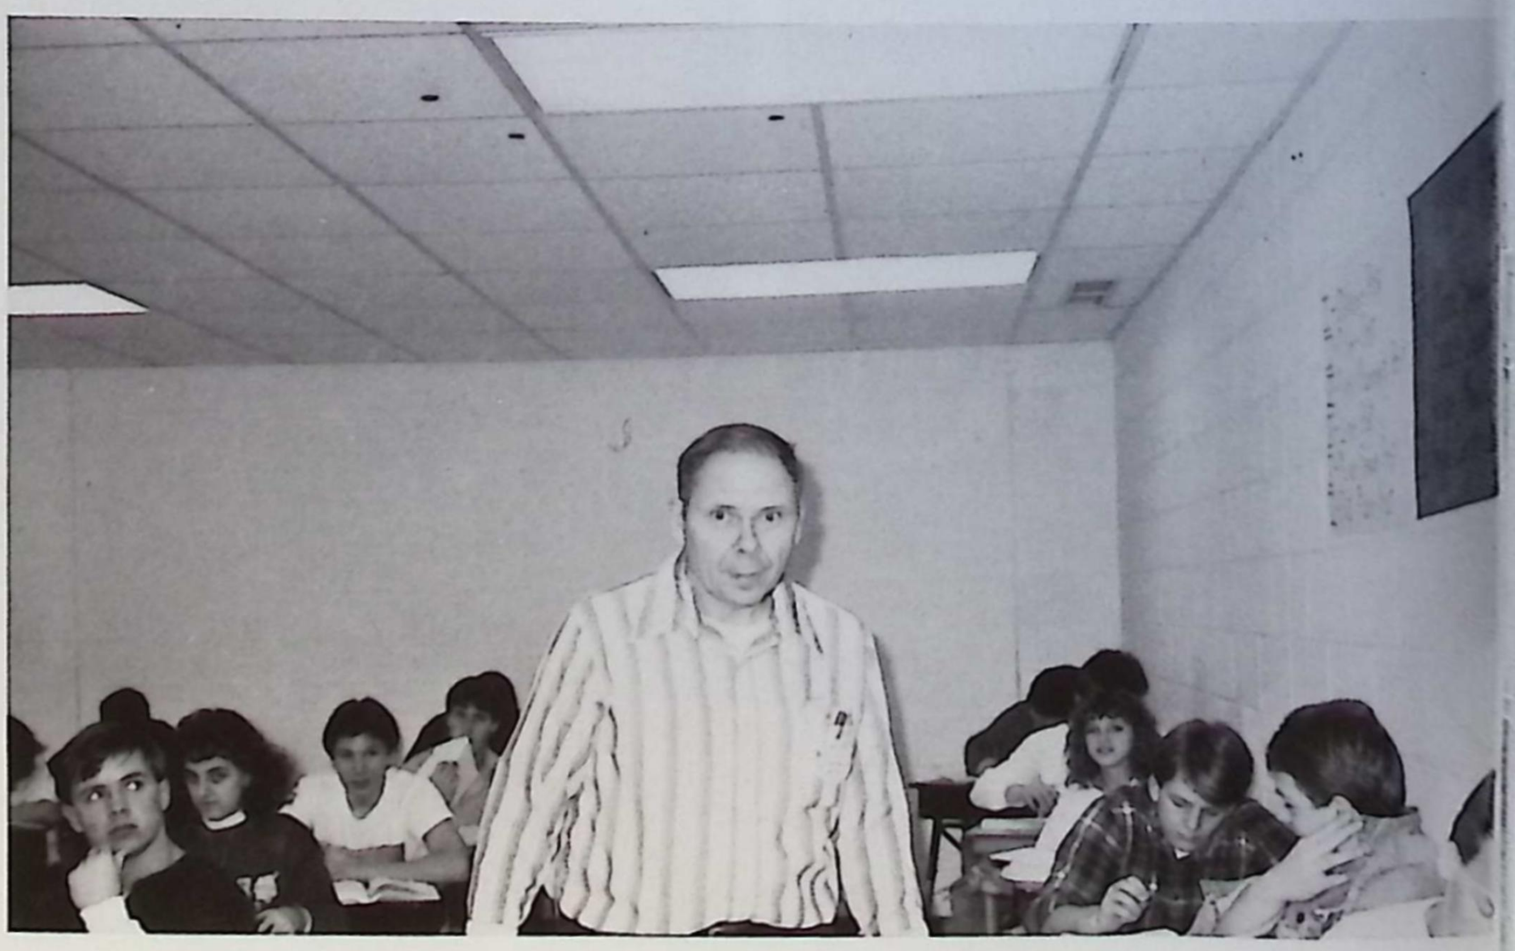
Mr. Goldie Smith stands in front of the mural painted by Matt Netter. Mr. Larry Goulding is showing his usual seriousness while lecturing. Showing St. Clair high his serious side away from U.S. History is Mr. Pete Fox.



Taking time out from Life Science and Biology, and participating in the Homecoming Parade is Mrs. Lou Anne Kaufman. With an approving smile for his computer work on the board is Mr. Dan Watson. Mrs. Cindy Shafer helps out some of her students with Computer Literacy. Showing us that he's ready for the game of Geometry is Mr. Victor Ruehle.







PUTTING THE PIECES TOGETHER TO SOLVE THE PROBLEMS

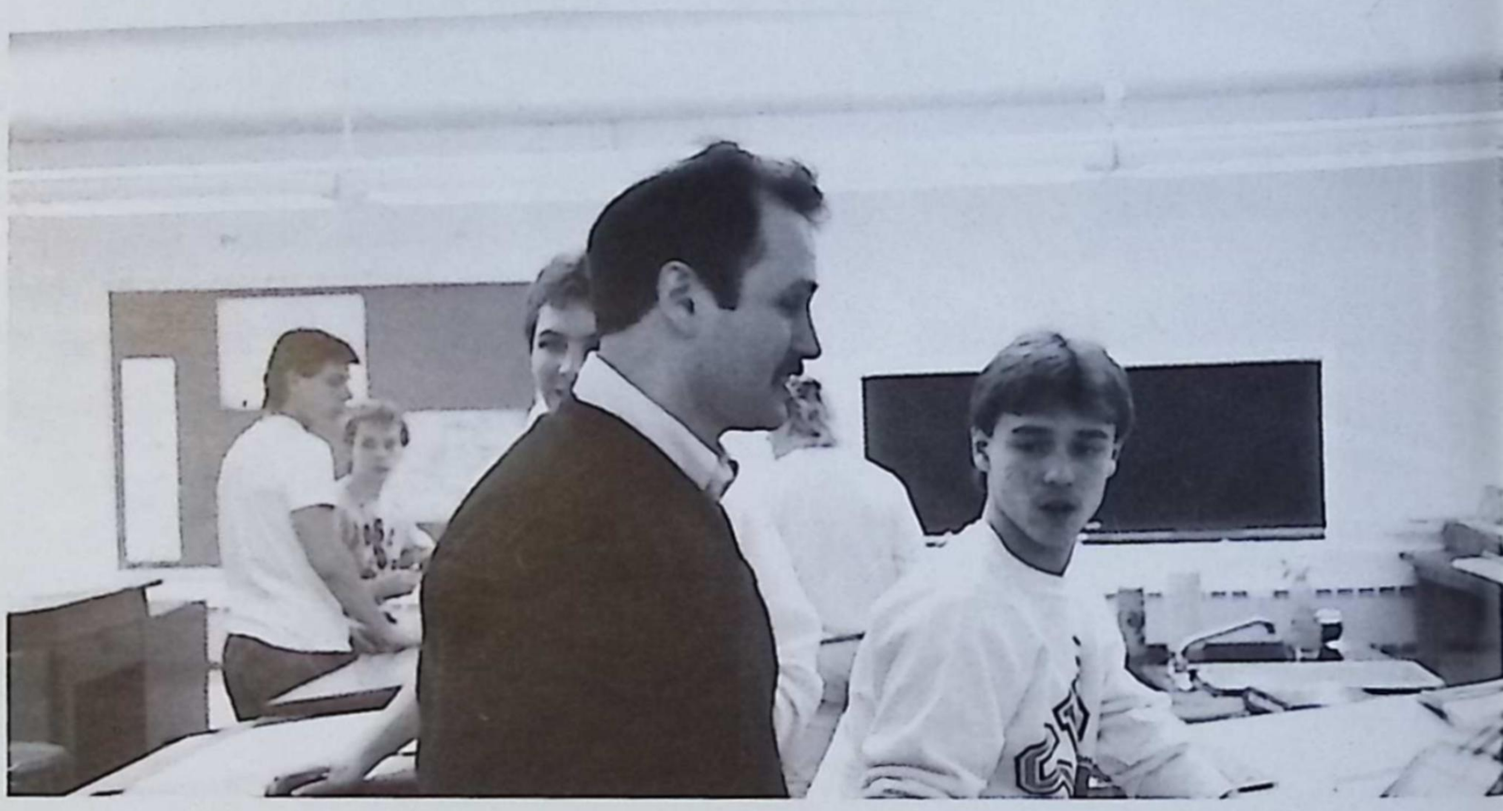
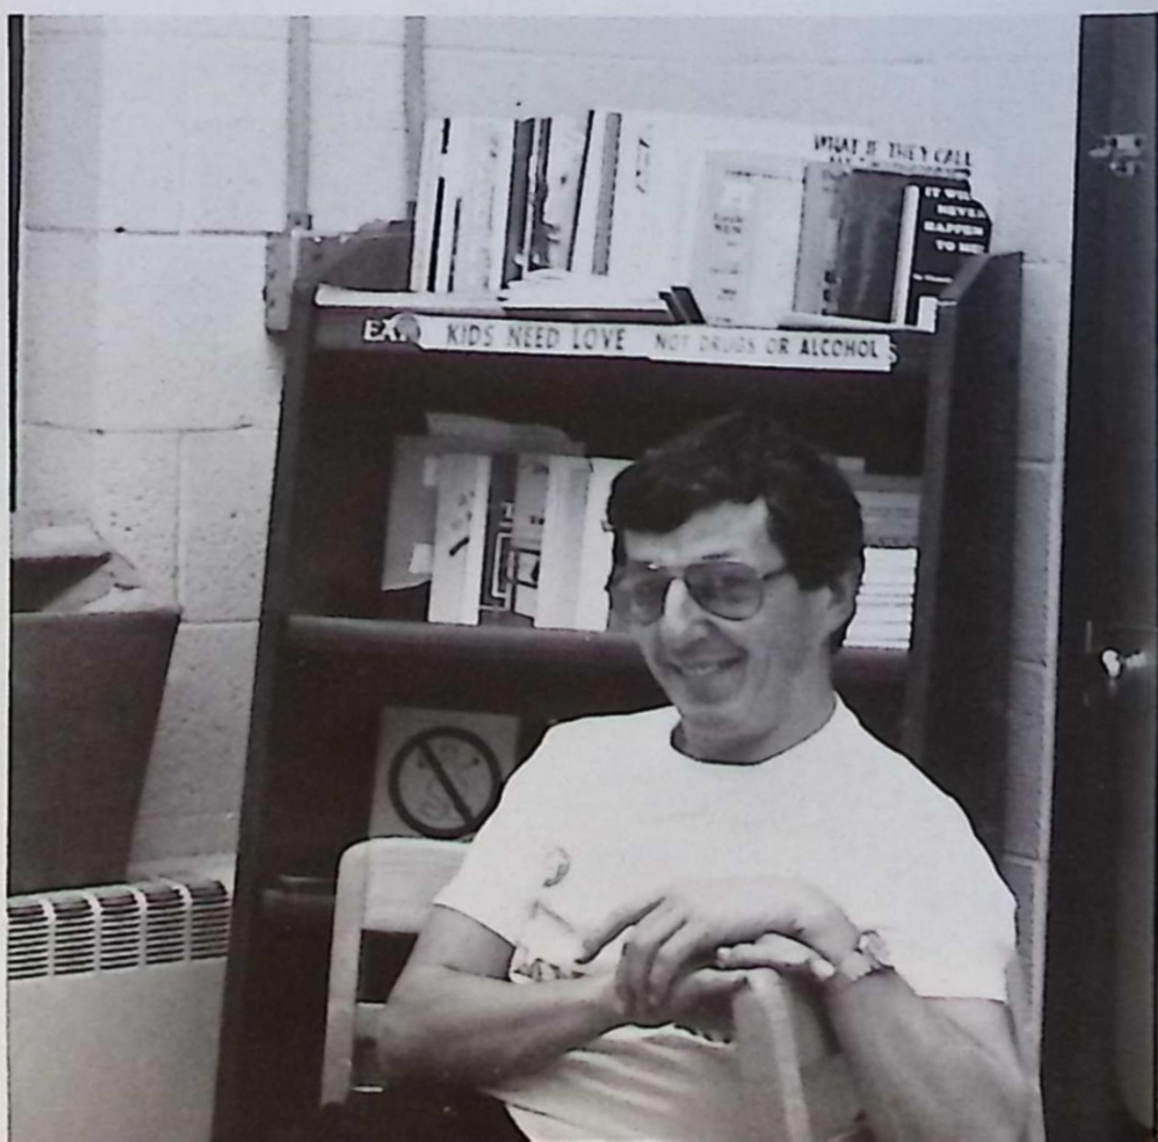
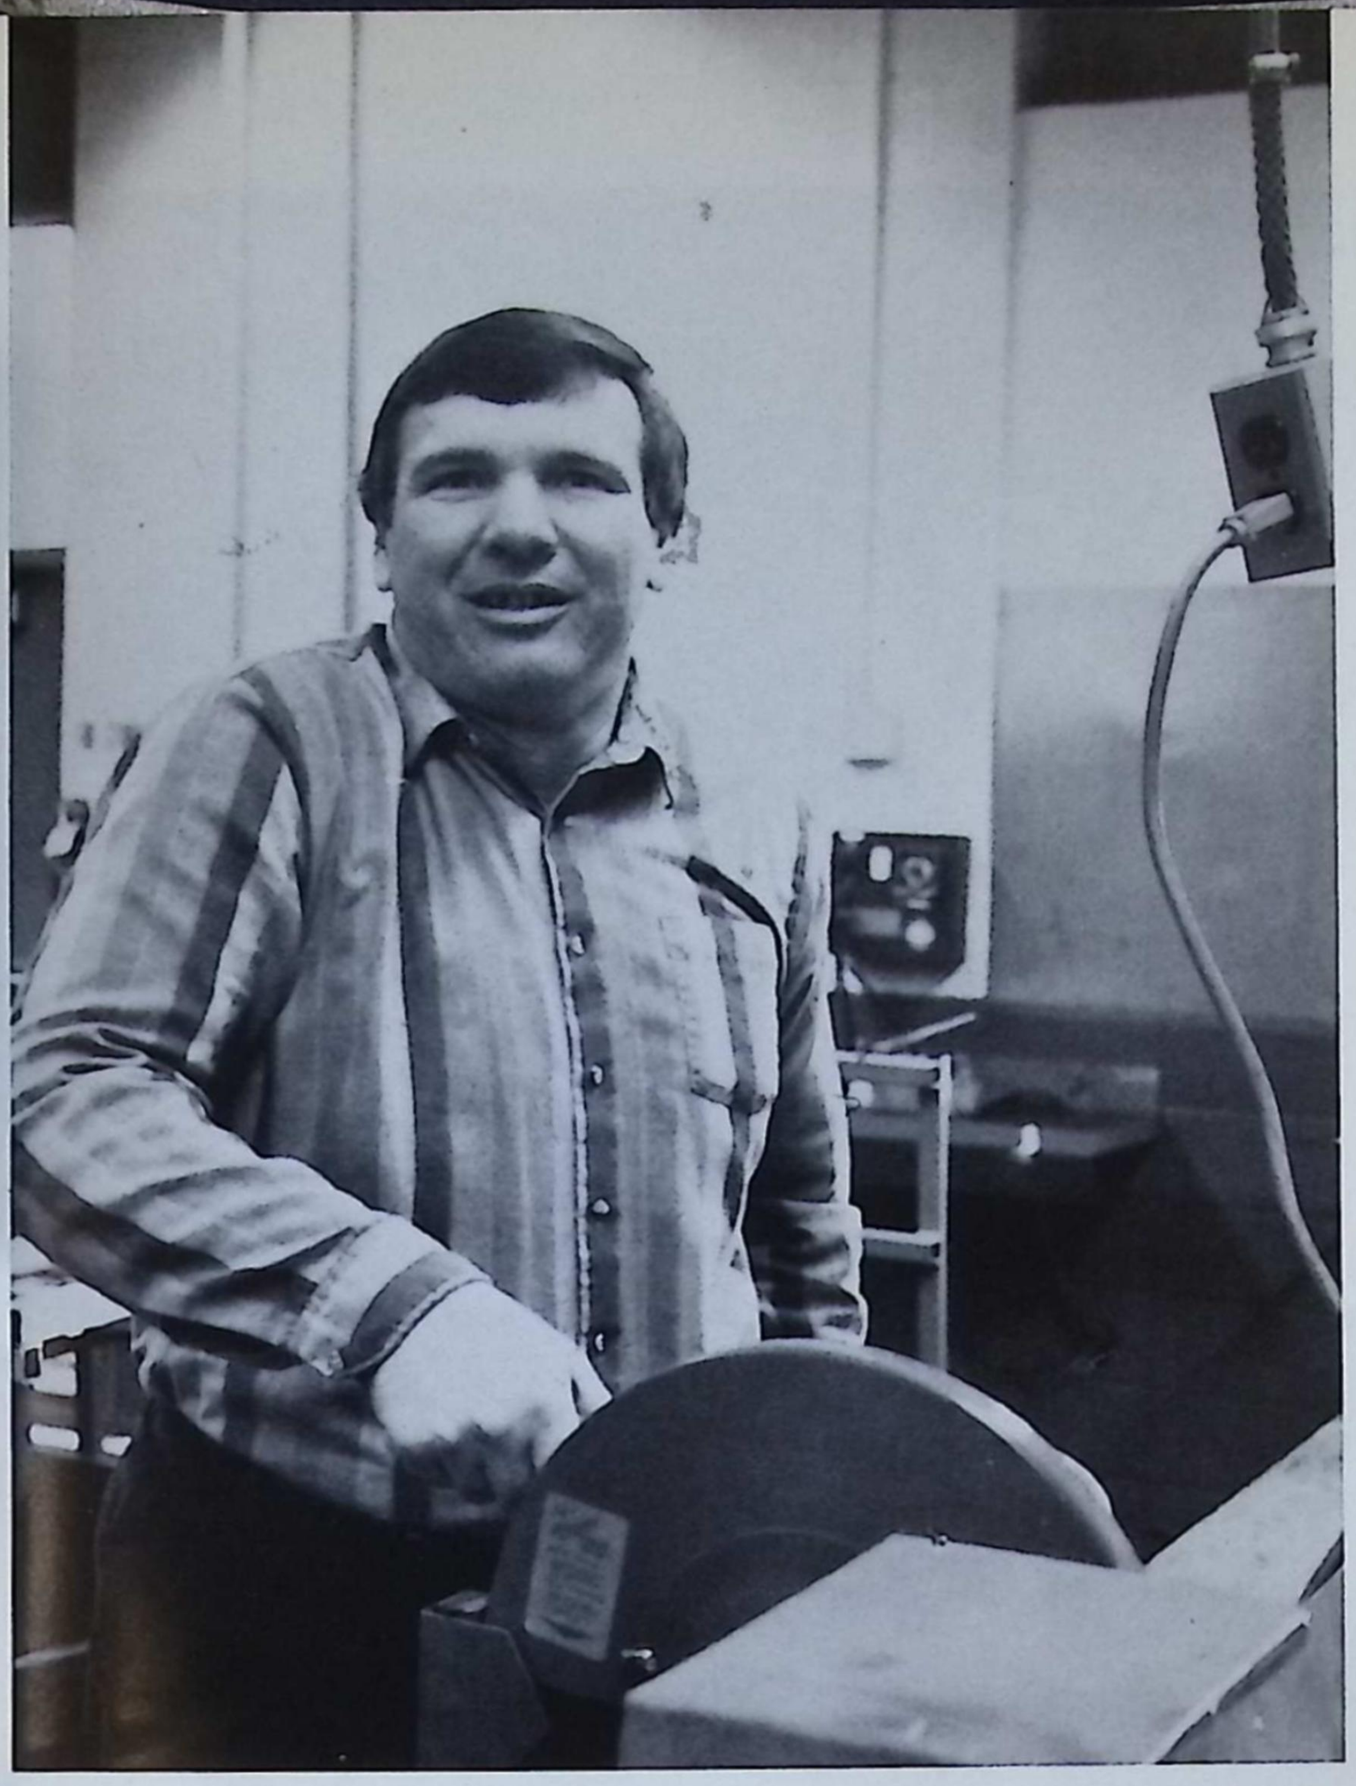
WORKING PARTS OF THE MIND TO STAY FIT

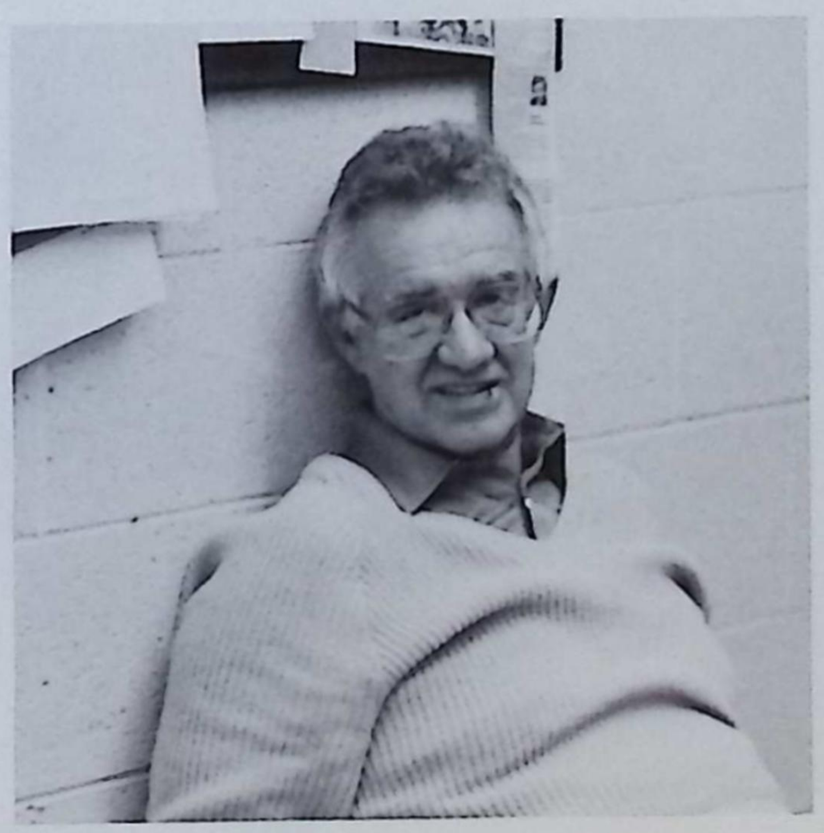


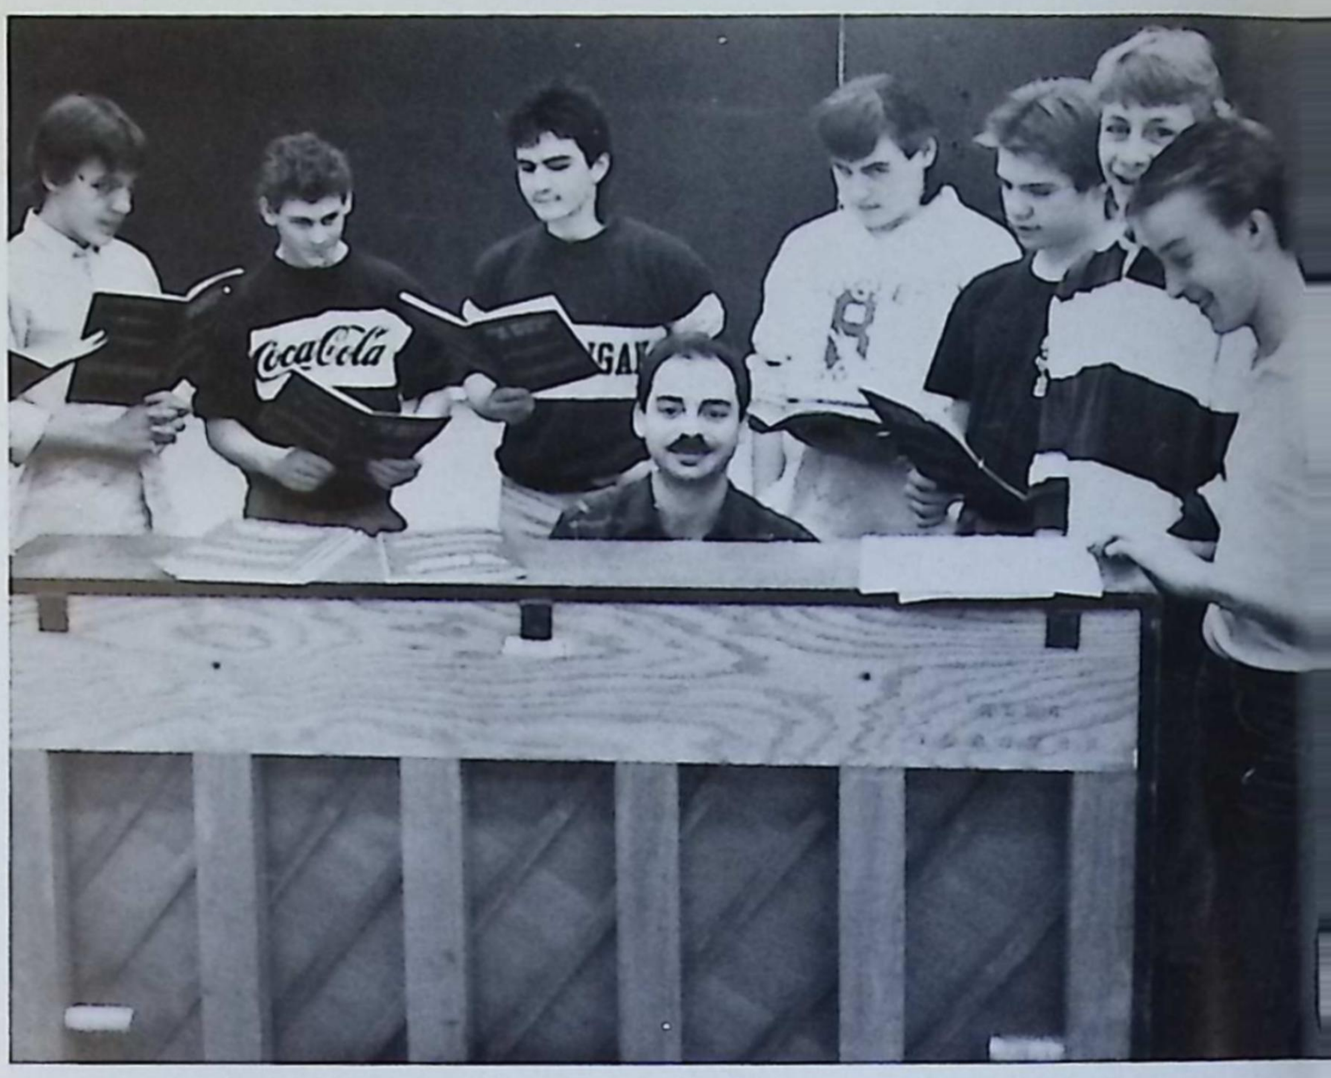
Ms. Trish Mihaiu takes time out of her dance class to sit on Santa's lap. Walking to the front of his Drafting class to teach them something new is Mr. Ken Thoel. Taking a break after an exhausting hour of Team Sports and Skills is Mr. Tony Monte.



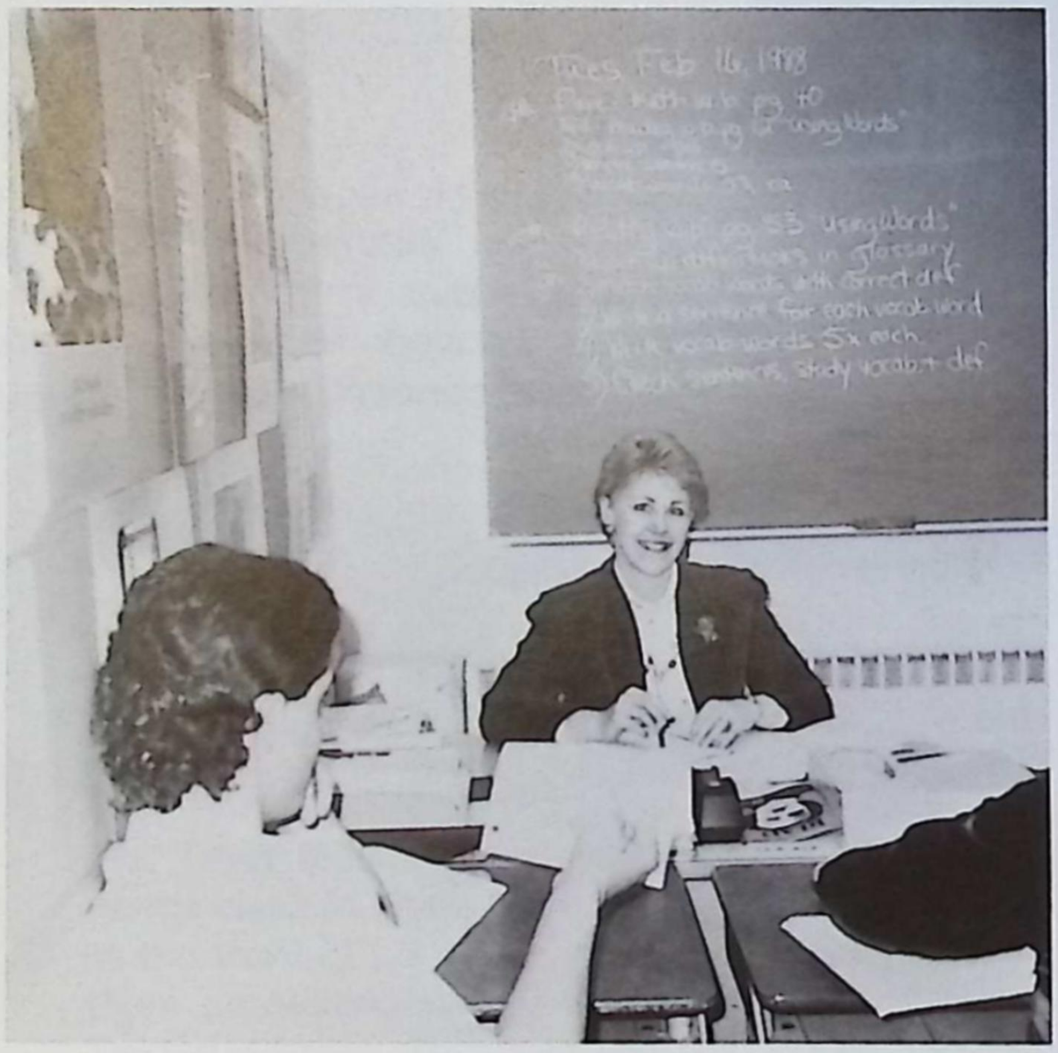


Showing us his expert woodworking skills is Mr. Ben Witukiewicz. Mrs. Ginger McNabb stands in front of some of her classes' Art work. Mr. Arvid Watt and his toothpick concentrates on substance abuse.



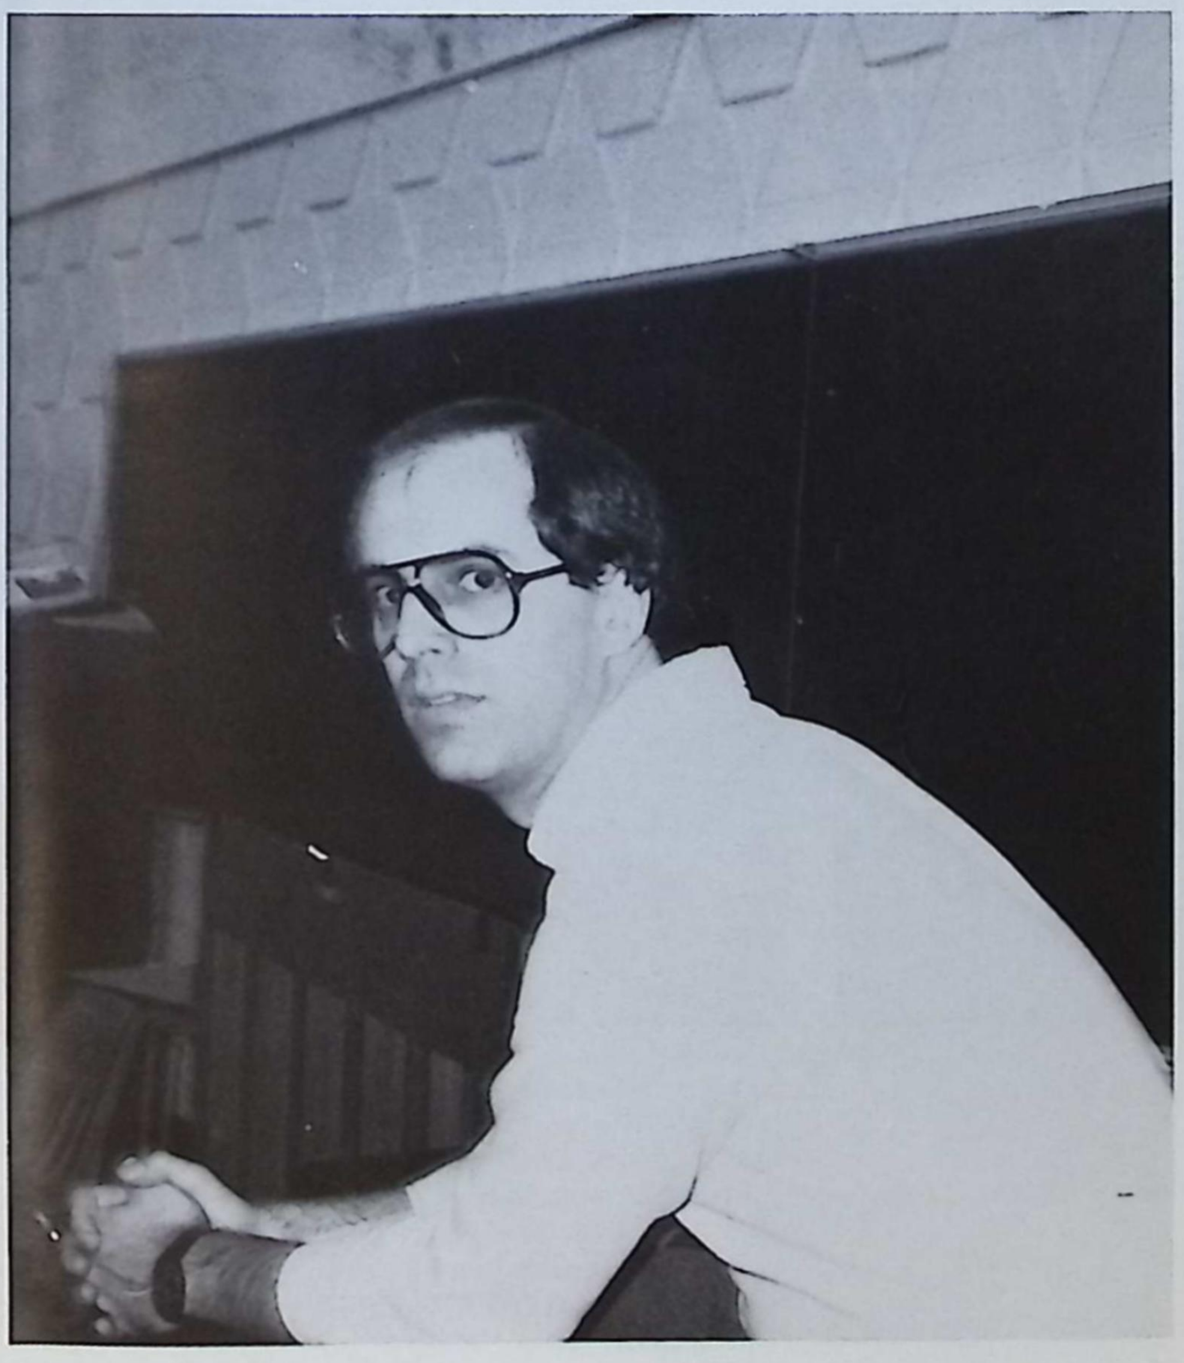


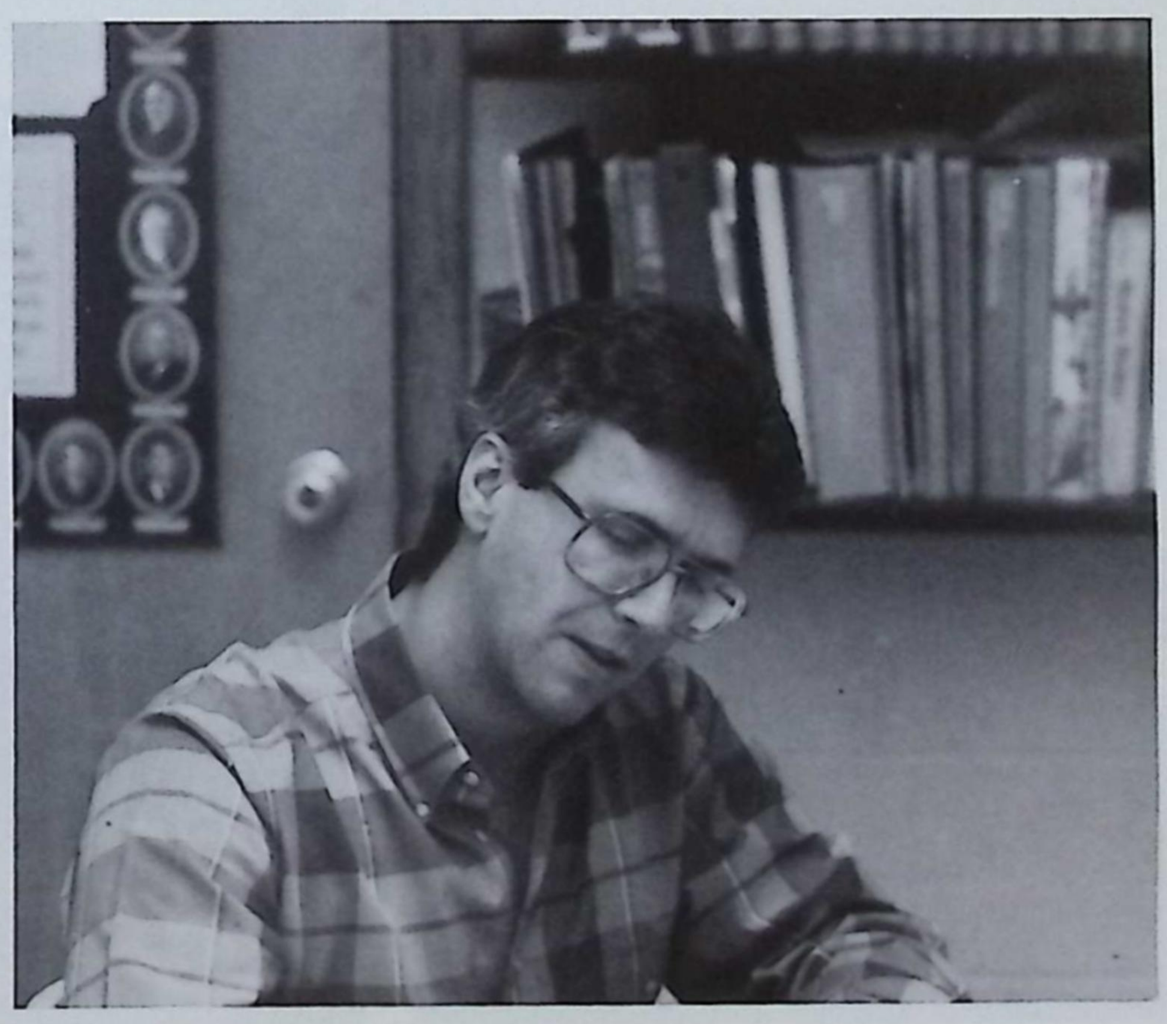
Surrounded by his choir is their director, Mr. Doug Thomas. Even in her small classroom, Mrs. Karen Schunk seems to enjoy teaching. Mrs. Carol Beeker is happy to see male students in child development.



MAKING THE WHOLE PUZZLE HAPPY

Showing us how happy she is to be St.Clair's librarian is Ms. Nancy Cruickshank. Relaxing is Mr. Bob Wheeler after a long day of directing the band. Mr. Tom Stevenson is in deep thought working on individual assignments.



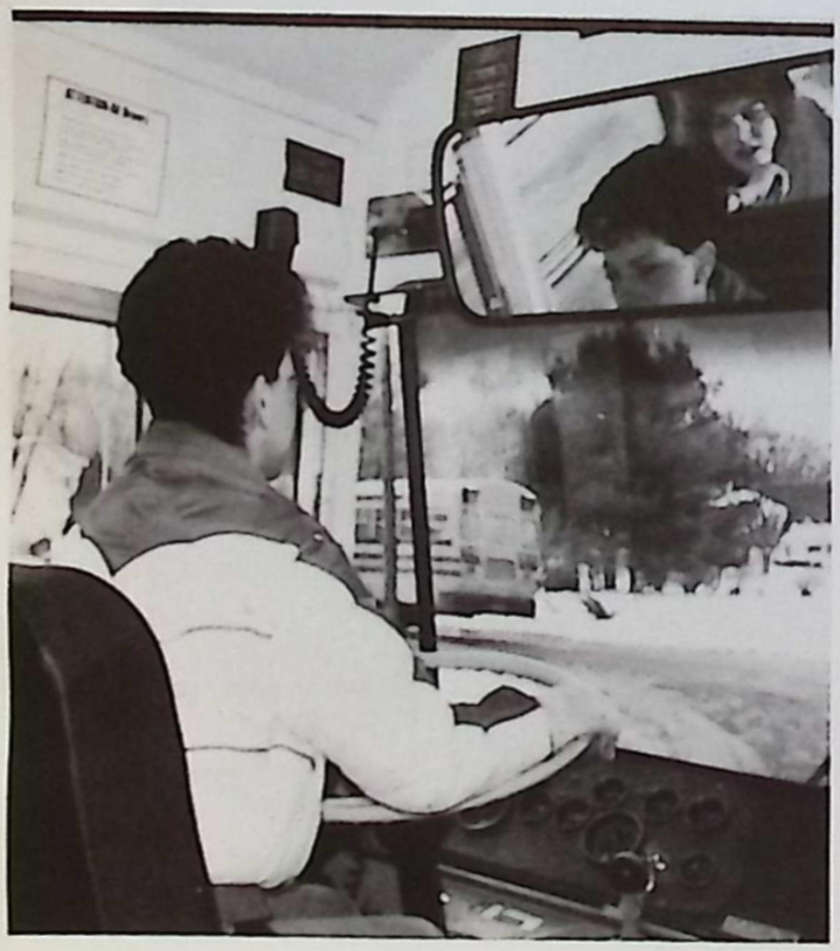


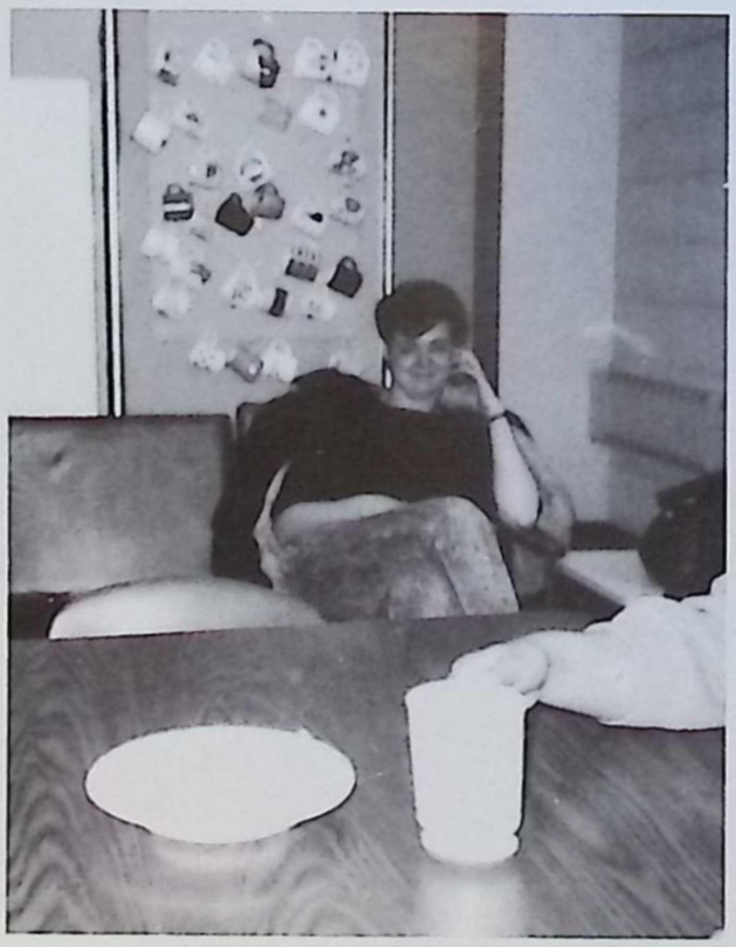
BRINGING ALL THE PARTS TO THE RIGHT PLACE

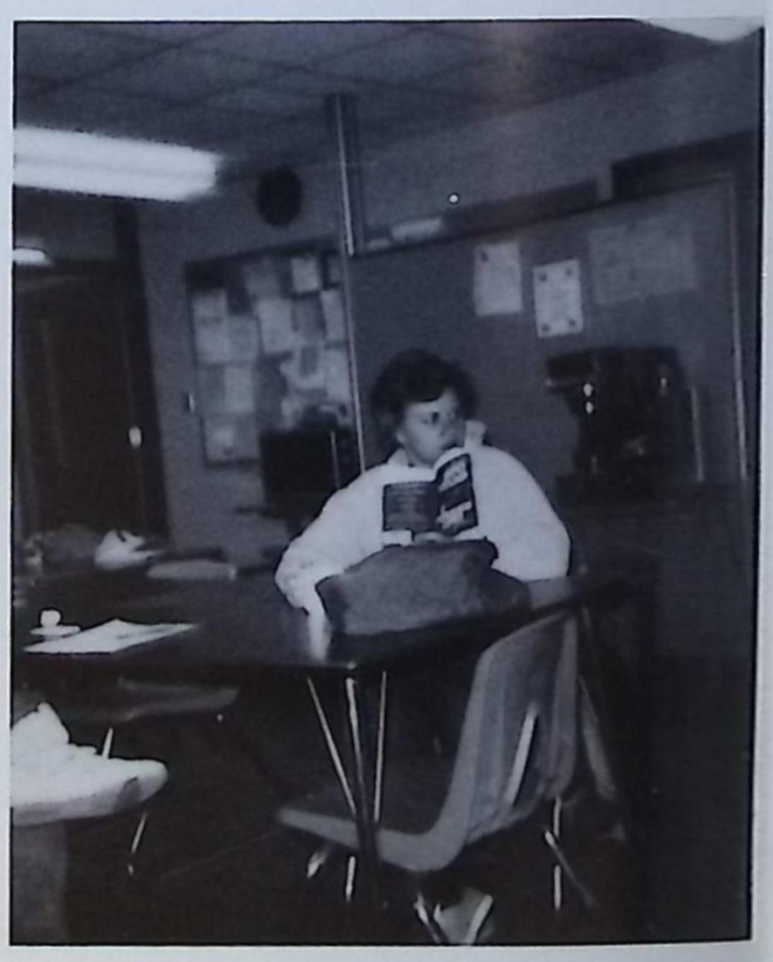
A vital link in St. Clair High are the bus drivers. These dedicated drivers are sometimes looked at as the bad guys, but in reality they are very important. If bus drivers didn't exist then about seventy percent of the students would have to find a different way of getting to school.

Many might think being a bus driver is a simple job, but bus drivers don't agree with that. For most of them, getting up before sun rise and making two or three runs picking up students and dropping them off, is not an easy task. Before they know it, it's getting dark and it's time to go home.

We should all be thankful for the bus drivers' services, especially if you ride a bus.

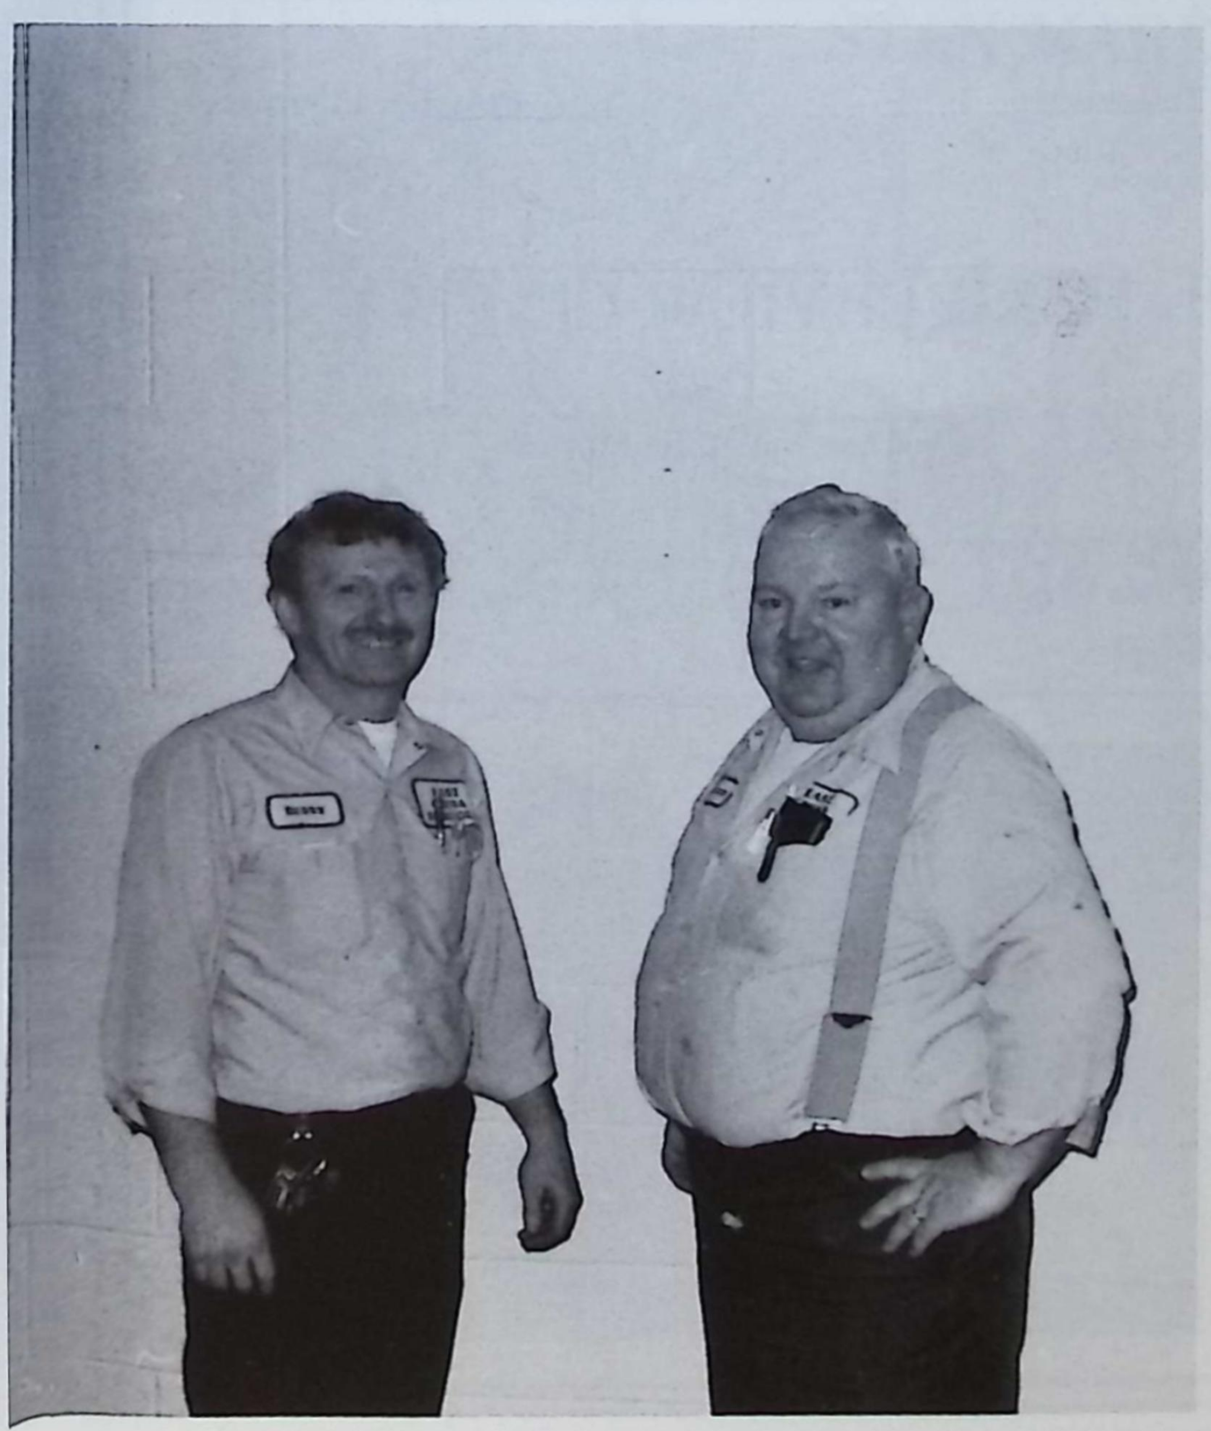






Evelyn Gillespie (Mrs. G), and Sue Sophe exchange stories of what happened that day on their bus routes. Iris Ruhlman can, not only drive a bus, but also keep an eye on the students as well. DeAnna Osterland sits down and enjoys a few extra minutes away from the kids before she starts her second bus route. Taking advantage of some quiet time, with a good book, is Nancy Daniels.

SWEEPING UP THE PIECES



Keeping the school running is hard and not very rewarding in recognition but rewarding in self-satisfaction.

It is the custodians' job to have things run smoothly for the students and staff. The custodians at St. Clair High School do an excellent job.

Their jobs vary from day to day. They could have to free a jammed locker, turn the heat on in the pool, clear the parking lots of snow, sweep the floors, prepare the gym for sporting events, and many more things. As you can see, without custodians, this school would be falling apart. The custodians and the jobs they do are greatly appreciated by the students and staff at St. Clair High.

Our Thoughts and Prayers Go With You

Almighty God, we beseech thee, with thy gracious favour to behold our universities, colleges, and schools, that knowledge may be increased among us, and all good learning flourish and abound.
Bless all who teach and all who learn; and grant that in humility of heart they may ever look unto thee, who are the fountain of all wisdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRADUATION TIME

Graduation time is here at last

Your high school days are history past

The time has come to cross that stage.

In the book of your life you've filled another page.

When you reach out your hand and accept that scroll,

Your life begins a brand new role.

You've made Dad and I so very proud,

Pomp and Circumstance for you will put us on a cloud.

We know it's not easy being a teen-ager today,

Drugs float 'round have led many astray,

You can look back with pride on these thirteen years

'Cause you've made the grade, it's time for cheers.

We know not yet what your future will bring,

More school, a career, or a wedding ring?

Whatever Our Lord has planned for you

We know we'll be proud your whole life through.
